"There's something in a flying car.
There's something in a huge balloon;"
and if the Poet Woodworth had given to his sick horse or cow a certain popular remedy, he would undoubtedly have added in conclusion—
There's something in a dose of powders.

Every dose of these powders speak for itself. It cures all the diseases of horses and cows, and its effects are daily perceptible. If you have a sick horse or cow—haggard, broken down and worm out with diseases—administer the powders, and watch the result. It is, without any equivo-cation, the greatest horse and cattle medicine in the world. Found at WILSON'S Harness, Trunk, Saddle, Leather and Oil establishment, No. 5, Market street
