OLD TOWN. MATTHEW STACH.

Dedication of the Monument in Commemoration of Moravian Missions among the Heathen. BETHABARA, (Old Town) June 30th, 1888. Bright and early we started for this historic old town.

Everything is quaint and ancient-looking about the exterior and interior of the old church. Built in 1788, 100 years ago, of irregular sized stone set in mortar, (as good as cement) and succeeded so as to represent a solid granite front.

The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill was passed in the Senate on the 26th ult.; a message of the President, vetoing a pension bill, aroused Mr. Edmunds, who wanted a vote on it without reference to committee, but no quorum being present the matter went over as unfinished business.

The river and harbor appropriation bill was considered in the Senate on the 27th ult., and among the amendments agreed to was one increasing the appropriation to complete the improvement of the Cape Fear river below Wilmington, from $100,000 to $245,000; the public land bill was considered in the House by sections for amendment.

On the granite shaft, as follows: On the east side: "In commemoration of the Moravian Missions among the heathen."

South side, next to the grave: "Here lies buried the first Moravian missionary to Greenland."

The stone over his grave gives his birth in Moravia, on March 4th, 1711, died in Bethabara, Dec. 21, 1787. First missionary to Greenland.

The hour or two for a "basket dinner" enlivened the grand old grove, and tempting refreshments were freely offered on every hand.

A stand had been erected and seats for the people. The church band played several sacred airs, and James T. Lineback, made a brief address explaining the object of the meeting, reciting briefly the origin of the Moravian mission work.

Dr. Rondthaler, in an enthusiastic and ringing address, alluded to this beautiful spot, made sacred by the numerous associations with the history of our church in this province, and the resting place of one of our first missionaries to the heathen.

The choir then rendered a fine anthem, after which the Doxology was sung. Rev. C. L. Rights dismissed the assembly with the benediction. Rev. C. L. Rights preached at night, and Rev. J. H. Clewell on Sunday last.

The official canvass of the Congressional election in Oregon gives Hermann, Republican, a plurality of 7,470. A joint resolution was passed in Congress on the 29th extending appropriations for the present fiscal year for thirty days from the 30th of June, in departments for which appropriations bills for the next year shall not have become laws.

bill. The House elections Committee, by a strict party vote, decided the contested election case from South Carolina in favor of Elliott, the sitting member.

OUR STATE UNIVERSITY.

An Explanation of the Recent Reduction of the Number of Professors and of the Course Now Offered. The Legislature of 1885 passed an act providing for the establishment of an Agricultural and Mechanical College, and transferred to that college seventy-five hundred dollars of income then used for Agricultural and Mechanical instruction at the University.

The Legislature of 1885 passed an act providing for the establishment of an Agricultural and Mechanical College, and transferred to that college seventy-five hundred dollars of income then used for Agricultural and Mechanical instruction at the University.

It had been demonstrated by experience that there was little demand among our people for instruction in certain departments of the University, notwithstanding their importance, and the efficiency and zeal manifested by the professors in charge; and it was evidently the desire of the Legislature that certain other special studies be taught at the Agricultural and Mechanical College instead of at the University.

Although the Chair of Pedagogics has been abolished, yet a course of study extending through two years has been arranged for the special benefit of students preparing to teach; and a special course of three months is offered each spring to teachers who desire to extend their education.

Full particulars concerning these shorter special courses, as well as the regular four year courses, may be had by addressing the President or the Bursar of the University, at Chapel Hill. A. M. SCALDS, Chm. Ex. Officio Board Trustees. W. L. SAUNDERS, Sec. of State. Raleigh, N. C., June 19th, 1888.

—The latest catalogue of BINGHAM SCHOOL is received. We note that the 219 pupils in attendance represent 14 States of the Union, while two are sons of ARMY OFFICERS, and two are from ENGLAND. A circular giving the impression made by the School on Lieut. Batchelor and Capt. Wright, both detailed from U. S. Army, is also received. It is well worth the attention of parents. We note that the Superintendent has abandoned attending the State Fair even, as being more hurtful than helpful.

SUMMARY OF THE WEEK.

MAX TRAMER is now a Yale Master of Arts. WALTER BRANT is troubled with writer's cramp. It will take ten years to complete Victor Hugo's posthumous publications.

Several of the General's staff followed in carriages, while others rode ahead to see that everything was ready for the General's arrival. Mrs. Sheridan was the last to leave the house, and she drove to the Navy Yard in company with two Sisters of Charity.

Our Motto:—The best bottom values for the money down. ANOTHER COMMON SENSE TALK TO THE WORKING MEN OF OUR COUNTRY.

KIND READER:—In these days of "trusts" and "combinations" among capitalists, manufacturers and merchants to wring from the working-men of our land unjust and extortionate profits on their productions, it is high time you were looking around for some means of protection, and we will with pleasure the coming of labor clubs, farmers' alliances, &c., and the determination of so many to throw off the yoke of bondage, known as the credit system.

We want to congratulate the hundreds of farmers throughout the Piedmont section of our good old State, who have seen the dangers lurking in the credit system, and gone to work to rid themselves and neighbors of the abomination. This accursed system has long had a strong hold on our people, and it may seem hard to break its grip, but if you persevere you will not fail to win, and then you will be a happy, prosperous and free man, free to buy your goods where you please and of whom you please.

But we have Douglas' $3.00 Shoes and you can buy them at an honest profit. Now, we want to ask the working-men of this country what they think of this? Some one had reported us because we dared to sell for an honest profit. Some merchant and the manufacturer has agreed to try and run out all who are willing to sell for an honest profit, and have clear sailing to rake in your dollars. What do you think of it? A merchant in your own State and a Northern manufacturer combining to make you pay an unjust profit for an article! Is it not time to wake up and stand for your rights and those who help you?
