

Enchanted Island, Five Acres of Make-Believe Fairyland, Is Big Attraction for Children at Chicago's World's Fair

CHICAGO, April 20.—A five-acre land of make-believe where thousands of children may play in a story-book setting while their fathers and mothers are seeing the sights at the 1933 World's Fair is rapidly taking form on the grounds of A Century of Progress Exposition.

It is the Enchanted Island, the official children's development located on Northern Island between Lake Michigan and the lagoon, with the Electrical building on the north and the Horticultural building on the south.

An enormous wooden soldier, a sailor whose arms revolve with the wind, a wooden Indian, a straw man and the Tin Woodman from the Wizard of Oz, each twenty feet high and painted in gay colors, are among the figures that will greet the eyes of the youngsters as they enter the Enchanted Island.

A colossal umbrella 21 feet high and 60 feet in diameter, constructed of steel, plywood and brightly colored canvas, will rise as the central feature of the main entrance.

Three Unusual Features

Just outside the main entrance will be three unusual attractions—a marble shop, a giant coaster wagon and a toy shop.

In the marble shop, children may learn how marbles are made. The front window will be built of two thicknesses of plate glass with brightly colored marbles between. An enormous marble six feet in diameter, representing a globe with the various oceans and continents, will surmount a vertical pylon at the entrance.

Looming next to the marble shop will be a giant red coaster wagon, 35 feet long and 15 feet high, with wheels 9 feet in diameter. A huge figure of a boy will occupy the wagon. A plate glass enclosure will be constructed in the body of the coaster wagon in which assembled coaster wagons will be on sale.

Adjoining the wagon will be the toy shop, housing a complete collection of mechanical and other types of toys. Some will be on exhibition only, and others will be for sale.

Has Model Nursery

A model nursery and kindergarten for children from two to six years of age will be housed in a building erected for this purpose. Appropriate forms of educational and recreational activities will be provided both indoors and out. Food will be prepared by a complete dietitian and will be served attractively.

A zoo and a model farm inhabited only by baby animals will attract many young naturalists.

A Magic Mountain, 30 feet high, will rise from the center of a circular court. It will be surrounded by water and there will be a bridge and some small boats to reach the mountain. The boats may sail the most surrounding the mountain, and will be side-wheelers, propelled by boy or girl power. The water is to be only 30 inches deep.

Three of the many attractions which will be found this year on Enchanted Island, the children's fairyland at A Century of Progress—Chicago's 1933 World's Fair. At the top is Noah's Ark, to the left the Giant Tin Soldier, and at the bottom, right, is the Giant Red Coaster Wagon.

is prepared to abandon if it does not work.

18. Calls his secretaries "Louis," "Mack," and "Steve," abandoning the formal "Mister" of two predecessors.

19. Lumps eight scattered overlapping loan agencies into one coordinated body.

20. Holds up important conference while two small grandchildren, "Sistie" and "Buzzie" Dall inspect his new office.

Good Business Rules

A man who has a large number of employees under him, says Bindery Talk, has posted up in the various departments of his establishment cards which bear the above caption and the following rules:

1. Don't lie; it wastes my time and yours. I'm sure to catch you in the end, and that's the wrong end.
2. Watch your word, not the clock. A long day's work makes a long day short, and a short day's work makes my face long.
3. Give me more than I expect and I'll pay you more than you expect. I can afford to increase your pay if you increase my profits.
4. You owe so much to yourself that you can't afford to owe anybody else. Keep out of debt or out of my shops.
5. Dishonesty is never an accident. Good men, like good women, can't see temptation when they meet it.
6. Mind your own business and in time you'll have a business of your own to mind.
7. Don't do anything here which hurts your self-respect. The employee who is willing to steal for me is capable of stealing from me.
8. It is none of my business what you do at night. But if dissipation affects what you do the next day, and you do half as much as I expect you will last half as long as you hoped.
9. Don't tell me what I'd like to hear but what I ought to hear. I don't want a valet to my vanity, but I need one for my dollars.
10. Don't kick if I kick. If you're worth while correcting you're worth while keeping. I don't waste time cutting specks out of rotten apples.

