TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR AMERICAN PEOPLE

The following "Ten Commandments for America," from the farewell address of George Washington, were compiled by Judge Edgar V. Werner, Appleton, Wis., in connection with the bi-centennial celebration this year.

1. Cease, sons of America, lamenting our separation; go on and confirm by your wisdom the fruits of our joint councils, joint efforts and common dangers.
2. Reverence religion.
3. Diffuse knowledge throughout your land.
4. Patronize the arts and sciences.
5. Let liberty and order be inseparable companions.
6. Control party spirit, the ban of free government.
7. Observe good faith to and cultivate peace with all Nations.
8. Shut up every avenue of foreign influence.
9. Contract, rather than extend national connections; rely on yourselves.
10. Be an American in thought and deed.

GOLDEN GLEAMS

The friends thou hast, and their adoption tried,
Grapple them to thy soul with hooks and steel.—Shakespeare.

What you can do, or dream you can, begin it;
Boldness has genius, power and magic in it.—Goethe.

In the great war of Right and Wrong, even I
My feeble help can give
To build a better world.—Brown.

WILL YOU SMILE?

If I were a sculptor who molded
A figure surpassingly fine,
If I were a painter who painted
A modern madonna divine,
If I were a poet who worshipped
My love with the lyrical line,

If I were a minstrel who chanted
Of love 'neath the heavenly blue
If I were those wonderful people,
And you were just plain little you,
I'd give you the gate in a moment
For, honest, you never would do!
—Brooklyn Eagle.

AIN'T EDUCATION GRAND!

According to a Boston University student, "Socrates died of an overdose of wedlock."
Well, sometimes that is one of the deadliest poisons love ever has to swallow.

FOLLOW THE LEADER

"Oh, Mr. Policeman, a man has been following me."
"Are you sure he was following you?"
"Yes, I went back two or three times to see if he was coming."

Stage Set For 2nd Primary

GOV. ROOSEVELT HOLDING LEAD

EXPECT 6,000 VOTES TO BE CAST IN THE RUN-OFF

Race Between Cameron Morrison And Reynolds Is Exciting The Most Interest In The County

ALL DEMOCRATIC MACHINERY AT POLLS TOMORROW

Results Should Be Known By Midnight Saturday Owing To The Small Number Of Names Of Candidates.

With the second primary but 24 hours off, interest is at a high pitch and many local people are predicting victory for their favorite candidates in no uncertain terms.

As the republican will not participate in the second primary an all-democratic election machinery will be set up to supervise the voting. Two democratic judges will serve at each precinct along with the democratic registrar.

The race for United States senator between R. R. Reynolds and Cameron Morrison has excited the most interest in the county. Backers of both candidates are predicting certain victory; however, just who will carry Rowan county will not be known until tomorrow night when the ballots are counted.

Local leaders predict that approximately 6,000 votes will be cast in the primary Saturday.

Owing to the small number of candidates appearing on the tickets the second primary will be much easier to handle than the first. All indications are that the results will be known by midnight tomorrow.

The official ballot follows:

STATE TICKET

United States Senator: R. R. Reynolds, Cameron Morrison.

Governor: J. C. B. Ehringhaus, R. T. Fountain.

Commissioner of Labor: C. E. Mitchell, A. L. Fletcher.

COUNTY TICKET

For Legislature: J. W. Bean, George Uzzell.

PENALTY TO GO IN EFFECT

Raleigh—Commissioner of Revenue A. J. Maxwell is issuing a reminder to all taxpayers liable for Schedule B license taxes that a penalty of five per cent will apply to all license taxes not paid by July 1 and five per cent will be added each month thereafter, until paid. This penalty applies to the general merchants' license taxes under Section 164 of the 1931 Revenue Act, as well as to other Schedule B license taxes, under a ruling of Attorney General D. G. Brummitt, Mr. Maxwell points out.

HOTEL COMPANY CHARTERED

Raleigh—The following certificate of incorporation has been filed in the office of the secretary of state: Atlantic Beach Hotel company of Morehead City, to own, operate and maintain hotels, restaurants, boat houses, beaches, etc.; authorized capital stock, 100 shares without nominal or par value; subscribed stock, 10 shares, by Robert W. Cordon, F. Vanden Foville of Morehead City, and A. D. MacLean of Washington.

WHAT PRICE FAME

Chicago—Maryland's Governor Albert C. Ritchie is having his troubles. He was jostled against a pillar, his shoe came off and he sat down and put it back on before all these people. When a crowd gathered outside his hotel, someone said it was Al Capone and another said it was Hoover.

