

Bonus Bill Passage Seen By V. F. W. Official

Washington.—Passage of the 2,300-million dollar soldiers' bonus bill in the Seventy-Fourth Congress is indicated by answers of candidates to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, George K. Brobeck, legislative representative, said.

"It looks like a majority and the question is whether there are two-thirds," he said.

Brobeck said that in 18 states 215 newly elected members of the House—only three short of a majority—have declared in favor of payment. Other states will show a similar majority, he said.

"In Pennsylvania only five members said they would oppose it, and in New York State only nine," said Brobeck.

Chances are good for a favorable Senate, he added. Among the new supporters in the Senate, he said, are Senators Lewis (Democrat), of Illinois; Pittman (Democrat), of Nevada; apparent reelection of Senator Cutting (Republican), of New Mexico; victories of La Follette (Progressive) in Wisconsin, Shipstead (Farmer-Labor) in Minnesota, Schwelbach (Democrat) in Washington and Minton (Democrat) in Indiana, all are favorable, he said.

Foreign Trade

Restrictions Removed By Edict of Morgenthau

Washington.—Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau issued an order removing restrictions upon credit transactions between the people of the United States, including banks and permitting the free interchange of money and credit, gold money excepted. It is expected that this will result in improved business and commerce between the United States and foreign countries.

Let The Children Make These Toys

from bits of wood, heavy colored paper and a bottle of the best liquid glue.

REMEMBER your corn cob doll— or perhaps your greatest thrill came when you caught a real fish on the rod made from an apple tree twig, a string, and a carefully bent pin. No French waxen beauty, ever was so dear to her mother's heart as the home made one, and I'm sure no whirling reel ever brought in such a catch! Everyone loves to say "I made it myself," and children most of all.

If your boy can use a scout knife, he can cut the small wooden pieces that make these toys. Spools, bits of the round sticks used to hold up your drooping garden, heavy colored paper, pipe cleaners wound with thread, and a bottle of the best liquid glue, are all the materials necessary for this really fascinating toy circus.

Discover Paint May Be Made From Goldenrod

Washington.—Americans of the future not only may ride on rubber made from goldenrod, but they also may prop their feet on desks gilded with paints and varnishes made of resins from the same flowering plant.

The resin ingredients may prove to be an important by-product in the synthetic manufacture of rubber that eventually will aid in lowering the cost of the process so as to make it practical, according to L. G. Polhamus, department of agriculture scientist.

Scientists of the department who have taken over the Edison goldenrod selections for experiment in Florida, Georgia and South Carolina believe the United States already could grow its own rubber if the price again touched the high mark of $1 a pound as it did in 1923-27.

At present, goldenrod is treated with benzine, which leaves a residue of rubber, resins, fats, sugars, proteins and other substances. The benzine is distilled off, and then begins a long and complicated process of removing the other ingredients before pure rubber is ob-

Soil Erosion Jobs Expanded

Washington.—The total area now included in soil erosion projects in North Carolina in the piedmont region is 204,000 acres, it was announced at the soil erosion administration in the department of the interior. The three Tar Heel projects as definitely established and extended are: In Forsythe and Guilford counties, 44,000 acres; on Deep river, 90,000; and on Brown's creek, 70,000. Headquarters are to continue at High Point with the number of employees increased as conditions demand.

One great project is now under way in South Carolina, with headquarters at Spartanburg which includes 125,000 acres in the watershed of the Tiger river, which has been extended to include 50,000 acres in the Fishing Creek watershed of York county.

Wade Would Publish Bank Reports

Raleigh.—A request for additional employees for his office and for funds to publish the semi-annual reports of the commissioner of banks of all such financial institutions under liquidation in North Carolina was made of the 1935 state legislature by Secretary of State Stacey W. Wade in his biennial report.

Listing payments to the state treasurer for the fiscal years 1932-33 and 1933-34 Wade pointed out that his office turned over $72,230.41 during the fiscal year ended last July 1 as compared with $58,648.70 for the previous year.

Sharp increases in the corporation tax, corporation fees and collections for foreign corporations were responsible for the gain. Wade stated although "the decreased appropriation by the 1933 General Assembly resulted in reduced personnel in the department, the work has shown a steady increase in volume for the 12-month period ending June 30, 1934." He attributed this increased work to "the return of prosperity."

Lady Says She Took CARDUI for Cramps; Was Soon Relieved

Women who suffer as she did will be interested in the experience of Mrs. Maude Crafton, of Belleville, Ill., who writes: "For several years, I suffered from irregular trouble and cramping. There would be days when I would have to stay in bed. I would get so nervous, I was miserable. My aunt told me to try Cardui. She believed it would build me up, regulate me and help the nervous trouble. I knew after taking half a bottle of Cardui that I was better. I kept on taking Cardui and found it was doing me a world of good. I am in good health, which means a lot to me." Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician. . . . Price $1.
