Registration Offices Opened Ten Points

Registration Offices were opened at ten points in North Carolina on May 24th for the convenience of Truck Operators in the registration of their vehicles "For Hire" under the Code of Fair Competition for the Trucking Industry. The Office for this district is located in the Office of the Carolina Transfer and Storage Co., Charlotte, N. C.

Registration up to this time has been voluntary on the part of the truck operators. It is NOW mandatory, and as all non-registrants were advised under date of October 9th they were permitted 15 days in which to file protest against the $3.00 per vehicle assessment under provisions of the Trucking Code. This protest period having elapsed, they were then allowed an additional 15 days in which to make payment without being proceeded against. This period expires on Wednesday, November 14th, and necessary action will be taken against non-registrants by the Compliance Director of the National Recovery Administration.

It is the hope of the North Carolina State Code Authority for the Trucking Industry that no one coming within the Industry will be embarrassed or have any penalty inflicted on them for their carelessness.

The Trucking Code is by no means a penalty on the Industry; but, is being made the most beneficial instrument to the Industry in its history.

If it is not convenient for you to get to your nearest registration office, communicate with the office of the North Carolina State Code Authority for the Trucking Industry, 70
