

STRIP CROPPING IS GOOD WAY TO CONTROL EROSION

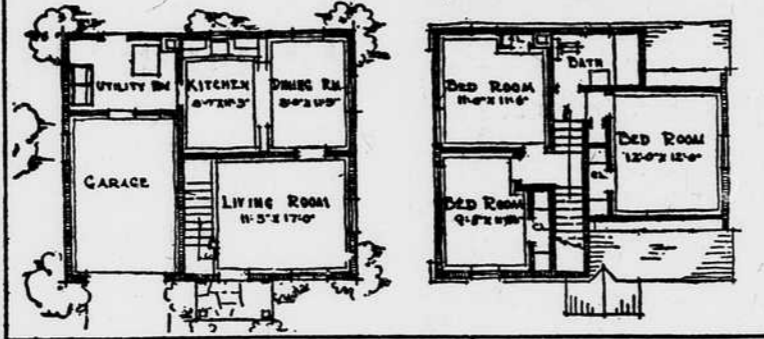

Farming in strips is one of the best methods of controlling soil erosion and of building up the fertility of the soil...

Strip-cropping, as explained by project manager E. C. Jernigan, means the seeding of the regular farm row crops in long bands between strips of close-growing crops...

Small grains, lespedeza, clover and other soil-building crops serve as a sort of stop-gap, the close vegetation retarding the speed of water, spreading it out like a sifter, and thereby minimizing soil erosion...

Strip-farming works very well with this type rotation, Blair said. For example, a 9-acre field in lespedeza may be strip-cropped as follows: The field would be marked off in contour strips 60 to 80 feet wide...

"UTILITY ROOM" BANISHES ALL BOTHER OF TROUBLE-MAKING OLD-TIME BASEMENT

The basement never will be a source of trouble and expense to anyone who builds this attractive colonial economy cottage according to the plan shown here.

In its place an attached garage and utility room containing the heating apparatus and the home laundering equipment have been added - an innovation in step-saving while laundering or tending the furnace.

The utility room as designed is large enough to contain the household washer and ironer, the set-tubs, and a compact heating plant. This practice of doing away with the basement or at least of moving the home laundry-room up to the first floor is steadily increasing. It is far more convenient to have the laundry-room adjoining the kitchen, for example. Putting it on the ground level permits better lighting and ventilation and makes it easier for the housewife to use a simple color scheme that makes the laundry room as attractive as her spic-and-span kitchen.

The same ideas of compactness and convenience that were utilized in placing the laundry-room on the first floor can be noted throughout the remainder of this house plan as well. There are three bedrooms in addition to the living room, kitchen and dining room and yet the entire home has the appearance of a quaint little cottage.

ASSISTANCE NEEDED

Mrs. Luna—I want to get a divorce. Lawyer Habeas—What are your charges? Mrs. Luna—Oh, I'm not going to charge anything. I'm willing to pay you to get it for me.

THRIFTY GROCER

Mrs. Barker: "How does it happen, Mr. Schmitzer, that you sent me only 11 oranges when I ordered a dozen?" Grocer Schmitzer: "You see, Mrs. Barker, one of them was bad and I knew you wouldn't want it so I threw it out."

Laxative combination folks know is trustworthy
The confidence thousands of parents have in good, old reliable, powdered Theodor's Black-Draught has prompted them to get the new Syrup of Black-Draught for their children. The grown folks stick to the powdered Black-Draught; the youngsters probably will prefer it when they outgrow their childish love of sweets. Mrs. C. W. Adams, of Murray, Ky., writes: "I have used Theodor's Black-Draught (powder) about thirteen years, taking it for biliousness. Black-Draught acts well and I am always pleased with the results. I wanted a good, reliable laxative for my children. I have found Syrup of Black-Draught to be just that."
BLACK-DRAUGHT
