Saving is Wealth.

We would recommend the following trutiful saying to our young readers, which we clip to be affixed. from an exchange, as well worthy of their consideration. We have in our mind's eye several persons who accumulated handsome estates by day of May, in the year frugality, economy, close attention to business, the Independence of and not despising "the day of small things." the United States the Slow and sure wins the race, and it is about the | 98th. only way persons can succeed in this section of the country. But to the extract:

The great cause of the poverty of the poeple of the present day is a failure of our common people to appreciate small things. They do not realize how a daily addition, be it ever so small, will soon make a large pile. If the young men and young women of to-day will only begin, and begin now, to save a little from their earnings, they will wear a happy smile of com-petence when they reach middle life. CONGRESSIONAL CAUCUS .- A bill, virtually for the suppression of the South was under consideration by the Republicans in Washington, in cancus, on the night of the 12th, until midnight. It gives the President the right to suspend habeas corpus at discretion, and appoint Marshals and Supervisors at all Congressional elections. There was one section in the bill prepared by the committee relating Let your youth go on in habits of extravagance to the imposition of poll tax, making it prerequisite for voting, stricken out. A majority of those present at the caucus, were in favor of preserving the section, but yielded to those who believed it to be unconstitutional. My course here, which has been the cause of such extended notoricty recent y, is not inconsistent with the position which both my noble colleague (Col. Dula) and myself occupied before our constituents in the last campaign. The subject was then daily discussed before them. I retract nothing I said then. I have no regrets now for my action upon the Civil Rights bill in Congress, but remain steadfast and unmoveable in those principles which I believe dear to the hearts of all true North Carolinians; believing the passage of that odious measure will only degrade and lower us in the scale of human society. If the Senate fastens that law upon us. I would not be true to my constituents to affiliate longer with the party that does it-and they will sustain me in my course.
