DAILY CAROLINA WATCHMAN.

TELEGRAPHIC.

REPORTS OF THE PRESS ASSOCIATION.

GEN. PICKET'S REPORT.

RICHMOND, Nov. 19.—An official telegram at the War department from Gen. Pickett reports that on the night of the 17th, a portion of the enemy's picket line in his front was taken possession of and held. One colonel, (Kauffman,) two captains, two lieutenants, and 113 privates were captured, besides the dead and wounded left on the field. Our loss one killed, none wounded.

CONGRESSIONAL.

RICHMOND, Nov. 19.—The Senate passed the bill to authorize the exchange of registered bonds of the fifteen million loan for coupon bonds. Also, passed the bill suspending, for sixty days, so much of the act organizing the forces to serve during the war, as provides that persons mentioned therein shall not be required to perform military service out of the State in which they reside. The bill last mentioned was communicated to the House and passed.

The House also adopted the resolution for the appointment of a joint committee to make an appeal to the respective State governments to reduce the number of State officers exempted from military service.

NORTHERN NEWS.

RICHMOND, Nov. 19.—The Baltimore American, of the afternoon of the 17th, contains very little news.

Gold at the first board in New York, Tuesday, was 221.

Pope, in an official report of operations in the Department of the North-west, says in settling a peace with the Indians he intends to do away with treaties. His plan is to make the Indians behave, and require the whites to deal fairly with them.

Gen. Burnside arrived at Fortress Monroe on the 16th, and proceeded immediately to the front.

The official vote of Maryland was for Lincoln, 37,300; for McClellan 32,400.

MACON, Nov. 19.—The military authorities are active and vigilant, and every man is under arms. Confidence is being restored. The enemy are believed to be on our right, distant about 30 miles. The city will be defended to the last.

RICHMOND, Nov. 20.—The Philadelphia Enquirer, of the 18th received. It is barren of news. Information, believed to be correct, had reached Memphis, that Gen. Canby died from the effect of his wound. Gold closed at 222, steady.

PETERSBURG, Nov. 20th.—Deserters represent unusual activity in the yankee camp. Orders to cook rations for a move, but a probable heavy raid the last few days will prevent immediate active operations. Forty-two head of fine beef cattle deserted and entered our lines yesterday morning.

Unwilling Passengers.—A female camel, with her young one, arrived in Southampton on Wednesday, to be sent ont in the Bremen mail steamer New York to the United States. They were accompanied by an Arab keeper. By no contrivance could the elder camel be induced to cross the gang way from the dock to the ship, although the Arab tried by blows and by coaxing with a bag of oats to get her on board. The young camel, about the size of a pony, and covered with soft silky hair, stuck to his dam. As the tide was about to ebb, the pilot aboard the ship became impatient, and called out "Have the animals shipped." A number of the German passengers on board the New York rushed on shore, and, amid the shouts of laughter, took the young camel up in their arms and carried him bodily on the steamer, and the ship was obliged to leave the side of the dock immediately, leaving the camel behind. The young camel began to cry in the most pitiful manner on being separated from his dam, and the latter hearing the cries moaned distressingly, looking for her young one. At length she was put into a horse box and slung on board a steam tug and taken out to the New York, which waited in the stream for her.—Lon. Times, Oct. 14th.

THE Southern Literary Messenger.

FOR 1864.

This long established and well-known Journal of Literature having been recently purchased by the subscribers, will, in future, be conducted exclusively under their control. In all its departments, both business and editorial, the Messenger will be under the management of an entirely new regime, and the Proprietors are sanguine of success in the future, which the Magazine has never yet realized, if their friends and the public shall yield them a support worthy of so important an enterprise, looking to the advancement of the highest literary interest of the Confederacy.

Argument or appeal in behalf of the importance of an elevated literature to our country, the absence of which has hitherto made us a by-word of reproach among the older nations, and even now militates against our interests abroad, need not be addressed to those whom his circular is designed to reach.

But to the attainment of this great end, something more is necessary than mere verbal expressions of sympathy and encouragement.—The friends of Southern Literature must foster the efforts of our literary men to secure for us a worthy position in the world of letters.

