INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 3.—Two gangs of counterfeiters were surrounded near Palon yesterday, by United States officers. Several months ago some spurious silver dollars were put on the market in the vicinity, and treasury agent Carter, after considerable investigation, traced the staff to Orange county. A trusted man was sent to the locality, by ingratiation himself into the confidence of the men and gradually accumulated evidence against the unscrupulous violators, with yesterday's result. There are fifteen men in all engaged in the making of counterfeit money.

THE GREAT STORM.

Along the Atlantic Coast Strikes Mexico, Mexico.

Doing an Untold Amount of Damage.

The Loss of Life Cannot Be Ascertained at Present—Twelve Foreign Barks, Two Steamships, Twenty Schooners and Many Other Smaller Craft Wrecked in Carmen Harbor.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 5.—The destructive cyclone that caused the great loss to shipping along the Atlantic seaboard switched into the Gulf and lashed the coast of Campechy as it was never lashed before. The reports of the great storm are coming in from the resulting wrecked centers, owing to the fact that telegraph lines connecting with the peninsula have been crushed and the news was brought to Vera Cruz by a sailing vessel.

In what damage it has done outside of Yala Del Carmen is not known, but it has been as destructive as it was then, there can be but little shipping left in some of the ports of the city of Carmen that it pulled trees up by their roots and deposited them upon houses, which they crushed like eggs.

The houses were scattered about, and masses of all kinds were flying through the streets, knocking in windows, destroying vegetation and keeping the people from seeking safety in the open air.

The scene among the sailors in endeavoring to save their vessel was heart-breaking. Vessel after vessel was driven ashore. An inventory of the craft that are complete wrecks gives the exact idea of the destruction of the storm. Twelve foreign barks, some of them high and dry on the beach, others partially submerged, and still others being towed to the harbor.

The number of lives lost still remains untold. It is expected that the government report of the great storm will soon be published, furnishing the only authentic news which will ever be obtainable of the work of the hurricane.

SOMETHING OF A SENSATION.

A Very Important Turn of Affairs in Tennessee.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 5.—The sensation in Tennessee at present is the fate of the election and registration committee of the last legislature. Chattanooga's municipal election occurs Tuesday next, and the Republicans have succeeded in obtaining an injunction from Chancellor Gibson, of Knoxville, restraining the commissioner from holding the election under the new laws which are in effect in the Australian method of voting.

The claim is that it conflicts with the fourteenth amendment and prescribes an educational qualification. A petition for injunction was also presented to United States District Judge Key. Chancellor DeWitt, of district, Democrat, has modified the injunction so that the commissioners can proceed to erect election booths, arrange for tickets, etc., under the new laws, and tomorrow at 10 a. m. United States Circuit Judge Jackson, United States District Judge Key and Chancellor DeWitt will sit together to hear arguments on the injunctions. It affects the entire registration of the constitutionality of the Australian method of voting.

DRUNK AND DEAD BROKE.

John L. Sullivan in a High State of Hilarity and Penitence.

BORNO, Oct. 5.—John L. Sullivan, candidate for congress and manager of John L. Sullivan, the pugilist, is here in a high state of hilarity and bankruptcy. At midnight he made his appearance in the gaming house of an ally, drunken state. His hair hung down on his brow and his eyes had that glare which has whipped many of his opponents in the ring before they were on their hands up. He was drunk and penitence. He didn't have money enough to buy a drink or pay his street car fare home.

Sullivan's business in Boston is to secure money to carry on his sparring. He has borrowed $25,000 in expenses to the first stand. As his receipts were not heavy he sent for $3,000 in the possession of Annie Livingston. Annie had the money and was asked to give up the money. Then Sullivan came on to get it, but he couldn't find Annie and there the matter stands.

MILES OF FLAMES.

Destructive Forest Fires Raging in North Dakota.

BREMER, N. Dak., Oct. 5.—Destructive forest fires have been raging in McLean county, fifty miles north of here, during Sunday and Monday. The flames were driven by a wind with a speed of sixty miles an hour. Houses, barns, granaries and all their contents have been destroyed, and the Washburn had a narrow escape, the flames reaching within its limits.

The citizens turned out en masse, women and children fighting with desperation and heroism. The flames extended for miles on either side of the town, and the prairie as far as the eye can reach is black and desolate. The farmers lost all they had, but there will be no suffering as the people of the valley will give them all necessary assistance.

Grand Stand Blown Down.

PATERSON, N. J., Oct. 5.—A high wind Tuesday afternoon blew down the grand stand on the fair ground of the Northern New Jersey Fair association. The structure had been completed and was being put in readiness for the formal opening of the grounds on Oct. 12. The loss is estimated at $3,000.

