L. V. BLUM tees EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR PRICE-Four Dellars a Year, $2 00 for Six Months.

PAYABLE IN ADVANCED DESTREET LE No paper will be discontinued until al

sixth copy gratis. TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

advertisem uts. fer a equare, as follows: For three months,-For twelve months ..

ave lines in length, Five Dollars a year ; -- longer

Miscellaneous.

Presidents and performed at skillfully and stick Henry exclaimed on a very noted on had warm garmen and bedding and has Thank God ! it is not yet too late to save plundering the residences, of the Mayor Bishwell in sending forth your seasonable and casion: "Let us know the worst, and pro- swept away by thousands those who were thin- our own honored sause. The people of these op and other obnoxious persons as well as the fore being "passed". We make an extract:

ly clad, and who slept on the wet ground. Confederate States yet confide in the wisdom prisons, custom-houses, excise office, and other Many attempts at frank are made. Men well drawn proclamation, and whilst I am yide for it is happy to say that if has evidently had alleged and who slept on the wet ground and patriotic intentions of their Chief Magis public building, wholly destroying Queen tready a wholesome and beneficial influence to the condition of our military affairs, and upon the general popular mind, something to the suggestion of such expedients as of shoes, had been paid for by the public, yet a tyrangy more oppressive and degrading than $2,500,000. Next to the Gordon riot of 1780 is the freedom which? Am about to been the first state of the property of the first state of the property of t and wise, and energetic, and magnahimous; free from all parrow and diberal prejedices or partialities, whether personal or section world with admiration and astonishment. al; impervious to the influence of flattery, and prepared to appreciate merit and abil- fallen into the hands of the enemy; nearly isy wheresoever these might be found.— 30,000 troops, cooped in those places, havsertion. Deductions made in fever of standing and prepared to appreciate merit and abilablest and most accomplished men which surrender. There are far the most dis quisite amount of popular confidence. The these Confederate States could furnish as graceful goonrences of the war, and whoyour cabinet advisers, men of the purests ever shall turn out to be responsible for the morals, of the most disinterested patriot. failure to provision those fortresses in sesism, of the greatest weight of character, son should be held to a prempt and terrible and of the most extended fame. Permit responsibility. The condition of affairs in me to say that it is even now is common Vicksburg in connection with supplying the opinien among your fellow citizens, that army there with the means of subsistence, had you been more fortunate in the con- was freely exposed during the last session TO HIS EXCELLENCY JEFFERSON struction of your cabinet, many of the dis- of Congress, long before the act of surren with other causes, have produced a state of Spitalfields weavers proceeded to rioring in reply was, North Carolina. Others made like DAVIS. PRESIDENT OF THE CON severs which we have heretofore experien der; the abuses there prevalent in the un-DAVIS. PRESIDENT OF THE COLOR STATES OF AMPRICA. | ced would have been avoided. It bessech lawfulues of the Government Transports not a little slarming. You cannot but be to disperse them It was on that occasion when they were brought before the proper su-SIR:—In common with the great mass the north disposed to make the most liberal allowan- gar and molasses, were laid bare, and the highest satisfaction, not unmingled with ces for all the difficulties by which you have SIR :- In common with the great mass you not to doubt the truth forced out, the very gratitude, your recent carrest address to been surrounded from the outset of your was boldly predicted. Truly, Mr President, "The Soldier seof the Confederate States" career as President. They know well that the Republic is no longer in need of the The Soldiers of the Confederate States career as resident; They know well that services either of Pemberton or Northeap. Ists are evidently beginning to despair of our services either of Pemberton or Northeap. Sause. No time is to be lost in suppressing on the interesting subject therein discussed you neve not seen that a suppressing the interesting subject therein discussed you never the suppressing the fermenting elements of mischief ere they are with you perfectly, that we have tained by those whom you selected to fill The whole Confederacy expects and dethe fermenting elements of mischief ere they mands their immediate decapitation, and I man strength enough to overwholm me with most trying and perilous high official stations in the Executive De-mands their immediate decapitation, and I gain strength enough to overwhelm in at last reached a most trying and persons migh ometal assessment and that a no partment of the Government; they know cannot doubt that you will lend a favorable disasters which other governments and people alternative is now left us but victory or likewise that all to whom you have entrust. ear to the universal demand of your counsubjugation, alayery and the utter ruin of ed the command of armies have not shown trymen on this subject. In asking this at is the language of the most philosophic and saourselves, our families and our country." that ability in the field which it was expect your hands, we are asking what has been gacious statesmen of tay age [Mr. Burke] that ourselves, our families and our country." that ability in the field which it was expectation, and after having larges with you that "tibe victory is with the largest with you that "tibe victory is with the largest with you that "tibe victory is with the largest with you that "tibe victory is with the largest line when I will modern the largest line with modern the largest line when I will be largest lin in our reach. We need but stretch forth prompt and judicious displacement of all and modern times, and what no wise and ricusly put it to the Atministration, to considour hands and grasp it." . It is, I hope, who have thus shown themselves unworthy considerate ruler ever yet refused to do or the wisdom of a timely reform. Burly reequally true, as you assert, that "for this they cannot doubt that such a squee as they inder aimilar circumstances. Allow us to formations are smicable arrangements with a all that is necessary is that those who are in hebelf of which we are calibred must in say, what I know, that the army ignoran- friend in power; date reformations are terms called to the field by every motive that can the end triumph over all opposing obstacles iously surrendered by Pemberton will never ations are made in cool blood; late reformations move the human, heart, should promptly They are aware that few of the greater sgain serve under him; to attempt to force are made under a state of inflammation. In repair to the post of duty, should stand by blessings of life are bestowed upon us gra- him upon them will produce an amount of that state of things the people beheld in gevtheir comrades now in front of the foe, and tuitously by a bounteous Providence; that disaffection which has not been heretofore ernment nothing that is re-pectable. They thus so strengthen the armies of the Con all the nobler schibrements of existence exhibited in the ranks of our gallant army; see the abuse, and they see nothing else; they federacy as to ensure success. " If shere sie the result of adequate exertion on the even the attempt to retain him at all in fall into the temper of a furious populace probe no error in this view of the subject, part of those by whom they