To the Sheriffs and Tax-Collectors of North

The following is a copy of so much of an act passed at the last session of the General Assembly as relates to the currency in which taxes may be collected:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Gene ral Assembly of the State of North Care lina, and it is hereby enacted by the au thority of the same, That all taxes due to the State or counties and for school purposes, or taxes for the poor, all payments for entries of public lands, and all fines and forfeitures for the use of the State or counties, may be paid in Treasury notes of the Confederate States under five dollars, or in the new issue authorized by the act of the Confederate Congress, tatified the 17th of February, 1864-and all such dues may be paid during the present year in the old issues of Confederate Treasury notes of the denomination of five dollars, both inclusive, less thirty three and one third per cent., the tax imposed by the actof Congress.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted. That the act ratified July 3d, 1863, entitled "an act libis elicular is designed to reach. in relation to the payment of taxes" and for other purposes, and so much of section second of the Ordinance No. 35 of the 1862, as directs the receiving of Confede rate Treasury notes in payment of taxes and all other dues, are hereby repealed.

Owing to considerations explained in my late report to the General Assembly, our Treasury notes of less denomination ALL who will volunteer to get up than a dollar are not exchanged for Con Logan's corps attempted to gain possess and send off the iron on the Charlotte and federate notes, but these change notes will be exchanged for North Carolina Treasury notes of larger denomination, or for cou pons from our State bonds. On presentatation by you or any other person at this department of any amount of our notesabove a dollar, or our due coupons, our change notes for the same amount will be. effected through the agency of the Southern Express Co.

PROSPECTUS OF A SOUTHERN MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

The understand has commenced in the Lity of Richmond the publication of a Monthly Mag azine, under the above !itle. It will present to its readers, selections from the best European Periodicals; of Literary and Scientific articles, of Novels und Sketches, which, having already received the imprimature of an enlightened taste, cannot but prove combe, Governor. acceptible to the Southern public. The effort will be made to keep the readers of the Magazine as nearly as possible abreast of the literary progress of the age. Arrangements have been made which, it is hoped, will enable the proprietors to secure this end.

The Magazine will'also present original ar ticles from our best writers, in all departments, and a special aim of the proprietors of this periodical will be to foster Southern authorship by offering an adequate and remunerative field for its exercise. They will not, however, under the plea of this design, encourage, by reproducword, guard broken, one pistol and one pair tion in its columns, that class of compositions which create a vivid and unhealthy taste, to be stated only by that hybrid literature which

The Industrial Resources and the Educational Interest of the Confederacy—the twin formimportant share of attention they deserve. In the development of these questions, its object will be to make a practical application of the doctrine of States Rights to the policy of the country. It will endeavor to explain the mission of the Confederacy, which is to demonstrate liberty regulated by law, to exhibit a system of States, each sepreme within its foundation, and only bound by a voluntary alienation of powers. It will vindicate those elements of National In Lieut Thuddens McGee, Wake, Ass't Comdependence, which are secured by a high standard of intelligence and refinement, by accum Lieut Charles H Thompson, Wake Ass't Com ulated capital, varied industry and by abundant facilities of intercommunication. It will promote the adoption of all these measures in which the Confederate States are now deficient. And, whilst the Constitution of the Confederate States forbids the General Government to organize and operate enterprizes of a nature calculated to attain these results, the projectors the developement of interests so indispensable to the national welfare. It is thus that, through the aggregate ability of the separate States, the power of the Confederate States will be made manifest. It is thus that the collision of sectional interest and the oppression of a common head will be avoided.

The various departments of literature to which the Magazine will be devoted, may be named as follows:

1. Essays, original and selected, political literary and scientific, and biographical sketches. 2. Novels, Tales and Sketches, original and selected.

3. Reviews of Books. 4. Educational Essays and News.

Art. In the fourth section, it is the design to afford to Teachers information needed in their profession, and a field for the interchange of ideas on that subject, to which end, their assistance and collaboration is invited. #### THE Southern Literary Messenger FOR 1864

This long established and well-known Journal of Literature having been recently purchased by the subscribers, will, in future, be conducted exclusively under their control. In all its departments, both business and editorial, the Messenger will be under the management of an entirely new regime, and the Proprietors are sanguine of success in the future, which the Magazine has never yet realized, if their friendsand the public shall yield them a support worthy of so important an enerprise, looking to the advancement of the highest literary interest of the Confederacy. Argument or appeal in behalf of the importance of an elevated literature to our country. the absence of which has hitherto made us a by-word of reproach among the older nations, and even now militates against our interests S R Mallory, of Fla., Sec'y of the Navy. abroad, need not be addressed to those whom

But to the attainment of this great end, some? thing more is necessary than mere verbal expressions of sympathy and encouragement. The friends of Southern Literature must foster State Convention, ratified 26th February, the efforts of our literary men to secure for us a worthy position in the world of letters.

We design the Messenger to be an enterprise worthy of support of all classes of our people. We shall aim chiefly to secure for our pages the productions of the highest order o genius and scholarship, and at the same time such articles as will contribute to the instruction and amusement of the public at large. To this end we shall give our attention to and soicit contributions from Southern writers in all the departments of Literature. Poetry, Romance, Review, Criticism, in short, every subject whose prominence is sufficient to entitle it to notice will have its due share of attention.

We earnestly solicit the assistance of our friends throughout the Confederacy in the eulargement of our subscription list, which must be increased to enable us to meet the heavy pecuniary outlay to which we shall be subject. Terms, $12 for twelve months, $8 for six months. This increase will not affect those who subscribed before the 1st of March. Orders must be accompanied with the money. Mr. George C. WEDDERBURN, formerly of New Orleans, now of this city, will control the business interests of the Messenger, and Mr. FRANK H. ALFRIEND, of this city, will direct its editorial management. Communications Rockingham, Guilford, Stokes and Forsythesenger will be directed to the editor; other communications should be directed to the Pro-
