Who have injured themselves by a Certain Practice Indulged in when alone—a habis frequently hearned from evil companious, or at school—the effects of which are nightly felt, even when a leep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply mune tately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, and the during of his porents, should be anatched from all prospects and empoyments of life, by the consequences of deviating from the parts of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons before contemplating.

Arriage, whould reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote containly happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pigrinasse the prospect ourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and fitted with the melancholy reflection, that the tappiness of another becomes blighted with our own OFFICE O. 7 South FREDERICK S. Haltimore, Md.