are attained; command will be productive of mischief roked at the disorder of a house of ill-fame; then, the only question remaining to be that no solid good or enduring fame was compared with which desertion will be but they never attempt to correct or regulate; they solved is: How shall the Strength of our ever yet acquired except by the diligent a slight evil. As to the case of the illstarred go to work by the shortest way shey abate armies be so increased as to enable them employment of the means suited to their Northrup, who has already done more injuto meet and to overcome the cohorts of the acquisition. Extertaining these views Ty to our cause than any hundred thousand foe now trampling the sacred soil of the your loving and admiring countrymen are of the enemy's troops, let me respectfully South? You seem to think that in order very far from despairing of ultimate success call your attention to what the illustrious Cabinet into the present perplexing predica to attain the desired end it will be sufficient, in the pending struggle. Indeed they can William III. did, under similar circumstant ment and bought the evil of civil revolution that you should forcibly describe the bru-not but regard it as shighly descouraging des, during his memorable. Irish War. I upon a once happy and prosperous people. I talities everywhere practiced by our vanda- circumstance that we have at least clearly cite from the pages of Macaulay as follows; was precisely the same, werse than judicial lice segmes, address a thrilling and ingening accertained she causes of our present sufons appeal to the sensibilities of our patric feriogs, and that me find them not to be of ferth strong expressions of sympathy and in the fatal block; drove his strangely bigotted ous appeal to the sensibilities of our patricular our "country women" the wives wastern and and energetic employment of Executive attributed chiefly to the villainy of the Com needed government reform, until, when he at prison and liberated all the prisoners burned daughters of the Confederacy—"to use wisdom. Let us, I pray you, at this awful misserist. The pestilence itself, it was said, last announced his willingness to yield to the the Castle of Notingham and plundered the "their all powerful influence in aid" of your conjuncture in our affairs, boldly book the would have been no serious calamity if it had oft-repeated demands of his wronged and in dwelling house of neighboring peers and countried the would have been no serious calamity if it had oft-repeated demands of his wronged and in more is yet necessary to be done in order seem to be now necessary to the invigora; the baggage was left behind for the want of any that has heretofore existed. They well this was the most disastrone outbreak of mob to refill the ranks of the army, to inspire tion of our senses in the field and their beasts to draw, it; and the soldiers were march know their resources in all their extent and dolence ever known in England. The Rebec that confidence and enthusiasm which so eventual triumph over the fue; leaving cer- ing barefoot through the mire. Beventeen variety; and they feel that they are unconquer- ice riots of 1818, which took place in Wales happily marked the earlier stages of our tain reforms, evidently now most imperiable down the demolition of revolutionery struggle. There are other ously needed in the several Executive De- erume t for medicine; yet the common drugs ment of those whom they have entrusted with turnpikes, too numerous in the poor agriculture causes of desertion from the army existing partments, to your own enlightened discre- with which every apothecary in the smallest besides those you have enumerated—there tion, and, not doubting that you will per- market town was provided were not to be are other influences at work besides those ceive the necessity of yielding to the wishes found in the plague stricken camp. The ory which the persons immediately in contact of your fellow citizens in connection with against Shales was loud. An address was cor with you would be likely to suggest, which this grave and momentous subject, all that ried to the throne, requesting that he might be have diminished the numerical force of our they have long most earnestly desired. soldiers in the field, have discouraged the calt is a fact not to be denied that the king leadily complied." voluntary enlistment, have depressed the greater part of the Southwest is now over. To proceed with our examination of the conspirits and unnerved the energies of our run by the enemy. Missouri, Kentucky, dirion of our Military Missouri. The fail of valiant defenders in camp, and have indu- Northwestern Virginia and Maryland are Vicksburg and Port Hodson, together with the ted, as I lourn, certain weak kneed and exclusively occupied by the Abolition for late unfortunate raid of the valiant Morgan in sherance of our happiness and honor as a Peotimed hearted gentlemen in our old State ces. North Carolina, South Carolina, to Indiana and Onio, has opened the naviga- pie! of Mississippi and elsewhere to talk in whis Georgia and Alabama, are at this moment tim of the Mississippi river to the people of pers about the reconstruction of the Fede- either actually invaded or menaced with the Northwest without further exercise on ral Union. Some of these rayses I whall invasion. Lam happy to discover that their part to scoure this desirable object in the now attempt to unfold to yourself and the Smith, Taylor and Magruder, in lower Lou- way of negotiation or arms, and has for country though I am quite aware that in islans, have met with some leading succes- present suspended the peace movement in that venturing to declare kn wn truths, in the ses of late, and under such enterprising time anticipated. The recent invasion of language of the strictest courtesy, I shall and skillful commanders we have a right Maryland and Pennsylvania, under that wise tion of Jackson, the Capital of the State of State, and had been sent to Cherokee for the carry deliverance of our and energetic commander, General Lee, how Mi-sissippi and the capture of Vicksburg and the major of the militia. They met with no bell the fieres condemnation of those whose countrymen in that part of the world from ever hopes of advancement depend upon never the oppressions under which they have been doing or saying anything calculated in the so long grosning. The heroic Price, it is to bring into the field against us some three prisoners, among whom were fifteen general bundred thousand additional soldiers. Mean-cupying the seats of civil and military au- been able to draw together an army of while the organization of African regiments is therity. Being satisfied that the time has forty thousand men beyond the Mississippi going on with most fearful rapidity, and it is come when it is necessary to speak, in lanriver, at the head of whom, if his energies bosatfully announced by Gen. Thomas that he haps thousands of stragglers, who can never be guage of hold superity in order to save the are not palsied by the interference of will shortly have on foot one hundred black collected and re-organized. Arms and munitary regiments along the banks of the Mississippi rions of war for an army of sixty thousand Republic itself from ruin, I shall dare to Holmes, he will soon be able to redeem both which the adulators of official Arkansas and Missouri. A strong army greatness will never think of bringing to of she enemy is hourly threatening to break your notice, relying upon both lown good lover the barrier of the Gamberland Mounsense and elevated love of country to justic tains, and, after establishing their dominion fy the freedom which I am about to exer in East Reinessee, it is hoped to inundate Mr. President! Lirepest that you can lo it is

