FROM THE WEST.

MARIETTA, June 22nd.

About five o'clock last evening the enemy attempted to take the works on our extreme left, when they were driven back through three lines of battle. Our forces were upwards of two hours and half, in action-very fierce. We captured sixty prisoners. Stevens division suffered most in wounded, particularly in Brown's brigade. Light skirmishing has been going on this evening.

Mobile, June 23. Special dispatch to the Evening News, via Senatobia, says Northern papers received. Morgan was at Flemingsburg on the 14th, with three thousand men and said Burnbridge's dispatch is false, his loss 176 and would not leave the State.

Vallandigham at Dayton said he had calculated the consequence, if arrested, but eye for eye and tooth for tooth, so help him the ever Jehovah. Would remain quiet until after Chicago Convention.

Gov. Vance Providing for the Sick and Wounded Soldiers. - We take pleasure in laying before our readers the subined letter, which we copy from the Richmond Dispatch. It speaks for itself, and emanating from the source it does, is a fitting testimony to the provident care exhibited on every beca sion by Gov. Vance for the sick and wounded of our State. Ever mind ful of our gallant soldiers, he never omits an opportunity to supply their peeds and contribute to their confort. By his direction large supplies of fresh beefhave been sent on to Richmond for our sick and wound ed, obtained through the indentithis State:

To the Sheriffs and Tax-Collectors of North

The following is a copy of so much of an act passed at the last session of the General Assembly as relates to the currency in which taxes may be collected:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the au thority of the same, That all taxes due to the State or counties and for school purposes, or taxes for the poor, all payments for entries of public lands, and all fines and forfeitures for the use of the State or counties, may be paid in Treasury notes of the partments, both business and editorial, the Mes-Confederate States under five dollars, or in the new issue authorized by the act of the Confederate Congress, ratified the 17th of February, 1864-and all such dues may be paid during the present year in the old issues of Confederate Treasury notes of the denomination of five dollars, both inclusive, less thirty three and one of Congress.

Sec. 3. Be it further enocted, That the act ratified July 3d, 1863, entitled "an act in relation to the payment of taxes" and for other purposes, and so much of section second of the Ordinance No. 35 of the State Convention, ratified 26th February. 1862, as directs the receiving of Confederate Treasury notes in payment of taxes and all other dues, are hereby repealed.

Owing to considerations explained in my late report to the General Assembly, than a dollar are not exchanged for Confederate notes, but these change notes will be exchanged for North Carolina Treasury notes of larger denomination, or for cou pons from our State bonds. On presentatation by you or any other person at this department of any amount of our notes above a dollar, or our due coupons, our effected through the agency of the Southern Express Co.

PROSPECTUS OF "THE AGE,"

A SOUHERN MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

The undersigned has commenced in the City of Richmond the publication of a Monthly Magazine, under the above title. It will present to its readers, selections from the best European Periodicals, of Literary and Scientific articles, of Novels and Sketches, which, having already received the imprimature of an enlightened teste, cannot but prove acceptible to the Southern public. The effort will be made to keep the readers of the Magazine as nearly as possible abreast of the literary progress of the age. Arrangements have been made which, it is hoped, will enable the propri-
