PETERSBURG, July 13th.

The Washington Caroniele of the 11th contains over three columns of Telegraphic news in reference to the rebel invasion-all press dispatches. Nothing official save dispatches from Wallace to Seward, saying Col. Seward is not captured.

The following is believed to be all of interest in press dispatches ::

Ten thousand men armed and marching to different fortifications, in Baltimore. At six A. M., on the 10th, the rebels cut the Northern central railway, fifteen miles from Baltimore. Baltimore and Obio Railway greatly damaged. Most of the rolling stock sent to Philadelphia.

Dispatches say there are some encouraging features, not prudent to publish. Ashland Iron Works, fourteen miles, from Baltimore, destroyed. Dispatches, eight P. M. say rebel cavalry all over Baltimore county, but it is not feared they will enter the city. Sullivan's advance guard of Hunter's command reported captured, and Martinsburg, with numerous stores and a number of prisoners. Telegrams from Harrisburg say the rebel force numbers forty thousand. Gov. Curtain telegraphed the Mayor of Philadelphia that the people were not responding freely, and says the authorities at Washington, to-day, authorize men to on Philadelphia Rail road burned at noon be mustered in by companies, which yesterday they refused peremptorily to do.

a. m., Maj. General Din in an official report from Maj General Wallace just received, states that a battle took place between the forces under his command REPORTS OF THE PRESS ASSOCILTION; and the rebel forces at Monachey to day, commencing at 9 a. m., and continuing Entered according to act of Congress in the autil 5.p. m., That our forces were at year 1863, by J. S. THRASHER, in the Clerk's length overpowered by superior forces of office of the District Court of the Coolede-rate States for the Northern District of Geor-disorder. He reports that Col. Seward of the Kentucky Artillery was taken prison er; that the enemy is at least twenty thousand strong, and that Brig. General Tyler was also taken prisoner-that our troops behaved well, but suffered sovere Music between to Ballinore. Secretary of War.

Press dispatches from Baltimore represent the excitement as intense and on the increase, and that no one was allowed to leave the city. Frederick, city evacuated by the Yankees and occupied, papers say, by Breckenridge, and twelve thousand men. The Governor of Maryland issued a proclamation in Baltimore, on the night of the 9th, saying the danger was imminent, and every loyal man must prepare to aneet the rebel force now approaching the city. The Mayor of Baltimore endorsed this.

Slidell had another interview with Napoleon on the 28th.

Another plot against Napoleon had been discovered.

No Gold quotations not given.

PETERSBURG, July 14.

The Washington Chronicle of the 12th, contains full accounts of the rebel invasion. Gov. Bradford's private country residence, six miles from Baltimore, on Charles street Avenue, and several other houses, were burned by Gilmore on the 11th. Bradford's library and private papers all consumed. This caused dispatches say intense feeling. Gunpowder bridge on the 11th. Also nine cars and mails reported burnt.
