A Certain Disease.

When the misguided and imprudent voiary of pleasure finds be has imbited the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of sharms, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as alcorated are throat, diseased nose, noctarnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shift bones, and arms, blotches on the head, face, and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the most full in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration, till death will descent and arms, backers the same that are accounted to the mouth or the bones of the same fall in, and the victim of this awfol discuss becomes a horrid object of commisseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful antierings by sending them to "that bourne from whence no traveler returns." To such therefore Dr. Johnston pledges hienself to preserve the most inviolable secrecy, and from his extensive practice in the first hospitals in Europe and America, he can confidently recommend a safe and speedy ourse to the unfortunate victim of this horrid disease.

It is a melancholy fact, that thousands full victims to this dreafful disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that dreadful poison, sourcury, rais the constitution, and either send the unfortunate sufferer to an a timely grave, or close make the residue of his life miserable.

Dr. J addresses all those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgencies.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by sarly habits of youth, via: Weekness of the lists and Limba, Pain in the fleed, Dimesses of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Paipitation of the Digestive Functions, General Debiffity, symptoms of Consumption, $c.

Marrater—The fearful offects upon the mind are much to be dreaded, Loss of Memory, Confusion of Seciety, Self Distrust, Love of Solinder, Timidity, Se., are some of the vitis produced. Thousands of persons of all ages, can now judge what is the cause of their declining health. Losing their vitor, beautiful week, pale and canacitated, have a singuing appearance about the cyce, cough and symptoms of consumption.

Dr. Johnston's Invigorating Remedy for Urganic Week, pale and enracitated, have a singuing appearance about the cyce, cough and symptoms of consumption.