SAY GOOD-BYES: Jean Harlow, platinum blonde star, bids adieu to single-blessedness, weds Paul Bern . . . Sen. Borah, Idaho, (right) bolts ranks of Hoover supporters over prohibition plank.

RARE FORM: Pretty Jean Arthur, Paramount featured player, displays her curves—among the many other famous actresses she says: "stay slender with salads" . . . eats two a day, with lots of mayonnaise, instead of heavy, fattening foods.

REWARD: Amelia Earhart Putnam receives the American Flag Association cross of honor in recognition of her transatlantic flight. Mrs. E. F. Hutton, New York, makes the award.

WILL ROGERS plays no favorites. He attended both national conventions—in the role of reporter.

INVENTIVE FAMILY: Ever hear of brothers who were inventors? T.M. and J.D. Rector are. Still young, they are credited with many important inventions. Tom (inset) is responsible for more than 30 inventions running the gamut from gas masks to the new vita-fresh process that keeps coffee roaster fresh. Mechanical gadgets are Jack's specialty. Here he is with one of his machines which in 10 minutes produces enough laundry starch tablets to keep a family supplied for 60 years.

WETS JUBILANT OVER THE REPEAL PLANK ADOPTED

Roosevelt Forces Need Over 100 Votes To Clinch Nomination For New York Governor.

DEMOCRATS TAKE DEFINITE STAND ON PROHIBITION

Advocate Repeal Of 18th Amendment; N. Carolina Delegates Vote For Resubmission.

Nomination of Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, as the standard-bearer of the Democratic party for 1932 was predicted as a certainty Thursday night, according to reports emanating out of the Democratic convention now in session in Chicago.

The nominee must have 770 votes under the two-thirds rule. Roosevelt lacked only 130 votes to secure the nomination at a late hour last night.

Thursday was spent in the adoption of the platform, passing on the amendments, revisions or substitutions.

By an overwhelming majority, the Democratic convention went on record favoring the repeal of the prohibition law. The vote was: for repeal 934 3-4; for submission 213 3-4.

North Carolina delegates voted 20 for resubmission and 6 for repeal.

The question was not of one of "wet" or "dry." The vote was recorded on whether the plank should be for resubmission or repeal. Those seeking repeal swamped the convention.

Some of the highlights of the convention are as follows:

Keynote speech by Alben W. Barkley. Denounces Hoover administration. Predicts Democratic victory in November. Called for vote on dry-wet issue.

Election of Thomas J. Walsh, Montana, U. S. Senator, permanent chairman, succeeding Jouette Shouse. This was considered a victory for the Roosevelt forces.

Adoption of tentative platform as carried in detail elsewhere in this issue of The Watchman.

Adoption of a plank advocating the repeal of the 18th amendment, following an address by Alfred E. Smith, former nominee.

Roosevelt forces withdrew fight for majority rule.

Candidacies of Roosevelt, Baker, Ritchie, Garner, Byrd, White, Taylor, and Smith urged.

Heated addresses pro and con on prohibition issue.

Late reports received by The Watchman Thursday night indicate that the names of Roosevelt, Garner and Al Smith had been placed in nomination.

Al Smith was placed in nomination by Governor Ely, of Mass. The demonstration accorded Smith was the longest on record at the convention, lasting one hour and forty-six minutes.

BICYCLE SQUAD NOW WALKING

Washington—Congress didn't provide funds for their maintenance, so Washington's bicycle police detachment has been discontinued. Of the 19 policemen so engaged, 18 are pounding pavements again, one graduated to the motorcycle division.

G. O. P. MEETING ARRANGED

The democrats, when meeting some time ago to select local office nominees. Catawba county since 1930 has been under a democratic administration.

Railroad Begins Operation Of Motor Express

In order to meet the competition of motor transportation, the Seaboard Air Line railroad has begun the operation of a motor express line between Monroe and Hamlet.

Under a recent act of the Corporation commission the railroad is allowed to run a motor express in order to compete with the motor transportation companies in service and in price. According to J. A. Doglous, Seaboard freight agent, this service is in the nature of an experiment.

The truck is allowed to pick up freight only at the freight depots between here and Hamlet. However, the Seaboard is making a fight to secure the rights to pick up and deliver freight directly from and to the customer as do the other transportation companies.

The experimental truck makes only one trip daily but if business justifies more trucks will be added and the routes extended.
