

Golden Temple Of Jehol At Chicago's World's Fair Discloses Romantic Episodes Of Chinese Emperors

Chicago, May 26.—All the legendary glamour, mystic rites of the Lama and Buddhist religions, and romantic episodes in the lives of Emperors who once ruled Chinese millions, have been brought to life for the western world in the resplendent Golden Temple of Jehol, at Chicago's 1933 World's Fair, A Century of Progress, which opens May 27.

Around the famed Golden Pavilion are woven some of the most colorful and stirring chapters in Oriental history. Bloodshed, court intrigues, the love affairs of kings, and the beginnings of a religion that once swayed the millions, have their part in the story unfolded for the Exposition visitor.

The Chinese Lama temple, originally built in 1767 at Jehol, the summer palace of Manchu emperors, is now crumbling to ruins. Here in Chicago it has been faithfully reproduced and will be preserved on the shores of Lake Michigan for future generations.

Brought in 28,000 Pieces
It was brought over land and sea, with all its bright oriental reds and golds, by Dr. Sven Hedin, the famous Swedish explorer-author, for Vincent Bendix of Chicago. Reconstruction of the shrine in Jehol was the work of more than two years. More than 28,000 pieces of wood were cut and fashioned in fabricating the historic shrine.

Dr. Hedin was particularly suited for the task of seeking out a Chinese temple that would be typical of the Oriental type of architecture and at the same time tell something of the splendor and pomp of Celestial history.

While engaged in research work incidental to the building of the Lama shrine and in the collection of rare treasures which it houses, Dr. Hedin discovered many interesting facts concerning the decadence of Lamaism. He learned that while there were 600 Lamas, or priests of the faith in 1911, their number has diminished to 100 today.

The earliest Lamaism, visitors to the Fair will be told, was a mixture of Buddhism and ancient native demon-worship, having been brought from India by Guru-Padma-Sambhava in 747. In its early history, a large number of complicated rites were developed, in which mystic adjurations and sacrificial acts predominated.

Rose to Great Influence
Lamaism rose to great political influence during the thirteenth century when Kubla Khan, Emperor of China, gave it his sanction and protection. In 1261, the emperor recognized the religion after representatives of other faiths had been given an opportunity to compete for the honor in demonstrations of miracle-working and mysticism.

In succeeding centuries, the idea grew that Lamas, or high priests, were emanations from the gods, and had been reincarnated to protect religion on earth. The number of these "living gods" increased very rapidly until they occupied prominent places in almost all large temples in Tibet and Mongolia.

The Mongolians were converted to Lamaism for the second time about 1570, when Dalai Lama, the First, made a ceremonious visit to the King of the Tumed-Mongolians in the temple city of Kukulhoto. Since that day the Mongolians have been ardent worshippers of the Lamaistic code.

The Chinese Emperors of the Manchu dynasty, who ruled until China became a republic in 1911, found it to be highly politic to support Lamaism. The religion had a brilliant era of greatness in the reign of Ch'ien-Lung, 1736-96, under whose patronage the original Golden Pavilion of Jehol was built.

Treasures Unfolded
In its replica at A Century of Progress, temple bells, images of gods and dragons, prayer rugs, ceremonial robes, rare silks and tapestries and other treasures unfold for the Occidental visitor the colorful story of romance and intrigue that was enacted in and about the shrine during the centuries.

The student will find much to interest him in the Lama Temple, aside from the stories of court intrigue and romance woven around its existence. At the entrance is a "Laughing Buddha" made of solid wood covered with red gold lacquer, sitting on a broad chair of the same material.

Replica of the Golden Temple of Jehol, celebrated Chinese Lama Temple, at Chicago's 1933 World's Fair as viewed at night. It is a reproduction of the place of worship of the Manchu emperors.

New Office Building Gives More Room for Legislators

MEMBERS of Congress soon will be unable to blame tardiness upon their time-pieces for the new House Office Building, to be occupied within several weeks, will be equipped with 262 synchronous electric clocks without a second's variation in the lot. There will be a clock in each of the 251 suites and twelve committee rooms, all of them automatically controlled in the event of current interruption by a central telechron mechanism.

Nor will members have any excuse for missing roll-calls since there is a system of buzzers connecting all the office suites. When a roll-call is started in the House chamber, or when the House ad-

SPEED!

Time counts when you're in pain! Insist on genuine Bayer Aspirin, not only for its safety but for its speed.

The tablet that is stamped Bayer dissolves at once. It is many minutes faster than remedies that are offered in its stead.

If you saw Bayer Aspirin made, you would know why it has such uniform, dependable action. If you have ever timed it, you know that the tablet stamped Bayer dissolves and gets to work before a slower tablet has any effect.

Stick to genuine Bayer Aspirin. You know what you are taking. You know it is harmless; nothing in it to depress the heart. You know you will get results. For headaches, colds, neuralgia, rheumatism, the safe and certain relief is always the Bayer Aspirin.

How Cardui Helps Women

"Mal-nutrition" means that your body is not getting enough to keep it up, so that what it has to do is not done well. You may not be eating enough to keep up the work of the body, or there may be something wrong that keeps you from getting full value from the food you eat.

Because of mal-nutrition, some women have aches and pains every month. Such pains should not be neglected.

Take Cardui to give you a better appetite, to give you more strength from the food you eat—to build up and increase your feeling of well-being. Aches and pains go away as you build up, with the help of Cardui.

Trustee, dated March 1, 1926, and registered in the Register's Office of Rowan County in Book of Mortgages No. 95, page 307, default having been made in the payment of the note secured thereby and request of foreclosure having been made by the holder of said note, the undersigned trustee will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for CASH at the courthouse door in Salisbury N.