We design the Messenger to be an enterprise worthy of support of all classes of our people. We shall aim chiefly to secure for our pages the productions of the highest order of genius and scholarship, and at the same time such articles as will contribute to the instruction and amusement of the public at large. To this end we shall give our attention to and solicit contributions from Southern writers in all the departments of Literature. Poetry, Romance, Review, Criticism, in short, every subject whose prominence is sufficient to entitle it to notice will have its due share of attention.

We earnestly solicit the assistance of our friends throughout the Confederacy in the enlargement of our subscription list, which must be increased to enable us to meet the heavy pecuniary outlay to which we shall be subject.

Terms, $12 for twelve months, $8 for six months. This increase will not affect those who subscribed before the 1st of March. Orders must be accompanied with the money.

Mr. GEORGE C. WEDDERBURN, formerly of New Orleans, now of this city, will control the business interests of the Messenger, and Mr FRANK H. ALFRIEND, of this city, will direct its editorial management. Communications connected with the literary conduct of the Messenger will be directed to the editor; other communications should be directed to the Proprietors,

PROSPECTUS OF

"THE AGE,"

A SOUHERN MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

The undersigned has commenced in the City of Richmond the publication of a Monthly Magazine, under the above title.

It will present to its readers, selections from the best European Periodicals, of Literary and Scientific articles, of Novels and Sketches, which, having already received the imprimatur of an enlightened taste, cannot but prove acceptible to the Southern public. The effort will be made to keep the readers of the Magazine as nearly as possible abreast of the literary progress of the age. Arrangements have been made which, it is hoped, will enable the proprietors to secure this end.

The Magazine will also present original articles from our best writers, in all departments, and a special aim of the proprietors of the periodical will be to foster Southern authorship by offering an adequate and remunerative field for its exercise. They will not, however, under the plea of this design, encourage, by reproduction in its columns, that class of compositions which create a vivid and unhealthy taste, to be gated only by that hybrid literature which Yankee ingenuity has contrived, under the name of sensational romance.

The Industrial Resources and the Educational Interest of the Confederacy—the twin foundations of true independence—will receive the important share of attention they deserve. In the development of these questions, its object will be to make a practical application of the doctrine of States Rights to the policy of the country. It will endeavor to explain the mission of the Confederacy, which is to demonstrate liberty regulated by law, to exhibit a system of States, each supreme within its foundation, and only bound by a voluntary alienation of powers. It will vindicate those elements of National Independence, which are secured by a high standard of intelligence and refinement, by accumulated capital, varied industry and by abundant facilities of intercommunication. It will promote the adoption of all those measures in which the Confederate States are now deficient. And, whilst the Constitution of the Confederate States forbids the General Government to organize and operate enterprizes of a nature calculated to attain these results, the projectors will consider it their duty to urge upon the States the developement of interests so indispensable to the national welfare. It is thus that, through the aggregate ability of the separate States, the power of the Confederate States will be made manifest. It is thus that the collision of sectional interest and the oppression of a common head will be avoided.

In the fourth section, it is the design to afford to Teachers information needed in their profession, and a field for the interchange of ideas on that subject, to which end, their assistance and collaboration is invited. Southern School Books will be noticed and reviewed; and the Southern system of Education as opposed to New England empiricism and practicalism, dupheld, developed and defended.

TERMS—Each number $1.50. For three months $4. For six months $8.

The trade will be supplied by GEORGE L. BIDGOODS, 161 Main Street.

SCHEDULE OF PRICES IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The Commissioners of Appraisement for the State of North Carolina, again present their schedule of prices to govern the purchasing officers of the Government for the next sixty days, unless in the interval facts and circumstances should arise to induce an alteration. Every item has been carefully revised and with the valuable aid of Mr. George W. Mordecai, they trust the schedule now presented will prove satisfactory to both the Government and and the people. They would respectfully urge the people to hasten on with their supplies to maintain and feed our gallant army now assembled just on our borders, and in whose gallantry and fortitude, under God, we alone owe our exemption from the horrors of a revolution, of our homes and families by the barbarous, inhuman foe, who have constantly shown they only want the power, and not the will to destroy us and take all we have.
