November 7 Gen. Election Approaching

Chairman Gregory Explains The Law

Registration For General Election Will Continue Three Weeks, Election Board Chairman Says.

Laws Regulating Eligibility To Vote Are Outlined; Heavy Vote In This County Is Anticipated

Registration books will be opened Saturday, October 8, and will close Saturday, October 29, and all persons who have not registered but are eligible or will become eligible to vote in the general election November 8 will have an opportunity to place their names on the books, E. C. Gregory, chairman of the county board of elections, announced yesterday.

Any person whose twenty-first birthday is on or before November 7, the day after the election, will be eligible to cast his ballot in the general election, Chairman Gregory said, because on his birthday he is beginning his twenty-second year. He is considered 21 years old and eligible to exercise his suffrage, therefore, on election day.

In the same way, said Mr. Gregory, any person who in any other way may become eligible, for instance, by completing the legal residence period required before being allowed to vote, will be allowed to register. In event the registration books close before eligible, he may register when he goes to the polls election day by explaining the situation to the registrar at his box, said the chairman.

GOOD MORNING

SEVEN FOOLS

- The man who puts only big apples on top.
- The man who always sees happiness in another town.
- The man who believes everyone else is crooked.
- The man who thinks the world owes him a living.
- The boy who knows more than his father.
- The girl who can "take care of herself."
- Any man who tries to match wits with God.

REVISED PROVERBS

- Look before you cheat.
- Procrastination is the sign of the times.
- If at first you did not win, date, date and date again.
- All are not girls that giggle.
- He who hesitates is the boss.
- A miss is as good as her environment.
- Love suppereth long and he that dines her must pay the piaman.
- Johnnie: Have a big time at No-gales, Joe?
- Joe: Pretty good, but I had some trouble with one of those two bit slot machines in front of one of the saloons.
- Johnnie: Yeah?
- Joe: Yeah. You usually put a quarter in one and get some money out, but I put a slug in one of the damned things and the manager came out.

"Yes," said the boastful young man, "my family can trace its ancestry back to William the Conqueror."

"I suppose," sneered his friend, "you'll be telling us that your ancestors were in the Ark with Noah?"

"Certainly not," said the boaster. "My people had a boat of their own."