Single of the country the imposing image of a second Washing to the performance of this wecessary aut ton. They felt assured by numerous evin will/pus at hazard all thes depends and by person procuring rive new subscribers dences connected with your former public the efforts of the Army of Tennessee, was, my person procuring rive new subscribers dences connected with your former public the efforts of the Army of Tennessee, was, remitting Fifteen Dollars, will be entitled to life, that you were honest, and patriotic, under a commander in whose ability they have confidence, are prepared to perform

Vicksburg and Port Hudson have of late pap re might be secured. With this sequest samuely conceived of skilfully spouding countrymen? You can do all this, ing out of the general course of your Adminis-They expected you to call around you the ing been basely and criminally starved into ward of their countrymen or to secure the reremarkable tensoity with which you have ad food and the great exactions of tolls upon the Carolina. The correspondent says: hered to them thus far, and to certain military turopike roads. The very safety of the Gov- "Yesferday an old member of Co. C, arririver, the gross incompetency of some of whom necessary to reduce the cost of bread and lest to arrest deserters. He was assigned to duty and the strocious malefactions of others, have sen the number of toll bars. awakened universal disgust and horror; togeth- In 1765, when the English Parliament re by keeping a vigilant look out, he seen sucer with the signal disasters which have befalien our arms of late, and which many suppose hibitory on the importation of foreign and pro- longed to the "Wood's Rooster Battalion." it would have been quite easy to avoid there, tective of the manufacture of English silks the He asked them where they were from, their most sealous advocates of Reconstruction, and Walpole's Mamoirs." that thousands who are not yet reconstructionists are evidently beginning to despair of our the nuisance; they pull down the house!" I was the failure to observe, the course of true wisdom herein indicated so strikingly by Mr Burke, which has involved Lincoln and his

