

IN THE GOLDEN TEMPLE OF JEHOI

China of the Eighteenth century will be presented at A Century of Progress Exposition in the golden temple of Jehoi. The temple at Chicago's 1933 World's Fair will be a faithful reproduction of the original, built in 1767 at Jehoi, summer home of the Manchu emperors from 1714 till the abdication of the dynasty some twenty years ago. Pictured above is one of the great bronze and gilded wooden Buddhas, with attendant figures, which will stand within the temple.

Roosevelt Cabinet Has Varied Religious Views

No one denomination has a monopoly on the religious affiliations of the new Roosevelt Cabinet. Their religious beliefs are as varied as their political views. The church connections of the Cabinet members are as follows:

Helped By Cardui

Here's the true story of how Cardui helped Mrs. H. E. Unaway, of McComb, Miss., as written by herself:

"I was sick and rather discouraged. I was so weak and thin, I was not able to do my work as it should be done. This made me fret a good deal, and did not help my condition.

"I had pains across my back and lower part of my body. My nights were spent in rolling from one side of the bed to the other, hoping I would soon go to sleep. Then when morning would come, I would be just as tired as when I went to bed. A neighbor, seeing how badly I felt, told me to try Cardui. After I had taken one bottle, I was much better. I kept on taking Cardui, and I was stronger and slept much better at night."