Murder Instead of a Marriage.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—A dispatch from Jamboree, Parko county, Ky., says: The old Hatfield-McCoy feud has broken out again, and at least three more lives have been sacrificed in the bloody vendetta which has now lasted over seven years. The shooting occurred at a marriage at the farm house of Pete McCoy. His daughter was to become the wife of John Hand, a relative of the Hatfield gang, and members of both factions had sworn to prevent the union. Hand had never been connected with the disputes of the factions, and refused to recognize the leaders.

Tuesday night the bridal party assembled in the McCoy house, and stood before the minister, a volley was poured through the window, which killed both of them and fatally wounded the clergyman. Reports say that the farmers and mountaineers of the locality are hunting for the murderers, but no trace of them has been found.

THE NEW STATES, KNEW NO BETTER.

Elections Held in All Four of Them.

The Result So Far as the Returns Are In.

Three of Them, Washington, North and South Dakota, Republican, While Montana is in Doubt—The Constitution Adopted in All Four—Latest Returns.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 4.—Elections in the four new states Tuesday have not yet passed out their certain results. In Aberdeen, S. Dak., the school children marched in procession to aid the prohibition vote.

In South Dakota A. C. Melette, for governor, and O. S. Gifford and J. C. Pickler, for congress, have the majority. In North Dakota John Miller, for governor, and H. C. Hansbrough, for congress, take the lead. They are Republicans. Republicans claim the legislatures in these two states.

Democrats in Montana rejoice over the prospect of securing the governor, their candidate for governor, and a majority of the rest of the tickets.

Storms delayed the return from Washington. Ferry and the entire Republican state ticket are thought to be defeated. The prohibition party is thought to have a heavy vote in South Dakota. In Washington the woman suffrage and prohibition plank are said to be defeated.

The Democratic reports sixty-seven members of the legislature favorable to Gilbert A. Pierce for United States senator. Other reports give a majority of this number to seventy-one. Eleven county precincts and the city of Bismarck give 44 majority against prohibition.

RETURNS FROM MONTANA.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—A Times special from Helena, Mont., says: The Democratic party has carried Montana by a majority of not less than 2,000. This is conceded by the Republican party. The Republican state committee, Russell Harrison and other radical Reps. who wish to see the state go to the Democrats, are not so sure. They are holding a caucus to see if they can get a majority of the vote.

The Journal, Republican, claims the vote for Carter, and says Power will not run 600 behind. It says the legislature cannot be organized by the Democrats. The Democratic managers claim the entire state ticket and a majority in the legislature.

The Independent Democrat says the count is for Lodge and Silver Bow, in which the towns Anaconda and Butte are situated and which gave last year a majority to the Democrats. The Democratic managers claim the entire state ticket and a majority in the legislature.

A Special from Fargo.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 4.—The Journal, Republican, says: Returns at the Republican state central committee headquarters give Miller's majority over Rosch 3,172. Miller runs behind his ticket 3,000, the average majority being 7,000. Hansbrough for congress will have 8,000.

Chairman Geary says to total vote will not be over 10,000 less than in 1888. This is partly due to the fact that threshing crews did not vote, weather being fine.

Food and Penitence.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 4.—Much excitement exists here over the judicial aspects of affairs in the city election to take place next week. The Democratic legislature provided a modification of the Australian method of voting in the counties, among them this Hamilton. The act is known as the "Dorish law," and its effect is practically to disfranchise the colored people of the city. The act applies to the cities of Memphis, Nashville, Knoxville and Chattanooga. It is stringent in its provisions, and only a man having a certain amount of property can vote. The act is being challenged by the Republicans, and an injunction against the holding of an election under these laws is being sought by the Republicans. It was granted by Chancellor Henry Gibson, at Knoxville, and will be heard by Judges Key and Jackson in the United States district court at Chattanooga. Much interest is shown in the case.

Additional Frauds in Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 2.—The statement now made upon what appeared to be good authority, that irregularities have been discovered in what is known as the "baby" bonds, commencing at No. 10,000, with such slight irregularities previous to that number. Nearly all of the "baby" bonds above No. 10,000 are fraudulent. The state auditor and treasurer will now take up this branch of the investigation. Attorney General Rogers admits that "baby" bonds have been abstracted or otherwise tampered with to the amount of $400,000. According to Judge Rogers' figures the defalcation already in sight will reach more than $1,200,000.

Greensboro School Houses.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Oct. 1.—The public schools in Johnstown and Millville are being repaired. The two buildings that have been used as morgues have been cleaned up and put in repair for use. The digging around in the debris Sunday were the workmen left off Saturday evening, some strangers came across the remains of a young girl which had almost been recovered, but not noticed when the workmen laid down their tools.