"call." I feel bound to say that, whilst evils which surround us muthe face, with a not been aggravated by the wickedness of man lented subjects, he was fated to hear the territory gentlemen. In the city of Bristol the mob ferings, and try all remedies, seener than in- logue. gloriously yield up the hopes which they yet cherish of separate Liberty and Independence. May this wise and beneficient Deity, whom it is your country's pride to know that you worship so devently, enable you so to act at this fearful crisis as may best comport with His own eternal designs and be most in fur-

General Grant, in his official report of his operations in the Mississippi valley gives the following summary. The result of this campaign has been the defeat of the enemy in Tilghman and Greens and bundreds and per collected and re-organized. Arms and muni-THou shallowe contrive to meet and renduisb men have fallen into our hands, besides a large the opposing hosts? How shall we redruit our amount of other public property, consisting of exhausted armies? How shall we fill with railroads, locomotives, care, steamboats, cotton, and J. R. Dyche: — Dear Sirs: I am actconfidence once more the hearts of our de&c, and much was destroyed to prevent our ing under the authority of the U. S. Govcapturing it. 1007 shot the brest, but at last accounts his wounds were will ever find me acting under that rule. diverthes, and that is the embarrassment of not considered dangerous. The difficulty grow but busysteed account with the proposed misurification with the busysteed solution with the proposed misurification.

which in all probability is the last which I shall at Edioburg, as described with vivid power in that Island; and from that day to this, though trouble either yourself or the public with for Scott's "Heart of Mid Lothin." A police offi- the valor of her sons have time and spain saved some time to come, I feel bound to invite your cer had rendered himself obnexious to the that person from the fate of a refugee and attention specially to a subject most closely mob, who broke into the prison where, he was confined that there is at present place of execution and hanged him there. The great dissatisfaction in the public mind grow-city was in the hands of the rioters while this history, that she, above all other States, is a

In 1753, there were riots in many parts of become so notorious that even the soldiers of England on account of the excessive price of other States who desert, claim to be from North commanders on either side of the Mississippi ernment was threatened, and it was considered ved in comp, who had been detailed as a scout jested a bill which was intended to act as pro- ceeded in capturing several fellows who be-

In 1780 occurred the "No Popery" riot, of squad of more North Carolinians were accested, which the best description is to be found in but in the end turned out to be Georgians. Dicken,s "Barnaby Rudge." A young man, Scarcely a day passed but deserters were taken Lord George Gordon, son of a Duke, himself a up, who invariably reported themselves from feeble minded that his insanity was never doubted, constituted himself champion of the cause of ultra Protestantism in England, headand rascally persons of both sexes, was unable to control them when they broke into riot .-London was at their mercy, the civic magistrates not daring to enforce the law against them. The Government itself was parawied for some days, during which rapine and even worse crimes were rampant in the capital of the kingdom. Persons were burned to the ground and their inmates liberated; churches were destroyed; private dwellings gutted, plundered and demolished. In fact, for several days, the mob ruled and revelled, audacious and cruel, such of them as were not incapaciated by drink, applying themselves to the business of pillage and murder.

In 1811, there were the Luddite riots in Notts and Derby; in 1816 the celebrated Spa-Fields' riots, when London was again at the mercy of the mob; and in 1830, the agricultural machine destroying riots in Surry, Kent she has in it. But Mississippi belongs to the

you have done your duty as a patrictic view to their early amelioration. As Pat The disease had generally spared their who ble response, the is too late! It is too late! It is too late! Were into even worse excesses, burning and Confederate States yet confide in the wisdom prisons, dustom-houses, excise office, and other power. They do not intend to be pouquered, ral country of South Wales, and which for Come what may, they will never submit to an a long time defied all the efforts of the Govern-Abolition Despotism; they will endure all suf- ment to suppress them, may close this cats,

