

Ehringhaus To Carry County 3 To 1, Forecast

LOCAL MANAGER IS OPTIMISTIC OVER OUTLOOK

Predicts Majority Of 3,500 In Rowan; Maxwell Supporters Switch To Ehringhaus.

J. C. B. Ehringhaus, candidate for governor, will carry Rowan county by a majority of at least 3,500, according to a forecast made Thursday by W. H. Shannon, county manager, on the eve of the second primary scheduled for Saturday.

Mr. Gooch also predicted Mr. Ehringhaus would be nominated tomorrow by one of the largest majorities any candidate in the state ever received over his opponents.

Estimates were made by friends of Mr. Ehringhaus that he would get between 80 to 85 per cent of the votes given Maxwell in the first primary. It is reported that a large number of Mr. Maxwell's supporters have joined the Ehringhaus ranks and are actively pushing his candidacy.

The Ehringhaus campaign is being conducted in this county, as well as over the entire state, without mudslinging and without any offense or prejudice to any other candidate, Mr. Shannon stated.

Based on reports received by Mr. Shannon from the 32 precincts in Rowan county, he predicted a three to one victory in Rowan for Ehringhaus over his opponent, R. T. Fountain.

Mr. Fountain was a visitor in Salisbury and Rowan county during the first part of the week. Mr. Fountain advised The Watchman that he was very much encouraged over the outlook of his campaign and believed he would emerge victorious Saturday.

In an address Thursday night in the county courthouse, Mr. Ehringhaus was highly praised by Raymond C. Dunn, Enfield attorney, one of his leading supporters. Mr. Dunn predicted an overwhelming victory for Mr. Ehringhaus and said he was in every respect qualified to be governor of North Carolina.

The speaker also denounced the tactics employed by R. T. Fountain in his campaign for governor.

JEALOUSY TIP BETRAYS GIRL

Boston—"Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned," but a jealous male, scorned by his 18-year-old "light o' love," was responsible for her being sentenced to prison.

He was responsible, too, for the holding of a trio of young alleged burglars for the grand jury and before the result of his fury hath been expended several Malden breaks in which a girl has been reported a participant may be cleared up.

Charlotte E. Willey, who formerly lived in Somerville, was the girl who scorned her suitor to regret it. He, refusing to make known his identity, telephoned police and tipped them that at a house in Ferry Street, Malden, they might find something interesting.

How Cardui Helps Women

"Mal-nutrition" means that your body is not getting enough to keep it up, so that what it has to do is not done well. You may not be eating enough to keep up the work of the body, or there may be something wrong that keeps you from getting full value from the food you eat.

Because of mal-nutrition, some women have aches and pains every month. Such pains should not be neglected.

Take Cardui to give you a better appetite, to give you more strength from the food you eat—to build up and increase your feeling of well-being. Aches and pains go away as you build up with the help of Cardui.

WHEN COST

Must Be Considered

It is unfortunate that necessity forces us to consider the cost at a time when we wish to do the utmost to render an appropriate tribute to the departed. But this necessity is greatly alleviated when a service perfectly planned may be held here at a most moderate cost.
