

LABOR NEWS

By F. T. CORNELIUS, Secretary Salisbury-Spencer Central Labor Union

Federal Credit

Federal credit rests upon national wealth, which in the last analysis is a national power to produce. The Federal Government is responsible for using this credit for the general welfare of the nation.

The most recent test of our national credit was the offer of $351,661,000 for $75,000,000 of government bonds dated May 11.

Use of federal credit to carry out constructive plans for business recovery would strengthen all financial institutions public and private. Private banks, which are the main source of credit to business, are following policies dictated by the best interests of their stockholders.

Backs Typographical Union The Salisbury-Spencer Central Labor Union at its last regular meeting pledged its full support to the local typographical union in its fight to eliminate the unauthorized use of the union label.

Favor High Standards The Central Labor Union has placed itself officially on record as opposed to any efforts to shorten the public school term or any way lower the standards of our present school system.

vors the employment of local single teachers where qualifications are equal. Candidates' Views Presented The position of the successful candidates for Legislature in the recent primary, on questions effecting labor, as given in their replies to questionnaire sent out jointly by local labor, was again presented to the delegates of the Central Body as information to be carried back to their respective local unions.

Rankin A Visitor The Central Labor Union was honored last Monday evening by the presence of Chief R. L. Rankin who appeared in person to express appreciation of the support given him by the labor movement during the threatened communistic invasion.

GRETA GARBO HAS ANOTHER SUPERB ROLE

Offers Brilliant Portrayal As Cafe Singer Of "As You Desire Me."

Never before has Greta Garbo achieved so emotional and convincing a performance as in "As You Desire Me," her new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film which is at the Capitol Theatre Monday and Tuesday.

The reason for this is perhaps twofold; the obvious appreciation of the glamorous star for her unusual role, and the solid material provided by playwright Luigi Pirandello in his brilliant stage play from which the screen feature was deftly adapted.

In the beginning of the story, Miss Garbo appears in a silver wig, an exotic creature, much besought by the amorous night-lifers in gay Budapest. From this she undergoes a self-achieved metamorphosis as the wife of Count Bruno. The scene in which she confronts her accusers, relatives suspicious of her duplicity, and confounds them with intimate facts that point to the genuineness of her claims, is the high mark of the film.

Melvyn Douglas plays opposite Miss Garbo as the brooding nobleman who accepts her as his wife, even after he knows of her impersonation.

HOMESPUN SENSE ETHICS OF BANKING By MELVIN A. TRAYLOR President First National Bank, Chicago

We must not take unfair advantage of our competitors. It is entirely proper for us by legitimate means to obtain all the business that we can, but in doing so we ought to do nothing that will injure our competitors and that will destroy the confidence which the banks must repose in each other and which the community at large must repose in the banks as a whole if we are going to thrive, and remember always we cannot thrive separately. We shall either all thrive together or all suffer disaster.

Sentiment in Banking

No sentiment in banking? Will you recall just one day's activity at your desk—what were the problems you considered? Did they apply solely to the cold-blooded conduct of the affairs of your bank, weighing, measuring, analyzing, valuing securities, extending credit, driving the best bargains possible, having in mind only the material return from your day's labor? Certainly such is not the case. I recall many days, happy days, too, in my experience in a very small country bank, in which I am sure not one-tenth of my time was given to the real consideration of the financial returns to my institution.

Open Markets

I believe in an open market for the actual purchase and sale both of commodities and securities. But so long as the actual rate for credit in this country swings up and down according to the demand for funds for speculative purposes, little influenced by central or other banking policy, then something is wrong somewhere. Moreover, if business is influenced—as is almost universally charged—by the state of public mind; and if the state of public mind is influenced, as in recent years it most certainly has been, to run the scale from extreme optimism to extreme pessimism according to the characters on a ticker tape, then something is wrong with the public mind, or the conduct of the forces back of the tape. Those responsible must provide the answer.

"Don't be scared," said the burglar to a rich young lady. "I don't want your life—I want your money."

"Get out," said the generous young lady. "You're just like all the rest of them."

BABY FRETFUL, RESTLESS?

Look to this cause

When your baby fusses, tosses and seems unable to sleep restfully, look for one common cause, doctors say. Constipation. It gets rid quickly of the accumulated wastes which cause restlessness and discomfort, give a cleansing dose of Castoria. Castoria, you know, is made specially for children's delicate needs. It is a pure vegetable preparation; contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics. It is so mild and gentle you can give it to a young infant to relieve colic. Yet it is as effective for older children. Castoria's regulative help will bring relaxed comfort and restful sleep to your baby. Keep a bottle on hand. Genuine Castoria always has the name: Charles H. Fletcher CASTORIA CHILDREN CRY FOR IT