> Some of the disaffected along the Tenn. line are getting quite bold. We find the following in the Asheville News of the 120 disloyal men, made a roid on the town famiry service. He may do for a trooper. of Murphy, Cherokee county, last Sunday Every limb is examined. If the lungs are unweek. They did but little damage to pri- sound, the temperament apoletic, or the sysvate property, but demolished the Jail, and tem wasting, the Government does not want carried off some 50 or 60 guns and considerable ammunition which belonged to the substitute, the use of the militia. They met with no various attitudes. His toes and fingers must opposition, there being Lobody in town but a few old men, and the women and chil-but seems to have gone, clean over on the his release is given to the man who briegs wrong side. He left the following docu- and is taken into the custody of a guard. He ment behind him :

G. W. Hayes, D. F. Ramseur, M. Fain, ernment. I have paid a visit to the town dispatch from Washington says: The reitersof Murphy with a few of the boys to sub- tion of the stories of prolenged debates in Cabjugate the place. We wish to establish inet on the question of the terms on which the TRAGEBY IN LYMCHBURG.—The Lynchburg and sustain the laws of the old U. States a deded States shall be restored to the Union TRACEDY IN LYMCHBURG.—The Lynchburg and sustain the laws of the old U. States of antirely mythical. It is not believed here community was much shocked on Thursday Government, and as such you may consider that the subject has been before Mr. Lincoln's ine, should be a reacontre, with knives, at the Nor-acted nader such laws, and therefore I shall derefore, are merely based on the views supveil House; between Mr. Dexter Otey and try to carry out the laws of the constitution between Mr. Dexter Otey and try to carry out the laws of the constitution between Mr. Dexter Otey and try to carry out the laws of the constitution and to be entertained by the individual members was between out in the abdomen, from the mer was severely out in the abdomen, from the to the Jeff. Davis government, certain, theritative expression of an opinion. There effects of which he died in about fifteen min-utes after. Lieut: Lyne was also badly out in sure. You know me, gentlemen, and you can be but one motive in these manufactured

Before I bring this communication to a close, In 1780 the noted Porteons riots occurred that her troops behaved badly in the battle on was being done, and the whole proceedings harbor for deserters —It seems, from the fol-were in direct violation of the lang of man lowing extract from the army correspondence of > in the neighborhood of Farmville, Va., where, to the 28d Va regiment. A few days later a old Norsh State, but by far the larger proportion were from Virginia. These facts can be proven beyond a doubt. I do not make these statements at random, simply to tarnish the fair names of our sister States, but I do it to vindicate our ewn honor. I am serry that a single soul has ever deserted from the Confederate at ay; but since men will go, it is not right that they should travel for hundreds of miles pader assumed names and on North Car-olina credit. It makes our blood boil to hear serters and traitors, when, in fact, there are fully as many in other States."

We idmit with regret that there are many deserters in this State, and we fear that the party feeling in the army, gotten up by a few ficers with the sanction of the administration at Richmond, will lead to more desertions. sissippi, the President's own State, has more deserters and more men out of the service than chosen circle, and so nothing is said about Mis-In 1831, while the Reform Bill was under sissippi: Mississippi retained her conscripts to defend her own soil, and yet she was overrun, timidate, the peers known, or supposed to be and the newspapers gave us no information as hostile to the measure, assaulted the Duke of to the deeds of prowess of these retained con-

> The Philadelphia Ledger gives one day's scene at the Surgeon's office in that city, where the drafter men and substitutes are examined be-unfit for service sell themselves as substitutes, foolishly supposing themselves able to conceal their infirmities. They little know the ordeal through which they must pass. They entirely over cok the fact that a surgeon in five mindtes can overbaul them as a watchmaker overbauld's watch. There is abundant attempt at traud all around - Drafted men claim disqualification on the ground of disability, and men who want substitute money endeavor to conceal their ailment. Both call into practice the utafost skill of the surgeon making the exami-

The substitute, upon presenting himself for acceptance, is taken into a room, where he disrobes himself. The surgeon begins with his teeth, and examines his whole body down to his See. The examination is even more searching than the examination of an applicant for a policy of insurance upon his life by a life insurance company's surgeon. If the front teeth are gone, so that a man cannot bite off a Goldman Bryson, at the head of about cartridge paper, he cannot be accepted for inthe man either as a volunteer, a conscript, or a practically perfect, lie is made to pick u a grain of corn from the ground without bend is his knees; to stand upon the points of his ten, and to show that he is perfect in his anat-Brysen is a native of Cherokee county, our If he stands this test he is accepted. is then a United States soldier for three years.

The Peace Questions at Washington .- A