From Sartin's Magazine.

Our Baby.

BY FRIGER CARRY.

When the morning, half in shadow,
Ran along the hill and meadow,
And with milk-white fingers parted
Crimson roses, golden hearted;
Opening over ruins hoary
Every purple morning-glory,
And outshaking from the bushes
Singing larks and pleasant thrushes;
That's the time our little baby, Strayed from Paradise, it may be,
Came with eyes like heaven above her,
O, we could not choose but love her!

Not enough of earth for sinning, Always gentle, always winning,
Never needing our reproving, Ever lively, ever loving;
Starry eyes and sunset tresses,
White arms, made for light caresses, Lips, that knew no word of doubting,
Often kissing, never pouting;
Beauty even in completeness,
Overflow of childish sweetness;
That's the way our little babe, Far too pure for earth, it may be,
Seemed to us, who while about her Deemed we could not do without her.

When the morning, half in shadow,
Ran along the hill and meadow,
And with milk-white fingers parted
Crimson roses, golden-hearted;
Opening over ruins hoary
Every purple morning glory,
And outshaking from the bushes
Singing larks and pleasant thrushes,
That's the time our little baby, Pining here for heaven, it may be,
Turning from our bitter weeping,
Closed her eyes as when in sleeping,
And her white hands on her bosom Folded like a summer blossom.

Now the litter she doth lie on,
Strewed with roses, bear to Zion;
Go, as past a pleasant meadow
Through the valley of the shadow;
Take her softly, holy angels,
Past the ranks of God's evangelists; Past the saints and martyrs holy
To the Earth-Born, meek and lowly,
We would have our precious blossom Softly laid in Jesus' bosom.

Mark It.

The following humorous account of the state of the markets in the "diggins" in California, is taken from a Marysville paper:

"Hams have gone behind a quarter, probably from the fact that they were taken from the hind quarter.

Molasses—Several traders have been 'stuck' with this article.

Boots have advanced fully two feet, and are freely
'pegged off' at this rate. As we are now at the 'heel' of the dull season, our merchants will have to 'toe the mark' before shortly.

Clothing—We coat pants as a good investment.
Hides, Horns and Tallow—The holders of hides are almost ready to jump out of their skins. Horns are freely taken—at the saloons. Tallow has gone to Greece in large quantities.

Powder—We have to notice a fair report of the going off of this article, at good rates. Dover's is preferred; Shot is plenty, principally 'in the neck.'

Potatoes—The arrival of a large number of emigrants from the 'first gem of the sea' has caused a decided advance. In fact, not to be mealy-mouthed, it appears to our 'eyes' that there must soon be a great scarcity, unless the duty on foreign potatoes be repealed.

Beets—Scarcely any in the market, save those of the watchmen on their 'lonely round.' We cannot account for this without going to the root, and for that we haven't time.

Fish—Prices are rather 'salty.' Salmon is going up —feather river. Mackerel (well broiled) is getting 'down in the mouth.' Sardines are in good supply, but cannot be had without the tin; Oysters can.

Cheese (particularly old cheese) is lively.

A GOOD SHOT.—A bear, for some time past carrying on an improper intimacy with the young hogs belonging to the settlers in the Queen's Bush, closed his career last week in rather a singular manner.— From a litter of nine in an industrious man's hog-sty, the bear had at times abstracted four, and one night on repeating his visit, the hogs screamed so furiously at the abstraction of one of their brethren, that the settler became alarmed, and loading his gun in all trepidation, hastened out to the sty, and seeing the grizzly monster a few paces from him, with the porker in his mouth, he let fly with the musket, and the recoil was so violent that it threw him several feet backward, with his head under the fence. Believing that the blow had been dealt by the bear, and that the monster was upon him, he roared out hideously, and was of course immediately joined by his wife, who disabused him of the idea that anything else but herself was by him. He then got up, and found his monster antagonist pierced through the neck to the hog-sty by the ramrod of the gun, he having forgotten in his hurry to abstract it from the weapon, and thus the recoil became so great as to upset him. The bear died immediately, and his carcase amply repaid for the loss of the pigs.
