REPORTS OF THE PRESS ASSOCIATION.

RICHMOND, Feb. 5.—The Commissioners returned from Fort Monroe last night. They had an interview with Lincoln and Seward, and were informed substantially that peace can only be attained by unconditional submission to the Constitution and the United States, and that the slavery question had been disposed of by an action of the Federal Congress, adopting proposed amendments to the constitution abolishing slavery in the United States. It is understood that an official statement from the Commissioners will be laid before Congress to-morrow.

RICHMOND, Feb. 5.—The New York World of the 31st, occupied a page with proceedings and speeches of board of Supervisors in relation to the approaching draft in that city. The quota having been increased from four to twenty-one thousand. Supervisors intimated that another riot was inevitable, if the draft was enforced. The World says we council the people of this city to restrain their indignant feeling, although we are well aware that they are intensely excited. The draft takes place on the 15th.

Another committee has been sent to Washington to urge a reduction of the quota.

PETERSBURG, Feb. 5.—The enemy demonstrated heavily on our right to-day. Our pickets, in Gen. Gordon's front, were driven in, early this morning and a portion of the enemy's force reached Vaughn's road and crossed Harper's Run. Some skirmishing has occurred, but there has been no engagement as yet. The object of this movement is not developed. The enemy's trains have been running incessantly for the last two nights, supposed to have been conveying troops from 7 to 11 o'clock last night. The heaviest cannonading that has occurred for weeks took place on our left, it was caused by the enemy shelling our Chesterfield works. No casualties on our side.

Cure for Fits.—For a fit of Passion—Walk out into the open air, you may speak your mind to the winds without hurting any one or proclaiming yourself a simpleton.

For a Fit of Idleness.—Count the ticking of a clock; do this for one hour, and you will be glad to pull off your coat the next and work like a man.

For a Fit of Extravagance and Folly.—Go to the workhouse and speak with the inmates of a jail, and you will be convinced.

Who makes his bed of briar and thorn, Must be content to lie forlorn.

For a Fit of Ambition.—Go into the churchyard and read the grave-stones; they will tell you the end of ambition. The grave will soon be your bedchamber, the earth your pillow, corruption your father, and the worms your mother and sister.

For a Fit of Despondency.—Look on the good things which God have given you in this world, and to those which he has promised to His followers in the next. He who goes into his garden to look for cabbages and spiders, no doubt will find them; while he who looks for a flower may return into his house with one blooming in his bosom.

For all Fits of Doubt, Perplexity and Fear.—Whether they respect the body or the mind—whether they are a load to the shoulders, the head or the heart—the following is a radical cure, which may be relied on, for I had it from the Great Physician—"Cast thy burden on the Lord, and He will sustain thee."

For a Fit of Repining.—Look about for the halt and the blind, and visit the bed-ridden, and the afflicted and deranged; and they will make you ashamed of complaining of your lighter afflictions.

Sugar and Cotton.—From Bayou Lafourche to Bayou Plaquemine, in the parish of Iberville, La., which was considered before the war to be one of the richest parishes in the State of Louisiana, and yielded about twelve or fifteen thousand hogsheads, only raised last year three hundred and fifty hogsheads of sugar. One planter, whose crop in 1860 was a little over twelve hundred hogsheads, has shipped ten hogsheads and two barrels, the product of the year just closed. The cotton crop was a complete failure, the worm having destroyed it. This is the result of Yankee interference.

Outrage in Chatham.—A letter from a subscriber in Chatham, 26th Jan'y, says:—

A band of robbers, seven or eight in number, entered the house of Thos. C. Dixon, who is in the service, last night (knowing no doubt that he was from home) and not fearing his helpless family, carried off a large quantity of bed clothing, leather, jewelry and other valuables. They were supposed to be deserters, as they had army guns, canteens, &c. Mr. Dixon lives in the upper end of this county near the Alamance line, in the Cane Creek neighborhood. Can't our authorities do something for us?

The North Carolina Railroad Company has declared a dividend of 25 per cent. This will contribute to the State Sinking Fund the sum of $750,000.

SCHEDULE OF PRICES IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The Commissioners of Appraisement for the State of North Carolina, again present their schedule of prices to govern the purchasing officers of the Government for the next sixty days, unless in the interval facts and circumstances should arise to induce an alteration. Every item has been carefully revised and with the valuable aid of Mr. George W. Mordecai, they trust the schedule now presented will prove satisfactory to both the Government and the people. They would respectfully urge the people to listen to their supplies to maintain and feed our gallant army now assembled just on our borders, and in whose gallantry and fortitude, under God, we alone owe our exemption from the horrors of a revolution, of our homes and families by the barbarous, inhuman foe, who have constantly shows they only want the power, and not the will to destroy us and take all we have.
