TO THE PEOPLE
The Farmers of the foregoing counties are hereby informed, that in consequence of the pressing necessity existing in our Armies for long and short Forage—Corn, Oats, Hay and Fodder I, have instructed my Agents to exert all their energies in securing at once the entire surplus of these supplies; and, while I sincerely trust that the farmers of these counties will spare my Agents and themselves the unpleasant necessity of improvement by selling to me or them at the schedule prices fixed by the Commissioners of Appraisalment for North Carolina; yet, if parties refuse to sell at these prices, thereby making improvement necessary, it is a duty, which, in all such cases, my Agents will proceed to execute promptly without discrimination.
The following persons are my authorized Agents, viz:—
W. U. Markland, Agent for Iredell county,
Ruben Watts, " Alexander county,
W. S. Clark, " Caldwell county,
J. W. McEath, " Burke county,

SALE OF VALUABLE LAND & NEGROES.

ON Tuesday, 17th day of January, 1865, we will sell upon the premises, for division, a certain Tract of Land, situated in Davie county, N. C., two and a half miles from the town of Mocksville, and lying on Bear Creek. It is the same tract purchased by us from A. M. Bae. It contains 554 acres—about 350 acres cleared, the balance well timbered. In the cleared land, there is about 100 acres of first quality low grounds.
The improvements consist of a Dwelling House, Overseer's House, four Tobacco Barns, and all necessary out-houses. The land is well adapted to the growth of grain and tobacco, and is considered one of the best tracts of land in the County.
Sixty bushels of Wheat have been sowed, which will go with the land.
On the same day, will sell fifteen valuable NEGROES. Also, the STOCK remaining on the place.
Sale positive—Terms cash.

TELEGRAPHIC.

REPORTS OF THE PRESS ASSOCIATION.

AUGUSTA, Dec. 5.—Advices from below confirm the report that Sherman's forces have crossed the Savannah. They are believed to be moving towards Grahamville. The reported deaths of Genls. Hood and Forrest are not confirmed.

RICHMOND, Dec. 5.—Official dispatch from Hood at Corinth of the 3d, says the army has re-crossed the Tennessee river without material loss, since the battle in front of Nashville.

RICHMOND, Dec. 5.—No definite action in either House of Congress to day, on any subject. The general bill to consolidate the army is still pending in the House.

RICHMOND, Jan. 5th.—No Yankee papers received to-day. The Tribune received yesterday, mentions the report of Blair's procedure to Richmond on a peace mission in a double headed paragraph, and seems to record in report Blair has arrived at city Point.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 5.—No further movement of the enemy to-day, whose force is still concentrating between Hardeville and the Savannah river. No truth in the report of his advance on Grahamville.

The Richmond Enquirer, says the Fayetteville Observer, has thrown another fire-brand into the Confederacy. It was the first to start the project of arming the slaves, and now it proposes to make an outrageous proposition to England and France. Such visionary schemes indicate a weak-kneed frame of mind, such as any press in the Confederacy, and especially at the capital, ought to be ashamed of at a time like this. They are calculated to encourage the enemy and to produce disunion at home. It is proper to remark, that the Enquirer, so far from being the organ of the Administration, is rather hostile to it.

A WARLIKE WORLD.—The "Opinion National," of a recent date, gives this dismal picture of the present belligerent condition of the world:

If there be a dead calm in politics, as well as business among us, it is not the same in all parts of the little planet we inhabit. Three-quarters of humanity, in fact, are living in the barbarous state of war.
There is war in Poland.
War in Algeria.
War in Tunis.
War in Mexico.
War in the United States.
War in Peru.
War in New Zealand.
War in China and Zschgar.
War in Japan.
War in Afghanistan.
War in twenty countries in Africa.

This is unfortunate, enough to discourage the friends of universal peace, and who can say they will not meet with still greater disappointment next year? Italy, Hungary, Poland, Denmark, and the Slavonian population of Turkey, are not, it must be confessed, in the most pacific humor, and, to those who study the general situation of our continent, it is quite evident that the general situation, instead of getting better, goes on from day to day getting more and more complicated.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire last evening about eight o'clock, was caused by the burning of a large wooden building, situated near the river, in the Northern portion of the town. In the building was stored a large quantity of rosin—about 3500 to 4000 barrels—which, together with the wharf on which the building stood, was entirely consumed. The building and contents were owned by Messrs. Vanamringe & Co., whose loss in Confederate money will reach about $1000,000. The fire was no doubt the work of an incendiary.—The firemen were promptly on the spot with their engines, and were soon at work trying to subdue the flames.

