Attempt to Capture Petersburg! Yankees driven back and in full retreat!

RICHMOND, June 10.

The enemy 5000 strong, under Kautz, made a desperate attempt to capture Petersburg yesterday. The enemy advanced in two columns, and after several assaults upon our works southeast of the city, in which they were repulsed, succeeded in flanking our forces, and causing them to retreat after fighting bravely. The Petersburg militia sustained the brunt of the first assault, behaving like veterans, and losing six killed and thirty wounded. Some of the best citizens were among them. The energy advanced to the suburbs at an opportune moment. Graham's battery opened upon them from the Reservoir Hill, simultaneously, with Dearing's Cavalry charged upon them. They wheeled in great confusion. The column advancing on Blandford road was repulsed by Sturdivant's battery, which came in time. Our reinforcements pursued the yankees several miles. The residence of Timothy Rives was sacked and burnt, and Rives carried off. Rev. Wm. Hall, chaplain of Washington Artillery, also captured.

RICHMOND, June 10.

European advices to the 25th of May, have been received. Pelissier, Duke of Malakoff is dead. The news of the great battles in Virginia caused profound sensation in England. The Times and Star regards Grant's success indecisive. The Post expressed the conviction that the Federals had sustained a crushing defeat. The Herald and Globe pronounce the advance on Richmond a failure.

RICHMOND, June 10.

Northern dates of the 8th, say: Grant's dispatches say the enemy attacked the Federal line Saturday night and were everywhere repulsed. Everything going on well.

The correspondent of the Register admits a loss of 4,000 at Cold Harbor, on the 3rd. Gen. Tyler lost a foot. Seven Colonels wounded.

Caucusing at Baltimore indicated renomination of Lincoln and Hamlin. Gold 1944.

Sherman is reported to be in possession of Ackworth, and of the Railroad, within one mile of Marietta.

ATLANTA, GA., June 10.

The enemy was developed in force yesterday in our front at Ackworth, and our extreme right east of the Railroad. Skirmishing this afternoon from Hood's corps. Prisoners report that the bridge over the Etowah, has been rebuilt by the Yankees. Trains running to Ackworth. Sherman avoids every effort to bring on an engagement out of his breastworks. A captured yankee says he has orders not to risk a general engagement. Gov. Brown returned from the front yesterday, where he has been with Gen. Johnston.

RICHMOND, June 10.

Fremont's letter accepting the Cleaveland nomination—declares Lincoln's administration a military dictatorship without unity, action, vigor or execution. Says if a respectable man is nominated at Baltimore he will not be a candidate. If Lincoln is nominated no alternative but to organize every element of opposition to prevent the misfortune of his election. The Herald says Fremont's position secures the defeat of Lincoln.

RICHMOND, June 10.

The steam ram built by Laird, has been purchased by the English Government. The crew and schooner of J. L. Gerity discharged. Liverpool cotton market steady.

RICHMOND, June 10.

The Senate concurred in the House amendments of the bill establishing Bureau for foreign supplies. The bill authorizing army reporters of the Press Association to purchase rations of forage, again rejected. Most of the day spent in secret session. The House passed the Senate bill for the relief of States holding old currency, and disagreed to Senate amendment to bill amending the tax laws. The committee of conference will be secret. The bill will probably adjourn to-morrow.

RICHMOND, June 10.
No change in the situation of the two armies. All quiet to day.

PROSPECTUS OF

THE AGE

A SOUTHERN MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

The undersigned has commenced in the City of Richmond the publication of a Monthly Magazine, under the above title.

It will present to its readers, selections from the best European Periodicals, of Literary and Scientific articles; of Novels and Sketches, which, having already received the imprimatur of an enlightened taste, cannot but prove acceptable to the Southern public. The effort will be made to keep the readers of the Magazine as nearly as possible abreast of the literary progress of the age. Arrangements have been made which, it is hoped, will enable the proprietors to secure this end.

The Magazine will also present original articles from our best writers, in all departments, and a special aim of the proprietors of this periodical will be to foster Southern authorship by offering an adequate and remunerative field for its exercise. They will not, however, under the plea of this design, encroach, by reproduction in its columns, that class of composition which create a vivid and unhealthy taste; to be stated only that hybrid literature which Yankee ingenuity has contrived, under the name of sensational romance.

The Industrial Resources and the Educational Interest of the Confederacy—the twin foundations of true independence—will receive the important share of attention they deserve. In the development of these questions, its object will be to make a practical application of the doctrine of States Rights to the policy of the country. It will endeavor to explain the mission of the Confederacy, which is to demonstrate liberty regulated by law, to exhibit a system of States, each supreme within its foundation, and only bound by a voluntary alienation of powers. It will vindicate those elements of National Independence, which are secured by a high standard of intelligence and refinement, by accumulated capital, varied industry and by abundant facilities of intercommunication. It will promote the adoption of all those measures in which the Confederate States are now deficient. And, while the Constitution of the Confederate States forbids the General Government to organize and operate enterprises of a nature calculated to attain these results, the projectors will consider it their duty to urge upon the States the development of interests so indispensable to the national welfare. It is thus that, through the aggregate ability of the separate States, the power of the Confederate States will be made manifest. It is thus that the collision of sectional interest and the oppression of a common head will be avoided.
