REPORTS OF THE PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1863 by J. S. THORNTON, in the Clerk's office of the District Court of the Confederate States for the Northern District of Georgia.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Oct. 4.—An official despatch from Gen. R. B. Rickett, at Saltville, yesterday, states that we whipped the enemy badly here yesterday. He has retired in confusion; leaving his dead and wounded in our hands. Among them a Brigadier General Good, and many officers. There were two or three regiments of negro troops which were badly cut up. The reserve and detailed men acted splendidly. The enemy's force six thousand. We are in hot pursuit.

INVASION OF MISSOURI.

MOBILE, Oct. 3.—A special despatch to the Register, dated September 30, gives reports via Memphis from St. Louis papers of the 1st. Great excitement in St. Louis. Prices reported to be within 12 miles of the city, his force is estimated at thirty-five thousand. Cape Girardeau reported captured. Large Federal forces surrendered at Pilot Knob last Monday. Heavy fighting Tuesday evening, result unknown.

Bill Anderson captured a train on the North Missouri rail road. Twenty yanks captured and shot.

Rosenkranz issued orders calling out the militia. Twelve thousand under arms at St. Louis.

A. J. Smith is fifty miles South of St. Louis, watching Price's movements. A large number of refugees from Southern Missouri had reached the city.

Hatch and Grierson with three thousand men gone after Forrest.

Winslow's cavalry crossed into Arkansas in pursuit of Price.

Nashville dates of the 26th, says, Forrest is destroying all bridges and rail roads. Telegraph communication stopped on both roads.

There was a heavy fight at Pulaski on the 27th. Rosseau reports that Forrest retired during the night with a loss of two hundred.

Passengers arrived from Memphis on Saturday evening report that Forrest captured Pulaski, and that it will take several weeks to repair the railroad.

Nashville dates to the 27th report Rosseau slowly retiring on Nashville. Forrest is destroying bridges, trestles, &c.

Fighting is going on near Pulaski and Cerro Gordo.

Williams is trying to join Forrest.

Confederates had captured two trains near Big Shanty.

Guerrillas are busy firing into boats on White river.

A portion of the 16th army corps left Brownsville, Arkansas, in pursuit of Shelby.

All quiet at Mobile.

The President of the Press Association has called the next meeting of the Directors at Columbus, Ga., on Wednesday the 12th of October.

LATER FROM EARLY.

RICHMOND, Oct. 4.—Another official despatch from Saltville, says:

The enemy received a bloody repulse. They retired during the night in confusion, apparently in the direction of Sidway river.

Early reports the enemy north of the river, his cavalry occupying the north bank of that stream; his infantry near Harrisonburg. After a slight skirmish the enemy's cavalry fell back from Mount Crawford.

RICHMOND, Oct. 4.—Official dispatches report that a small force of the enemy's cavalry, and some infantry were in Culpepper county, they are rebuilding the bridge at Rappahanock station.

All quiet below Richmond to-day.

PETERSBURG, Oct. 4, 7 P. M.—The enemy has been fortifying a new position near Fort Monroe, and have shown no disposition to advance to-day, or assault our works. All very quiet along the lines to-day. Persons from Grant's rear say he has moved everything and every man up to the breastworks and the country behind his lines uncovered by his last move. Grant has gained one mile more in the direction of the South side road, but is still six miles from it. The enemy's losses in the fight of Thursday, Friday, and Saturday is estimated at four thousand. Ours not one fifth of these figures.

RICHMOND, Oct. 4th.—The Washington Chronicle of the 1st dispatches Grant that Chaffin's 29th Ord. corps advanced this morning and carried very strong fortifications, and a line of entrenchments below Chaffin's farm with some fifteen pieces of artillery and three hundred prisoners.

Barny advanced at the same times from Deep Bottom and New Market road entrenchments and now marching towards Richmond.

St. Louis telegraphs of the 30th, says, the enemy closely pursued by the rebels to Harrison's Station. Railroad cut north of that place.

Escaped prisoners report Pilot Knob still held by the rebels.

Nashville telegram of the 30th, report Forrest at Fayetteville on the night of the 28th. No communication South of Memphis.

GRIFFIN, Oct. 4.—All accounts agree that Gen. Hood's army is well in rear of Atlanta, and it is reported positively that we hold the Railroad between Vining and Marietta.

A brigade of yankee cavalry came to Fairburn, on the West Point road yesterday and attacked the command of Gen. Iverson, who fell back after losing one or two killed and wounded. They are reported in Fayetteville this a. m., but this is doubtful.

A prisoner taken in that fight says that no train has arrived at Atlanta for six days. Military men here believe that Sherman will be forced to abandon Atlanta and cut his way out in a very few days.

THE POLES.

The last rising of this gallant people against the colossal power of Russia has been crushed. The star of Polish nationality has once more gone down in blood. Indeed, the movement was physically hopeless from the first. Its only chance of success was in enlisting the moral support of Europe, to be backed by material forces. England remonstrated with Russia, and so perhaps did France and Austria, but that was all. Poland was left alone, and the contest had then only one side—the attempted revolution, necessarily failing, become what every unsuccessful revolution becomes, in the opinion of the world, a rebellion.

Well, the result is not, and was not doubtful. What Abraham would do, his ally the Autocrat of Russia has done.—No communication, exile to Siberia, the knout and the scaffold have been the measures of justice meted out by frightened tyranny to unsuccessful freedom. The true Poles are again dispersed over the length and breadth of the globe.

Some time since a delegation passed through this town to Richmond, composed of leading Poles. We published their appeal, which was generally copied through the courtesy of the press of the Confederate States. That the gentleman composing this delegation were acting in good faith, and were all that they represented themselves, we were fully satisfied, else we should not have vouched for their appeal as we did. We know that they wished to have the way for their exiled brethren to find a home under the flag of the Confederacy. Their whole appeal was one to which we could lend it no material aid. We hardly saw how the thing could be accomplished, and we hardly see it now; but still, if anybody else can see the way through the difficulty, we shall only be so much the more gratified. We see that our cotemporaries are talking about a "Polish Contingent," some putting it at thirty thousand brave troops. Now, with all respect to our cotemporaries, the thing that puzzles us is, how these people are to get into the Confederacy. Poland has no shipping—the Confederacy has no shipping;—our ports are blockaded. How are thirty thousand Polish warriors, with their impedimenta to find their way in the Confederacy? Will our sanguine cotemporaries stoop to show us.—Wil. Journal.

Branding White Men.—The Confederates brand their horses and mules when taken into the service of the Government, but the yankees have adopted the plan of branding their men when taken or rejected as recruits for their armies. The Chief Medical Director in Washington city, in an official order, says:

"In addition to my suggestion to mark all rejected recruits and substitutes, I would suggest that all the accepted recruits and substitutes be marked thus: "I" in small of back. This will, I think, prevent, to a great extent, the practice of bounty jump-

SCHEDULE OF PRICES IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The Commissioners of Appraisal for the State of North Carolina, again present their schedule of prices to govern the purchasing officers of the Government for the next sixty days, unless in the interval facts and circumstances should arise to induce an alteration. Every item has been carefully revised and with the valuable aid of Mr. George W. Mordocia, they trust the schedule now presented will prove satisfactory to both the Government and the people. They would respectfully urge the people to hasten on with their supplies to maintain and feed our gallant army now assembled just on our borders, and in whose gallantry and fortitude, under God, we alone owe our exemption from the horrors of a revolution, of our homes and families by the barbarous, inhuman foe, who have constantly shown they only want the power, and not the will to destroy us and take all we have.
