

GAY PAREE ADDS LIFE TO FAIR

Here is a section of the Montmartre of Paris, reconstructed on the Midway of A Century of Progress—the Chicago World's Fair, where all the gayety and color of this famed rendezvous of Bohemians is to be found by visitors. This cross-section of Parisian life is officially known as "Streets of Paris."

W. T. Shuford, Referee in Bankruptcy, at Salisbury, N. C., in said district, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon; and that notice thereof be published in The Carolina Watchman a newspaper printed in said district, and that all known creditors and other persons in interest may appear at the said time and place and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered by the court, that the Referee in Bankruptcy shall send by mail to all known creditors, copies of said petition and this order, addressed to them at their places of residence, as stated.

Witness the Honorable Johnson J. Hayes, judge of the said court, and the seal thereof, at Greensboro, N. C., in said district, on the 17th day of June, 1933.

Signed—Johnson J. Hayes, United States Judge.
