THIS EXTENSIVE AND WELL-KNOWN PUB-HIS EXTENSIVE AND WEstern was re-opened in Establishment has been purchased and was re-opened by the subscriber for the reception of guests on the 4th inst.
It is pleasantly and conveniently situated in the centre of business, and is directly opposite to, and WEST of the Ticket Offices of the Wilmington and Weldon and the Central Railroad Companies, where the cars stop on their arrival and departure, and where FAITHFUL SERVANTS WILL BE N WAITING to take baggage, and give such other attentions as the traveller may require.

THE HOUSE has been remodelled, repaired, and thereughly renovated from cellar to garret, and turnished thro out with new furniture, selected with special care, and arranged with an eye single to the comforts of the casual guest or permanent boarder.

THE TABLE

Will be righly furnished with the substantials, the dainties and delicacies of the seasons, foreign as well as domestic markets will be rendered tributary to the constant supply, which will be served up in the best style by orderly, obliging and well-trained servants. THE BAR

Will be a storehouse of the best Wines and Liquors, and superintended by a gentleman of courtesy and integrity, thoroughly acquainted with his business—comprising the knowledge of what is due to the rights and comforts of the public, as well as to himself and his employer.

THE STABLES,

Which are among the best in the State, have been placed in the keeping of a skillful and careful manager, who will always have under his care the best and most experienced ost-lers, and it will be among the chief cares of the proprietor to see that horses of his guests be well fed and thoroughy

This entire establishment has been purchased and fitted up at an enormous expense, and it will be the pleasure, as, of course, it will be the interest, of the subscriber to render the House in every respect equal to any in the country. He therefore trusts that a generous public will renew and con-tinue the liberal patronage heretofore extended to this House while under the care of its former proprietress, Mrs. Borden, who gained for it a celebrity throughout the entire Union.

Organic Weakness
immediately cured, and full vigor restored.

This disease is the penalty most frequently paid by those who have become the victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may cause. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to dany that the power of Procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prodent. Besides being deprived the pleasaure of healthy offspring, the most scroons and destructive symptoms to both bedy and minutarise. Nervous Debility.

Weakness of the system, Nervous Debility and premature decay generally arise from the Destructive habit of youth, that solitary practice so fatal to the heathful existence of man, and it is the young who are most apt to become its Victims from an ignorance of the dangers to which they subject themselves. Parents and Guardians are often misled with respect to the cause or source of disease in their sons and wards. Alasi how often de they sacribe to other causes, the westing of the frame, Pulpitation of the Heart, Dispension, indigestion, derangement of the Nervous System, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption, also, those serious Mental effects, such as loss of memory, depression of spirits or peculiar fits of Melancholy, when the truth is they have been caused by indulging in Pernicians but alloring practices, destructive to both Eady sod Mind. DR. JOHNSTON.

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the first Hospital of London, Paris, Friladelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known, many troubled with ringing infile head and ears when asleep, are afterweatsness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and the shelmess, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, word cured immediately.

A Certain Disease.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too eften happens that an ill timed sease of change, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those with from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the consiliutional symptoms of this herrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcorated aure throat, diseased ness, nocturnal pains in the head and Hubbs, dimness of sight, deafness, modes on the shin bones, and arram, blotches on the lead, face, and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fail in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a herrid object of commisseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings by sending them to "that bourne from whence no traveler returns." To such therefore Dr. Johnston pledges himself to preserve the most inviduable secrecy, and if from his extensive practice in the first bospitals in Europe and to the upfortunate victim of this horrid disease.

It is a melancholy fact, that thousands fail victims to this

I from his extensive practice in the first bospitals in Europe and America, he can confidently recommend a mis and speady cure to the unfortunate victim of this horrid disease.

It is a melanchely fact, that thousands fall victims to this dreadful disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant protenders, who, by the use of that dreadful polson, mercury, rain the constitution, and either send the unfortunate sufferer to an attimely grave, or else make the residue of his life miscrable.

Take Particular Notice.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by private and unproper indulgencies.

Young Men.

Who have injured themselves by a Certain Practice indulged in when alone—a bahit frequently learned from evil companions, er at school—the effects of which are nightly felt, even when askep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, and the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons before entemplating abould reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connutrial bappiness. Indeed, without these, the purposy thre, at its becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melanchely reflection, that the happiness of another becomes bilgited with our own.
