Lady Took Cardui And Got Rid of Pain In Her Side

"Last summer, my health was bad, so I began taking Cardui," writes Mrs. H. E. Slaughter, of Norman, Okla. "My mother had given me Cardui in girlhood, so naturally I turned to it when I felt I needed it. I felt run-down and a general weakness. I had bad, dizzy headaches when everything would seem to dance before my eyes. My right side pained me so much, but since taking Cardui the pain has left me. I have taken several bottles of Cardui and have improved a great deal."

Cardui is sold at drug stores here.

ACHING CORN NO SIGN THAT IT WILL RAIN

Boston—The aching corn is no sign it'll rain. At least George A. Loveland, for many years head of the U. S. Weather Bureau at Boston, who recently retired, insists that it's not an accurate barometer. An aching corn indicates merely a change in humidity, he says.
