

Democratic Convention Urges Lower Land Taxes

PLATFORM CALLS FOR A NEW VALUATION OF PROPERTY IN 1933

Removal Of The 15 Cent Property Tax For The Support Of The 6 Mos. School Term Is Pledged.

The platform adopted by the democratic state convention in Raleigh declares that all taxes on land for school purposes shall be removed and that a new and fair assessment of property will be made next year.

The following excerpts are given from the platform:

With an abiding faith in the courage of the people of our Commonwealth, the Democratic party pledges itself to a continuance of a program of conservative and helpful service, and to this end we pledge:

1. An immediate revaluation of property throughout the State at its true value in money, to the end that inequality and injustice may be avoided.

2. The removal of the 15c property tax now levied for the support of the six-month public school term.

3. We recognize the prime importance of preserving the credit of the State, and to that end the budget must be balanced.

4. The maintenance of the public school system and our higher institutions of learning in a state of efficiency, thus guaranteeing to every boy and girl in North Carolina the opportunity "to burgeon out all that there is within them."

5. The promotion of public health and welfare.

6. The care of the unfortunate and helpless in our humanitarian institutions.

7. A program of strict economy in every department and agency of the State government, including the discontinuance of any governmental agency which is not rendering a necessary and indispensable public service, or saving money for the taxpayers of the State.

8. It has always been the policy of our party to levy no taxes except for the necessary expenses of efficient government, and in this time of universal distress, we pledge every reasonable effort for the reduction of governmental expenses and the avoidance of the additional taxes.

9. The Democratic party always has been responsive to the will of the people, and in obedience thereto, has sponsored and enacted all of the prohibition laws of North Carolina. Recognizing, however, the right of the people, in a legal way, to amend the Constitution of the United States at their pleasure, and to vote on all questions at issue, we declare our party stands firmly for the enforcement of these laws and every provision of the Federal Constitution, so long as it remains the law of the land.

10. We pledge a continuance of our policy of frank recognition of the rights of both capital and labor, and a broader distribution of employment as a means to a satisfactory and sustaining progress of industrial development, and a more wholesome industrial life in this State. We endorse the legislation along this line enacted by the last Legislature, and commend the Democratic leadership responsible for it. We pledge ourselves to the enforcement of these and other laws.

REV. TOM COOK, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church: "Until a substitute better than our present law can be enforced to wipe out the liquor evil, I am in favor of America keeping to the dry path laid out for her by the 18th amendment."

REV. B. J. WESSINGER, pastor of Haven Lutheran church: "I am in favor of prohibition until some better means of enforcement can be obtained."

REV. MARK H. MILNE, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church: "I do not care to make a statement."

REV. K. D. STUDENBROK, pastor of the North Main Baptist church: "I am absolutely in favor of prohibition as a means of maintaining morals."

REV. V. O. DUTTON, pastor of the North Main Methodist church: "I believe in enforcing the law to the limit. The 18th amendment is law, so let's abide by the law. In the face of the

Jellies for the June Bride

By Alice Blake

WHEN the honeymoon is over and nine of the ten pairs of candlesticks have been exchanged for a wider variety of nice things for the new house, the wise little bride will begin to think of well-cooked meals.

She will be constantly trying out new dishes, but she must keep in mind that friend husband is accustomed to certain old standbys that mother used to make, and will miss them if he doesn't get them. Jam and jelly are among them.

Jelly making is an art as old as anything in the field of home making, but fortunately, jelly making today is not anything like the arduous task it was in grandmother's time. Any bride can make a batch of beautiful, delicious jam or jelly in a quarter of an hour from the time she lights the fire. And she need have no fear of failure, because modern research has provided bottled fruit pectin, which she can buy at any grocery and the use of which assures her that the right proportion of sugar, acid and pectin will be present in her kettle.

Try these recipes. But one word of warning: If you wish to give that new husband jelly and jam which not only equals but surpasses "Mother's," follow the recipes exactly.

Black Currant Jam
Red Currant Jam

4 cups (2 lbs.) crushed fruit
1/2 cup water
7 1/2 cups (3 1/2 lbs.) sugar
1/2 bottle fruit pectin

To prepare fruit, crush thoroughly or grind about 3 quarts fully ripe berries. Place fruit in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice.

Measure sugar and juice into large saucepan and mix. Bring to a boil over hottest fire and at once add pectin, stirring constantly. Then bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1/2 minute. Remove from fire, skim, pour quickly. Paraffin hot jelly at once. Makes about eleven 8-ounce glasses.

Strawberry Jelly
Blackberry Jelly

4 cups (2 lbs.) juice
7 1/2 cups (3 1/2 lbs.) sugar
1 bottle fruit pectin

To prepare juice, crush thoroughly or grind about 3 quarts
