

THE-POLITICAL "JANUS" ABOUT TO GO INTO ACTION

Hobson Heads Rowan G. O. P.

W. H. Hobson was elected chairman of the Rowan County Republican Executive Committee last Saturday following the resignation of Ray P. Lyerly.

Mr. Hobson was elected to complete the two year term of Mr. Lyerly who resigned because of his duties as superintendent of Nazareth Orphan Home at Crescent.

Other officers of the committee follow: G. C. Peeler, vice-chairman and A. L. Klutz, secretary.

GOLD HILL ITEMS

Large crowds of people are attending the revival which is in progress at St. Paul P. H. church. Rev. H. B. Barger, of Kannapolis, has been delivering some wonderful messages and the singing by Mr. and Mrs. Salvador has been greatly enjoyed. The meeting will continue through Sunday.

Prosperity grange will meet again Monday night. This will be an important meeting and all members are urged to attend. Someone is expected to be there to explain the burial benefit association, which will go into business in October. This grange solicits new members, for the grange will help you.

Mr. Rich Redwine and grandson, of Salisbury, spent Saturday night with Mr. C. L. Wiles.

Mr. Elbert Hill has moved into his new house. Several of the young people of this community gathered Monday night and gave him a good belling.

Rev. J. L. Morgan, of Salisbury, the president of the Luthern Synod, preached a powerful sermon at Piney Woods, Sunday, on the subject, "Grapevine and its branches," taking his text from the 15th chapter of St. John. A communion service followed the sermon.

Mr. Grady Treece and family, of the Reeve's Island section, spent Sunday evening with H. L. Treece.

Mr. C. L. Wiles spent Sunday night with Mr. Jim Redwine, of Salisbury. Misses Ruth Morgan, Marie Bassinger, and Kathleen Howell spent Sunday evening with Artie and Ruby Treece.

Mr. John W. Honeycutt was taken to an Albemarle hospital, Monday, and operated on for an infection on his leg. Mr. Honeycutt is one of our good merchants at Gold Hill and we hope he will soon be able to be back home.

Miss Mae Hill was a welcome visitor with Miss Elsie Hill Sunday evening.

We are having some dry, hot weather in this community. Many of the wells have gone dry and the roads are dusty. The corn yield will average only about a half crop. We sure would be glad to see a good shower.

CLEVELAND R. 2 ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perry, of Banner Elk, N. C., returned to their home Sunday.

Misses Steele and Lavoy Cranford gave a party for their Sunday school classes Saturday evening at Miss Steele's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Burton and Miss Helen Anderson have returned to their homes at Memphis, Tenn., after visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Steele and son, Kenneth, spent Sunday night with the P. A. Johnson family. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell also spent a while there.

Messrs. Holland and James Perry and Miss Blanche Perry were Sunday visitors in this neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Miller and children visited her mother and sister in Kannapolis Sunday.

Mr. Frank Phifer, an aged man of this community, who has been sick for so long, is reported to be no better.

Miss Mamie Miller is spending some time with Miss Blanche Perry at Charles, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Steele, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Steele and Miss Estelle Wilhelm visited Miss Wilhelm's father at Statesville Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. L. Graham and daughter, Mary Emma, visited at P. T. Johnson's Monday evening, also Mrs. C. E. Steele and Miss Stele Wilhelm were there.

TWO POLICEMEN SENT TO PRISON

Atlant.—It's different when it happens to you," two former Gadsden, Ala., policemen said here as the gates of the federal penitentiary clanged shut behind them.

They were C. N. Adams and W. H. Lockridge, sentenced to two years after conviction of conspiracy to violate the national prohibition law. They were specifically charged with accepting bribes from confessed liquor law violators.

Adams and Lockridge told guards who conveyed them to the penitentiary they frequently had conducted prisoners to prison themselves, but with entirely different feelings about the matter.

CIGAR IS LIT WHEN COTTON HITS 8 CENTS

Wadesboro.—"Happy days are here again." At least things are beginning to look brighter for H. W. Little, well-known merchant and cotton-buyer of this city, for he is smoking again.

When the gloom of depression was at its darkest, Mr. Little gave up the pleasant weed, declaring that he could no longer afford such luxury when "times were so hard." To the enquiry of friends, he replied that he would abstain from smoking until the October cotton market reached eight cents, and for 11 weeks he carried a cigar and two matches in his pocket in readiness for the longed-for rise.

Thus the occasion was duly celebrated this week when cotton was quoted at eight-fourteen, and the cigar was jubilantly lighted. His friends wish for Mr. Little the enjoyment of many more pleasant smokes.
