Headquarters of the U. States,

11th February, 1865.

GENERAL ORDERS,

No. 2. In entering upon the campaign about to open the General-in-Chief feels assured that the soldiers who have so long and so nobly borne the hardships and dangers of the war require no exhortation to respond to the call of honor and duty.

With the liberty transmitted by their forefathers they have inherited the spirit to defend it. The choice between war and abject slavery is before them.

To such a proposal, brave men with arms in their hands can have but one answer. They cannot barter manhood for peace, for the right of self-government for life or property. But justice to them requires a sterner admonition to those who have abandoned their comrades in the hour of peril.

A just opportunity is offered them to wipe out the disgrace and escape the punishment of their crimes. By authority of the President of the Confederate States, a pardon is announced to such deserters and men improperly absent as shall return to the commands to which they belong within the shortest possible time, not exceeding twenty days from the publication of this order, at the Headquarters of the department in which they may be.

Those who may be prevented by interruption of communications, may report within the time specified to the nearest enrolling officer or time officer on duty, to be forwarded as soon as practicable, and upon presenting a certificate from such officer showing compliance with this requirement, will receive the pardon hereby offered. Those who have deserted to the service of the enemy or who have deserted after having been once pardoned for the same offense, and those who shall desert or absent themselves without authority after the publication of this order, are excluded from its benefits. Nor does this offer of pardon extend to other offenses than desertion and absence without permission. By the same authority, it is also declared that no general amnesty will again be granted, and those who refuse to accept the pardon now offered, or who shall hereafter desert or absent themselves without leave, shall suffer such punishment as the Courts may impose, and no application for clemency will be entertained.

Taking now resolution from the fate which our enemies intend for us, let every man devote all his energies to the common defense. Our resources wisely and vigorously employed, are ample, and with a brave army, sustained by a determined and united people, success with God's assistance cannot be doubtful. The advantages of the enemy will have but little value if we do not permit them to impair our resolution. Let us, then, oppose constancy to adversity, fortitude to suffering, and courage to danger, with the firm assurance that He who gave freedom to our fathers will bless the efforts of their children to preserve it.

R. E. LEE, General.

Enrolling officers will make every effort to give publicity to this important order, and will urge all good citizens of their respective counties to aid them in redressing its design successful.

It will be observed that this is the last offer of pardon for the infamous crime of desertion that will be made. Enrolling officers are made responsible, under a penalty of trial by Court Martial, that every possible effort is made to apprehend all such as do not report themselves.

Enrolling Officers will allow such as voluntarily report within the specified time to go direct to their commands furnishing them transportation and the necessary certificate. A duplicate of every certificate thus given will be forwarded to this office. By order of the Commandant: E. J. HARDIN, Adj't.

SCHEDULE OF PRICES IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The Commissioners of Appraisement for the State of North Carolina, upon present their schedule of prices to govern the purchasing officers of the Government for the next ninety days, unless in the interval facts and circumstances should arise to induce an alteration.

Every item has been carefully revised and with the valuable aid of Mr. George W. Mordcau, they trust the schedule now presented will prove satisfactory to both the Government and the people. They would respectfully urge the people to hasten on with their supplies to maintain and feed our gallant army now assembled just on our borders, and in whose gallantry and fortitude, under God, we alone owe our exemption from the horrors of a revolution, of our homes and families by the barbarous, human foe, who have constantly shown they only want the power, and not the will, to destroy us and take all we have.