FOR COUNCILMAN HONORABLE CITIZENS:
I present myself as a candidate for City Councilman. As I am busy and you are busy, it is impossible to ask each one of you personally for your support and so I take this means of asking you to support me if you favor the following things that I favor:

- (1) The first thing I am in favor of is to cut our tax rate in half and more if possible.
- (2) To cut street assessments down to keep from selling our people out of their homes. I personally know some contractors who paid as high as 20 per cent to bankers to finance the paving jobs. A lot of people signed the petitions and were not charged any assessments so as to get a majority of signatures in order that a particular paving district could be paved. I am in favor of repudiating every one of the assessments bonds, which are held by banks and bankers who are bursting like the banks around us and are offering to pay their depositors only 5 per cent to 20 per cent on the dollar. Everyone knows that Salisbury is worse off than most of these banks. While we are having reconstruction all over the world we should cancel all of these papers and refinance the town over a period of some 50 years so it would not keep all manufacturing industries out of it on account of being taxed to death. It would not keep a man, who owns his home, working night and day to try to pay off something he had nothing to do with putting on him but was done by a lot of selfish politicians, most of whom owned no property in the city. When they got their rake-off they did not care how the taxpayers would get along with the load.

(3) I am in favor of all City Councilmen and Mayor working without any salary during this depressed time. Men who cannot spare enough time and serve their city free of charge should not be elected as every penny spent unnecessarily is working a hardship on the taxpayers.

(4) I am in favor of running the town on an economical basis the same as other industries. The taxpayers money should be as sacred as our own money, but of course politicians have become like a good many of our big bankers and as long as the public will stand for them to spend the money for anything they wish they will continue to do so.

I pledge myself, if you give your support and I am elected, to do all in my power to carry out the above. Our city should be the largest city in North Carolina, but on account of cheap politicians and high tax rates all industries have gone to other towns and we people who have our investments in our town cannot get away and we have to be dictated to by people, most of whom do not own any property at all.

Very truly yours,
W. F. McCANLESS.

TO THE VOTERS OF SALISBURY

I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of councilman of the city of Salisbury, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary to be held April 24th, 1933.

I sincerely hope that, whether or not I am elected, the forthcoming council will be actuated by a feeling of Christian fellowship, feeling as I do that, in these trying times, all citizens should pull together for our mutual welfare and, more than ever, remember and practice the Golden Rule of tolerance and forbearance.

After 40 years residence in this city, eight of which have been spent as a member of the former Board of Aldermen, I am proud to say that I can call every resident my friend and that my election, or defeat, will in no way alter this relationship.
—J. E. HENNESSEE.

WE WILL WELCOME the bathing beauty contest this year. It will encourage us a whole lot to see some people who still are in pretty good shape.

The Roosevelts Smash Through

Hoary precedents of Washington have been shattered in 25 ways in as many days by the President and first lady, a United Press checkup reveals. It was at the Chicago Democratic convention, to which he flew following the nomination to make his address of acceptance, that Mr. Roosevelt made the statement which then was hardly taken to presage the breath-taking action which has come: "Let it be from now on the task of our party to break foolish traditions."

The American people and the world appreciate the carrying out of that resolve as shown in the 25 actions listed:

1. Appoints first woman to cabinet.
2. Has cabinet sworn in and functioning on first day.
3. Shifts regular cabinet meetings from forenoons to afternoons.
4. Declares nation-wide bank holiday and gold embargo.
5. Eats luncheon at desk.
6. Permits direct oral questioning by newspaper correspondents.
7. Discards traditional form of long, all-inclusive presidential messages and substitutes frequent, short, one-subject communications.
8. Decorates severely plain walls of presidential office with old New York and Hudson River prints.
9. Asks for greatest emergency banking powers in peace-time history and obtains them.
10. Accepts offer of New York Daily News to contribute White House swimming pool through popular subscriptions.
11. Asks for beer in a message 72 words long.
12. Sends White House car to bring Eddie Savoy, aged Negro messenger, to receive congratulations on his retirement.
13. Asks and obtains power to cut government salaries and veterans costs.
14. Makes personal birthday call on former Supreme Court Justice

Oliver Wendell Holmes.

15. Sponsors novel relief-work plan proposing civilian conservation corps under jurisdiction of army.
16. Discards cold shoulder which White House has previously given protesting Communists and designates Colonel Howe, his senior secretary, to hear everything they have to say if it takes until midnight.
17. Sponsors revolutionary farm relief plan saying frankly he regards it as an experiment which he