Erie's Schooling Place.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—A movement is on foot to place the body of the late John Erickson in a vault in Trinity church in this city, in close proximity to that of Robert Fulton, inventor of the steamboat. The scheme also contemplates the erection of an obelisk joint memorial to honor the memories of the two great inventors.

The Baltimore Not a Wonder.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—A special to The Herald from Baltimore, says it is discovered by naval engineers that the ship Baltimore has a horse power of about 9,000 instead of 10,000, as reported at first, and that the ship is not the wonder which it was first reported to be.

It is just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle, it helped her, she bought a large bottle, it helped her more, bought another and grew better, fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. FIRE-SWEEP.

Half of the Business Portion of Grand Haven, Michigan, Destroyed.

MUSKOGEE, Mich., Oct. 3.—A report has reached here that the fire town of Grand Haven was consumed by fire Tuesday morning. The report says that a fire started in the center of the business portion of the city, and before it could be extinguished it had swept through half the city. A fierce wind was blowing from the lake, and the flames got beyond the control of the firemen shortly after the loss of Grand Haven was consumed by fire. The fire department was destroyed, and it is impossible to get full particulars. The damage cannot be estimated, but as several large establishments were agricultural implements are manufactured, and one large factory, containing a big stock of woodenware, were destroyed, the loss is probably very heavy.

A $125,000 Fire.

SAN LOUIS OANSAS, Mo., Oct. 3.—The business portion of the village of Cambria, this county, was burned Monday, and at one time it looked as if the entire place would be wiped out. Among the buildings destroyed were the post office and telegraph and express offices. The loss is estimated at $125,000; insurance trifling.

BARRING NEGROES FROM OFFICE.

A Mississippi State Senator's Scheme to Prevent Race Troubles.

COFFEEVILLE, Miss., Oct. 4.—State Senator Joel P. Walker, of Meridian, thinks that he has found a remedy by which all friction between the blacks and whites will be removed. He contends that all the evils and dissensions arising between the races emanate entirely from politics, and the demand of the negro to have the state offices divided, and the removal of the colored man from office should have all place wherein the whites are interested.

He reasons that if you take away from the negro all hopes of gaining political power it will dampen his ardor and seal to go to the ballot box, and by his remaining away the state remains peaceful. Mr. Walker will, therefore, in all probability, introduce in the state senate, in January next, a bill prohibiting any negro or any man with negro blood from holding a political state office. He says, and other eminent lawyers affirm his statement that such an act will not conflict with the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the United States constitution. So far the proposed plan has not met with popular favor, and the bill, if introduced, will not likely become a law.

PERPETUAL MOTION.

A Minneapolis Engineer Claims to Have Invented a Last.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 2.—Richard Pillsbury, night engineer at one of the Pillsbury mills in Minneapolis, has a very precious machine looked up in his house, which he guards jealously. This piece of mechanism is the "Robillard" says, a solution of the problem of perpetual motion. At 3 o'clock Monday afternoon the machine had been running for seven weeks. It requires no fuel, and a little oil is all that is needed to keep it in shape. "The machine I have running now," said the inventor today, "is a flywheel, six inches in diameter. It will run two revolutions in the air. I shall have completed by the end of October a machine with a twenty-four inch wheel which will weigh a weight of 2,800 pounds. The machine requires a governor to regulate the speed, and can, of course, be stopped and started at will. Mr. Pillsbury is taking steps to have his machine patented. He thinks he has made the discovery of the century.

A PECULIAR CEREMONY.

The Divorcing of a Louisville Jewess from Her Dead Husband.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 3.—The rare ceremony of divorcing a woman from her dead husband, according to the old requirements of the Mosiac law, took place at the B'Nai Jakob synagogue in this city Sunday. The woman was Mrs. J. Levin, whose husband, a peddler, was killed on the 7th of last June by two tramps. She had no children, and the old law of the orthodox Jews is that in such a case the deceased husband's brother is to marry the woman and raise up children in the name of the deceased. Mrs. Levin, however, did not desire to marry Israel Levin, her husband's brother, nor did she wish to perform the ceremony, they were brought here from Chicago. The divorce took place in the synagogue in the presence of a rabbi, who officiated as a witness. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi William, a veteran of the two wars, made one of his stirring speeches. The old soldiers were present in command of Capt. W. P. Conner, and after a short parade, they gathered around tables in the court house yard and partook of an excellent dinner which had been prepared by the hospitable citizens of Louisville.

Douglas Sails for Hayti.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Mr. Frederick Douglas took up his quarters Monday evening on board the United States man-of-war Kearsarge, which is to convey him to his post of duty as American minister to Hayti. Some comment was made on the fact that Commander Whiting was not on board his vessel to receive Mr. Douglas. The Kearsarge sailed Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock. Mr. Douglas said he desired to state that he had the assurance before he left Washington that there was no objection to his color on the part of any of the officers of the Caspique.
