Tells How To Avoid Damage By Termites

The easiest and most effective time to protect a house against termites is during the early stages of its construction.

The problem, said Dr. B. B. Fulon, research entomologist at State College, is to keep the termites from reaching the wooden parts of the house.

These insects commonly live underground, but it will build mud runways up the masonry walls of a house to reach the woodwork.

The greater the distance from the soil level to the woodwork, the less the chance of termite infestation, Dr. Fulon said. And a house with a full basement is less likely to be bothered than one without a basement or with only a partial basement.

Any part of the building which is not directly over a basement should be protected by removing the soil to give a clearance of three or four feet. Stumps and roots in the ground underneath a house should be dug out.

Dr. Fulon recommended the use of termite shields for frame houses, particularly those without basements. A shield is a strip of non-corrosive metal placed between the foundations and the sills.

Well laid Portland cement gives a good protection, he added, but only so long as there are no cracks through which the termites may enter.

A common source of trouble is in terraces or porches with a concrete floor laid over an earth fill, and on a level with the floor of the house. Termites frequently find cracks through which they can reach the woodwork.

Building the terraces one step below the floor level reduces the likelihood of termite damage.

The First Christmas

MATTHEW 1:18-2:15.

Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily.

But when he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife; for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is God with us.

Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife.

And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name Jesus.

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod, the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem.

Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

And when he had gathered all the priests and scribes of the people where Christ should be born.

And they said unto him in Bethlehem of Judea; for thus it is written by the prophet.

And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Judea, art not least among the princes of Judea: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

When they had heard the king, they departed; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshiped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

And being warned of God in a vision that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

And when they had departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

When he arose, he took the young child and its mother by night, and departed into Egypt.

And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son.

LUKE 2:1-20

1. And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

2. (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

2. And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem: (because he was of the house of David;)

5. To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8. And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9. And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them; and they were sore afraid.

10. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11. For unto you is born this day, in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12. And this shall be a sign unto you: Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13. Suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

15. And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16. And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

Keeping Birds Healthy Important With Poultry

Keeping the flock healthy is one of the vital points in a successful poultry business, says Roy S. Dearstyne, head of the State College poultry department.

As a means for protecting the health of laying birds, Dearstyne has given the following suggestions:

Provide dry, open front, inexpensive houses that will be free from drafts in cold weather.

When possible, put wood or concrete floors in permanent laying houses.

Place the roost poles level, with a screen beneath so the birds will not have access to the droppings.

Clean the dropping boards at least once a week. Clean the houses as often as the litter becomes dirty.

For all flocks of 25 or more birds provide yards, allowing one acre for 300 to 350 laying birds. Have two yards, if possible, so the birds can be changed occasionally from one yard to another.

Keep green crops growing in the yards, and plow the yards as often as time and crops will permit.

Treat birds for parasites, both internal and external, whenever they are present. But do not deworm hens while they are laying.

Take precautions to protect growing stock against internal parasites and disease, especially coccidiosis, or bacillary white diarrhea.

In the old days you could tell that a couple was engaged to be married by the ring on her finger. Now you can tell by the fact that he stops getting out of the car to ring the doorbell—and sits there blowing the horn instead.

In much of the United States and southern Canada, the cold and warm seasons are about equal in length.

A Bad, Bad Indian Hits Broadway

NEW YORK . . . A bad Indian, a real bad Indian, hit Broadway this week, a giant some nine or ten building stories high. He had a rubber skin and was full of helium gas and was escorted by a great throng of strong-armed men holding tow ropes. When a particularly brisk breeze caught the red-skin at one corner, he almost got out of control but was finally subdued and continued to feature a toyland parade of a department store here.

Why Don't You Try One?

"YES, we're having a marshmallow toast, and look at this big, fat, puff one I just pulled out of the fire! Boy, I just wish you could try one—because they're swell! It all happened this way. This morning mom was working around the fireplace, polishing the andirons and washing the hearth, etc. She had her can of cleanser (mom says she uses only the safe one which is made with seismotite and doesn't scratch) there, too—and when I asked her why she was being so spick and span, she told me just 'to wait.' So I did, and what did she do but 'sprime me by asking in the whole bunch of fellows for a marshmallow toast around the fireplace!"

Try This Household Hint Test

HAVE you ever seen a kitchen sink which has lost its beauty and lustre, a kitchen sink which is difficult to keep clean? If so, this may be the result of having used a scratchy, gritty cleanser. Now in order to avoid having this happen to your kitchen sink, or to any of your household surfaces, use only a cleanser which is safe and scratchless. To determine whether or not you are using a scratchless cleanser, make this simple test yourself. Sprinkle a little of the cleanser on a plate, then rub a coin over it. If you do not feel or hear the grating and grinding of scratchy grit, then you know that you are using a scratchless, spick-and-span cleanser!

At Christmas Time... ALL ROADS LEAD TO HOME

Go home for the holidays if you can. The clasp of a welcoming hand, the sound of a friendly voice, are gifts of happiness that nobody should forego.

Time or distance, however, may prevent your visiting a few close friends and relatives whom you would so much like to see. Then all you have to do, as many folks have learned, is to let "long distance" bring you and your friends together for a voice-to-voice visit.

It doesn't matter whether you call on Christmas day or not, you will both get a real thrill from your telephone visit any time during the holiday season.

The pleasure you will experience from your visits by telephone is not expensive. For example, by using Station-to-Station service after 7 P. M., you can talk 150 miles for about 50 cents, and other distances for similarly low cost.

Your "long distance" operator will be pleased to inform you about rates at any point, and help make your holidays pleasant by giving quick connections to the friends you want to greet.

For that useful gift to the family—have a convenient extension telephone installed in your home.