Messrs. J. H. Chadbourn & Co., suffered some loss by the burning of some timber in the dock next North of where the fire originated.

THE Southern Literary Messenger FOR 1864.

This long established and well-known Journal of Literature having been recently purchased by the subscribers, will, in future, be conducted exclusively under their control. In all its departments, both business and editorial, the Messenger will be under the management of an entirely new regime, and the Proprietors are sanguine of success in the future, which the Magazine has never yet realized. Their friends and the public should yield them a support worthy of so important an enterprise, looking to the advancement of the highest literary interest of the Confederacy.

Argument or appeal in behalf of the importance of an elevated literature to our country, the absence of which has hitherto made us a by-word of reproach among the older nations and even now militates against our interests abroad, need not be addressed to those whom his circular is designed to reach.

But to the attainment of this great end, something more is necessary than mere verbal expressions of sympathy and encouragement.—The friends of Southern Literature must foster the efforts of our literary men to secure for us a worthy position in the world of letters.

We design the Messenger to be an enterprise worthy of support of all classes of our people. We shall aim chiefly to secure for our pages the productions of the highest order of genius and scholarship, and at the same time such articles as will contribute to the instruction and amusement of the public at large. To this end we shall give our attention to and solicit contributions from Southern writers in all the departments of Literature. Poetry, Romance, Review, Criticism, in short, every subject whose prominence is sufficient to entitle it to notice will have its due share of attention.

We earnestly solicit the assistance of our friends throughout the Confederacy in the enlargement of our subscription list, which must be increased to enable us to meet the heavy pecuniary outlay to which we shall be subjected. Terms, $12 for twelve months, $8 for six months. This increase will not affect those who subscribed before the 1st of March. Orders must be accompanied with the money.

Mr. GEORGE C. WANNAMAN, formerly of New Orleans, now of this city, will control the business interests of the Messenger, and Mr. FRANK H. ALFRIEND, of this city, will direct its editorial management. Communications connected with the literary conduct of the Messenger, will be directed to the editor; other communications should be directed to the Proprietors.

WEDDERBURN & ALFRIEND,
June 10, '64. Richmond, Va.

PROSPECTUS OF "THE AGE."

A SOUTHERN MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

The undersigned has commenced in the City of Richmond the publication of a Monthly Magazine, under the above title.

It will present to its readers, selections from the best European Periodicals, of Literary and Scientific articles, of Novels and Sketches, which, having already received the imprimatur of an enlightened taste, cannot but prove acceptable to the Southern public. The effort will be made to keep the readers of the Magazine as nearly as possible abreast of the literary progress of the age. Arrangements have been made which, it is hoped, will enable the proprietors to secure this end.

The Magazine will also present original articles from our best writers, in all departments, and a special aim of the proprietors of this periodical will be to foster Southern authorship by offering an adequate and remunerative field for its exercise. They will not, however, under the plea of this design, encourage, by reproduction in its columns, that class of compositions which create a vivid and unhealthy taste, to be stated only by that hybrid literature which Yankee ingenuity has contrived, under the name of sensational romance.

The Industrial Resources and the Educational Interest of the Confederacy—the twin foundations of true independence—will receive the important share of attention they deserve. In the development of these questions, its object will be to make a practical application of the doctrine of States Rights to the policy of the country. It will endeavor to explain the mission of the Confederacy, which is to demonstrate liberty regulated by law, to exhibit a system of States, each supreme within its foundation, and only bound by a voluntary alienation of powers. It will vindicate those elements of National Independence, which are secured by a high standard of intelligence and refinement, by accumulated capital, varied industry and by abundant facilities of intercommunication. It will promote the adoption of all those measures in which the Confederate States are now deficient. And whilst the Constitution of the Confederate States forbids the General Government to organize and operate enterprises of a nature calculated to attain these results, the proprietors will consider it their duty to urge upon the States the development of interests commensurate to the national welfare. It is thus that, through the aggregate ability of the separate States, the power of the Confederate States will be made manifest. It is thus that the collision of sectional interest and the oppression of a common head will be avoided.

In the fourth section, it is the design to afford to Teachers information needed in their profession, and a field for the interchange of ideas on that subject, to which end, their assistance and collaboration is invited. Southern School Books will be noticed and reviewed; and the Southern system of Education as opposed to New England empiricism and practicalism, upheld, developed and defined.

Terms—Each number $1.50. For three months $4. For six months $7. The trade will be supplied by GEORGE L. BIDGOODS, 161 Main Street.
