

DAILY CAROLINA WATCHMAN

VOL. 1

SALISBURY, N. C., OCTOBER 17, 1864.

NO. 131

TELEGRAPHIC.

REPORTS OF THE PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1863 by J. T. Tabern, in the Clerk's office of the District Court of the Confederate States for the Northern District of Georgia.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Oct. 14.—To-night northern papers of the 12th received. Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio, gone Republican by large majority.

Sheridan is at Fishers Hill. The Governor General of Nova Scotia, S. Dana visit to Grand. Nothing later from Sherman.

RICHMOND, Oct. 14.—Fights not resumed to-day on the North side of the James river as expected. Officers from below state all quiet.

Nothing at the War Department from any quarter.

FROM THE VALLEY.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Oct. 15.—Sheridan has marched with two corps of his army to this side of the mountain through Thornton's and Chester gaps. General Early followed and engaged the remaining corps and drove it through Strasburg and across Cedar creek.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Oct. 15.—Notwithstanding the positive Federal statement that the 6th and 9th Yankee corps crossed at Thornton's and Chester gaps, it is still thought probable that they did not pass through Thornton's but north of that gap.

THE Southern Literary Messenger FOR 1864.

This long established and well-known Journal of Literature having been recently purchased by the subscribers, will, in future, be conducted exclusively under their control. In all its departments, both business and editorial, the Messenger will be under the management of an entirely new regime, and the Proprietors are sanguine of success in the future, which the Magazine has never yet realized, if their friends and the public shall yield them a support worthy of so important an enterprise; looking to the advancement of the highest literary interests of the Confederacy.

Argument of appeal in behalf of the importance of an elevated literature to our country, the absence of which has hitherto made us a by-word of reproach among the older nations, and even now militates against our interests abroad, need not be addressed to those whom this article is designed to reach.

But to the attainment of this great end, something more is necessary than mere verbal expressions of sympathy and encouragement. The friends of Southern Literature, must foster the efforts of our literary men to secure for us a worthy position in the world of letters.

We design the Messenger to be an enterprise worthy of support of all classes of our people. We shall aim chiefly to secure for our pages the productions of the highest order of genius and scholarship, and at the same time such articles as will contribute to the instruction and amusement of the public at large. To this end we shall give our attention to and accept contributions from Southern writers in all the departments of Literature. Poetry, Romance, Review, Criticism, in short, every subject whose prominence is sufficient to entitle it to notice will have its due share of attention.

We earnestly solicit the assistance of our friends throughout the Confederacy in the enlargement of our subscription list, which must be increased to enable us to meet the heavy pecuniary outlay to which we shall be subject. Terms, $12 for twelve months, $8 for six months. This increase will not affect those who subscribed before the 1st of March. Orders must be accompanied with the money.

Mr. GEORGE C. WOODBURN, formerly of New Orleans, now of this city, will control the business interests of the Messenger, and Mr. FRANK H. ALFRIEND, of this city, will direct its editorial management. Communications connected with the literary conduct of the Messenger will be directed to the editors; other communications should be directed to the Proprietors.

Commissary Supplies for the Army.

Office Chief Commissary, 5th Purchasing District of N. C., Salisbury, Sept 26th, 1864.

The serious attention of the farmers of Rowan and the surrounding Counties is invited to the fact that all Commissary supplies for the army are greatly needed, and, if possible, must be had to the utmost capacity of the country to supply them. The Government is willing to pay a fair price for every article, and laws have been enacted with reference to the performance of this disposition. It is the people's government and those whom they have chosen to execute the laws and transact its public business have no alternative but to discharge their plain prescribed duty, often rendered unpleasant because of the reluctance shown by merchants interposed by some of those whose duty it is to recognize the necessities and emergency condition of the country.

I have much reason to be thankful to the people of Rowan and the adjacent Counties for the promptness with which they have responded to every call, and have the same patriotic spirit will continue to influence them while the war shall last, and it shall be my duty to collect supplies for the army which will be covering us all from the ravages of a merciless enemy.

Entertaining this confidence, I trust there will be no need for me to seize property of any kind under the impressment acts, but that to the extent of the ability of each man, having surplus produce he will bring them forward at the earliest possible day. Let the buyers bring in their orders to the proper officers now ready to receive them, and those who have surplus provisions of any kind send them in to me or my agents.

The army is at this present time in great need of supplies, and I therefore trust that this appeal will be cordially responded to as speedily as possible.

Unless farmers at once show a disposition to respond to this appeal by selling their surplus supplies, I shall be compelled to commence impressing.

Sales or engagements may be made with the following gentlemen, who are Agents acting under my control:

- J. S. Miller, Statesville.
- H. C. Eccles, Coal Springs, Iredell county, acting for Yadkin and Surry.
- Jas. M. Johnson, Mocksville, Davie Co.
- A. J. Yorks, Concord, Cabarrus Co.
- J. A. March, Lexington, Davidson Co.
- A. B. Shepperd, Salisbury, Rowan Co.
- R. M. Wall, Norwood, Stanly Co.
- W. S. Ingram, Cedar Hill, Anson Co., acting for Anson, Montgomery and Richmond.
- E. L. Hays, Salem, Forsythe Co., for Stokes and Forsythe.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

Having obtained letters of Administration of the estate of T. J. H. Kistler, I give notice to all indebted to him by note or account to come and make settlement and those having claims against him will please present them to me for payment.

SCHEDULE OF PRICES IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The Commissioners of Appraisement for the State of North Carolina, again present their schedule of prices to govern the purchasing officers of the Government for the next sixty days, unless in the interval facts and circumstances should arise to induce an alteration. Every item has been carefully revised and with the valuable aid of Mr. George W. Mordcau, they trust the schedule now presented will prove satisfactory to both the Government and the people. They would respectfully urge the people to hasten on with their supplies to maintain and feed our gallant army now assembled just on our borders, and in whose gallantry and fortitude, under God, we alone owe our exemption from the horrors of a revolution, of our homes and families by the barbarous, inhuman foe, who have constantly shown they only want the power, and not the will to destroy us and take all we have.
