

Grid Campaign Leaders

TONY MAGGIOLO

RED MEEHAN

Indian Co-Captains Are Both Able Grid Leaders

(From The Pioneer)
The Indians will be led this year by Tony Maggiolo and Red Meehan. Most of the Indians' attack is built around these two backs, both of whom are playing their final year for Catawba.

Tony is the blocking back of the Tribe's backfield quarter. Those who understand the inside dope of football, though it be very little, know the value of a blocker like Tony. Although he does not skirt around the ends, plunge the line for gains big or small, he is an important cog in the wheel which make such plays successful. These plays make shining lights of those carrying the ball, but we have a silent hero in the personage of Maggiolo, the best blocking back of the North State Conference. In an interview, Tony stated: "Our team has lots of spirit and fight. The new material will shape up in the next game or two, and then we will hit our stride. I do not wish to comment on our chances for a Conference Championship, but I will say that the boys will be out there doing their best."

Ellis (Shippy) Meehan again holds down the quarter-back position. This driving line-bucker led the South in scoring last year with a total of 90 points, and started off the 1936 season with a 20 point barrage against Western Carolina Teachers College last week. This red-headed Irishman received Honorable Mention on the Little All-American Team last year, and barring injuries he is certain to be on it again this year. The "brain-trust" of the backfield is right there when a yard or two is needed for a first-down or touchdown, and he knows what to do next. Shippy states: "We have the makings of a good, scrappy team this year. However, the squad is much lighter than usual—the line especially, but the speed seems to be proportionately increased. The success of the season will depend upon how the newcomers come through."

In the initial game of the season, Meehan proved to be the ole "Red-head" of old when he plowed through the Teacher's line time after time for steady gains. Few situations arise on the field for which Meehan has no solution. A leg injury received in the Naval Apprentice may keep Shippy out of the Newberry game, but it is believed that he will be back in the running soon.

For three years, Maggiolo and Meehan have been working together in the backfield. This, their fourth season, will see them at their best. It is a story of old, "Meehan carrying the ball, Maggiolo making the hole." However, once in his collegiate career, Tony played a game as a ball-toting back. It was two years ago, and the "bruiser" celebrated his birthday by scoring twenty-four points.

Dixie Produces Good Material for Indians

The south has always yielded Catawba a good part of her best football material and this year bids fair to be no exception. They are of all dimensions; short, fat, and dirty; high, wide, and handsome; rough, tough, and nasty.

Sedberry was lured here from Coolemeec. He played quarterback for the High School and is out for this position on the Indian team.

Nash played with Salisbury High. This local boy is a nice end, and has the promise of developing into a stellar player.

Big John Guy is a Newton product. This little feller hits the beam at six, four, and weighs twenty. He plays tackle. Bubbles Lackey is also from

BAD ASSOCIATIONS

The old man dozed off in a rig, leaving the horse to take care of itself. He woke up suddenly to find himself in a ditch.

Crawling out of the buggy, he went up and grabbed the horse by the bridle. "Say," he said, "you sociating with them automobiles, ain't you?"

Newton. A tackle is he, who is six feet tall and weighs two hundred and fifteen pounds.

Morrison is a six foot, 175 pound end who hails from Newton. He played that position on the Newton High Squad and holds it down for the Catawba varsity.

John Briggs is a Lexington boy. His 155 pounds are put in the guard position.

Morgan hails from Woodleaf, where he played end for the High School. He is 5' 10" in height and tips the scales at 165.

Dartmouth Frats Refuse To Close

Hanover, N. H.—(ACP)—Recommendation of the social survey committee that Dartmouth college fraternities dissolve their national affiliations has met with diverse reaction on the campus here.

Traditional loyalty at Dartmouth has always been to the college first and fraternities second, student leaders point out, declaring that if the fraternities became local clubs, without national standing, their status in relation to the campus would remain almost unchanged.

A minority report stated that alumni support would be withdrawn if national ties were severed.

FATHER'S OPINION

Teacher: "What is a bachelor, Marie?"

Marie: "A bachelor is a very lucky man."

Teacher: "Why, where did you get such an idea as that?"

Marie: "Father told me."

LAMB'S TALE

Father (intense with excitement) "Well boy, what happened when you asked the boss for a raise?"

Son: "Why, he was just like a lamb."

Father: "What did he say?"

Son: "Baa."
