

45 Years Ago In Old Salisbury---

(Copied verbatim from the old files of The Carolina Watchman.)

(By Clyde Ennis)

Married in New Orleans, Dec. 29, 1887. J. M. Tiernan to Miss F. C. Fisher of Salisbury, N. C.

R. W. Price has moved his beef stand near the post office.

Bishop Lyman was here last Sunday and baptised and confirmed several persons at St. Lukes church.

Died—Mr. Robert Lanier, younger brother of Mr. J. B. Lanier of this town.

A vicious dog kept about the express office bit three persons on last Thursday, Mr. J. M. Horah, Mr. Pence and the little son of Mr. H. N. Woodson, the last named quite badly. The dog was killed.

A correspondent of the Watchman says of the Rev. C. Plyler, as a teacher: Rev. C. Plyler of Salisbury, has just closed a three months school at Summerville, Scotch Irish township. Mr. Plyler is a teacher of extraordinary qualifications. He worked early and late and has accomplished much. The patrons of the schools say that Mr. Plyler has advanced the scholars more than any other teacher that has ever taught at Summerville and they will cheerfully recommend him to any community where a first class teacher is needed.

A new reel company has been organized to cooperate with the fire company.

The Old Hickory Club will proceed to make several important changes in and about the club.

Chas Price, Esq. has bought a valuable lot adjoining the residence of Hon. F. E. Shober and will no doubt erect a handsome residence soon.

Mr. J. M. Hayden, dealer in real estate, informs the paper that twenty building lots have changed hands this week in the North Ward and eight or ten buyers intend to build houses.

The Belfry for the fire company's bell has been completed and the bell is at the depot.

Mr. C. H. Edwards, a popular and excellent engineer of the Western N. C. R. R., died here last Sunday.

Honor to whom honor is due: Mr. A. L. Johnson has been hauling good, well rounded up, loads of wood during the severe weather and has not asked over $1.00 a load.

A singular accident occurred a few days ago by which Mr. R. A. Shoaf lost a valuable horse. He was riding along the road in his wagon drawn by three horses when suddenly he heard a noise above him and looking up he saw a falling tree descending upon his team. He shouted to his driver to jump as he did so, the tree striking the leading horse killing it instantly.

Died in this place last Tuesday, 17th inst., Mr. Fred Plyler. Mr. Plyler had just completed his new residence and moved into it. The deceased was a brother of our townsman, Rev. C. Plyler, and had been a member of the Methodist church for 60 years.

Dr. Whitehead is visiting relatives in Virginia.

Jake Wallace Will Is Filed

The following last will and testament of J. V. Wallace has been filed with B. D. McCubbins, clerk of the superior court:

Salisbury, N. C. June 11, 1927.

State of North Carolina, Rowan County.

I, J. V. Wallace, being of sound mind hereby make this my last will and desire, revoking all previous wills made heretofore by me:

1. To my sister, Mrs. Rachel Oestreicher, I hereby bequeath the sum of twenty-five thousand ($25,000) dollars, to be paid promptly after my death.

2. To my nephew, Irvin Oestreicher, I hereby bequeath the sum of ten thousand ($10,000) dollars, to be paid immediately after my death.

3. To my sister-in-law, Ella Cohen Wallace, I hereby bequeath the sum of five thousand ($5,000) dollars to be paid by my executor within three years after my death, with interest from date of my death at the rate of 6 per cent per annum.

4. To my niece, Fannie Claire Wallace, I hereby bequeath the sum of five thousand ($5,000) dollars to be held in trust by my brother, Leo C. Wallace, until said Fannie Claire Wallace reaches the age of 21. She is to receive annually interest accruing from said funds.

5. To my nephew, Leo Wallace, Jr., I hereby bequeath the sum of five thousand ($5,000) dollars, to be held in trust by my brother, Leo C. Wallace, until said Leo Wallace, Jr., reaches the age of 21. He is to receive annually interest accruing from said funds.

6. To my nephew, Charles Cohen Wallace, I hereby bequeath the sum of five thousand ($5,000) dollars to be held in trust by my brother, Leo C. Wallace, until said Charles Cohen Wallace reaches the age of 21. He is to receive annually interest accruing from said funds.

7. To my niece, Fannie Claire Wallace, and my two nephews, Leo Wallace, Jr., and Charles Wallace, I hereby will and bequeath share and share alike my one-half (1/2) interest in the Wallace office building, located at the corner of Main and Innes street, said interest to remain undivided and held jointly by them until the year 1950; no mortgage can be placed on this property by either one of the above three mentioned heirs prior to the year 1950, neither can anyone of the three mentioned heirs dispose of their interest before the year 1950. Anyone of the heirs mentioned in this paragraph failing to carry out my wishes and desires above set forth, his interest shall revert to the other heir or heirs mentioned in this paragraph. The building must be kept in first class repairs and condition from year to year and the remaining income shall be divided equally.

8. To the city of Salisbury I hereby bequeath the sum of ten thousand ($10,000) dollars to be placed in trust in the Atlantic Bank and Trust company, which company it is my desire should pay to the city the sum of 5 per cent per annum on said funds, and it is my desire that the interest accruing from this trust be used by the city for the purchase of coal and wood for poor or deserving, and that none of the principle of above funds must be spent.

9. The residue of my estate, either personal, real or mixed I hereby bequeath to my brother, Leo C. Wallace, who has always been associated with me in business and in all my dealings, and who has been chiefly instrumental in the accumulation of my holdings.

I hereby nominate my brother, Leo C. Wallace, as executor of my last will and desire, and that no bond shall be required for him in the execution of this trust.

This is the last will and testament of J. V. Wallace, made by him in the presence of each of us and declared by him to be his last will and testament.

(Signed) J. V. Wallace.

THREE, WITH MONEY, FOUND STARVING

New York.—Neighbors found Mrs. Helen Marcus, her husband and six-year-old son lying on the floor of their flat partly helpless from starvation. Later police found Mrs. Marcus had secreted $1,600 in a mattress in the flat and had $400 in the bank. "It's mine," Mrs. Marcus was said to have told police. "That money is mine, and it's up to my husband to support his family."

A NEW STUNT

A hitch-hiker with a bent for saving labor reached Salt Lake City from California. On the back of his long black coat was painted in large white letters, "going to Pennsylvania. Would appreciate a ride."

He explained to an inquiring policeman the plan worked well and spared him the inconvenience of turning around every time a car approached to raise his thumb.

"Pa, what is meant by being in dire straits?"

"When a person is so hard up that he can't even buy gas for his auto."
