Member of the Rayal Cullege of Surgeous, Lendon, Oradants from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the first Hoptition of London, Parts, Philadelphia, and classwhere, has educade some of the unest eminent grows that were ever known, many troubled with ringing inpub feed and care when asked, you still frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

When the misguided and imprudent vosary of sicasure finishe has timbited the seeds of this positiful disease, it is coftuin hispens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or droas of diseavery, do ters him from applying to those with from education and respectability, can alone hofriand him, delaying till the occalitations and expectability, can alone hofriand him, delaying till the occalitations are suprotoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as distributed some throat, diseased nees, noticeral Dants to the head and limbs, dimness of sight, desfauss, nodes on the shin hames, and arms, a hashies on as the head, face, and surroundes, progressing with frequent place of the annual parts of the bones of the case fail in, and the victim of this world disease, in a continued to the horrid disease of the shin hames, and arms, habelies on the hard from the victim of this world disease.

It is a melancholy fact, that the unfortunate suffere Dr. Johnson the disease, the case of the same half in, and the victim of this world disease.

It is a melancholy fact, that thousands fail victime to the constitution, and either sond the unfortunate sufferer to an a timely grave, or else make the readed of his life miserable.

These are none of the sast and melancho

Who, have injured themselves by a Cartain Practice indoired in when alone—a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school—the effects of which are nightly felt, even when seleep, and if not cured, renders marriage temposcible, and distreys both mind and body, should apply immediately. What a pity that a yeang man, the hope of his country, and the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all praspects and enjoyments of Hic, by the consequences of deviating from the part of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such paraons before contemplants should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to Promote counsbist happiness. Indeed, without these, the Journey through life becomes a weary pillythough the prospect heavily darkens to the view; the mind becomes shedowed with deepair and filled with the melanchoty reflection, the side happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

Sarriage,
