Care to the Continues Line. From our Bellishie gooden't - 00,000 Best rais Roving — They show Constantly and steem Benred!

For month, land 13. Sendoun—A gamilento has just are of lives, on trait, from 6t. Louis, a town in Missours, give on reliable intelligence:

Continuely Fools, with a Federal fleet, is within several the or more of Fort Hoggins, and has tel graphed Gendlisch his intelligence to build a farm across the Tackersee His article only.

The above branch are as good as Liverpool Graphs of the control of the c allock his him line to build a farm across the Tennessee of the most interner dam! he news of this reply created the most intense fee ing. It is feared that feeds, unless he toes the mark, will see to be towed out of reach of the pans of Fort huggins. However, Foote's fleet being first footed, it was uped he will show the enemy clean heels.

Gen. Bally, in charge of the land forces, has had two feer shot for playing "Jordanis a bard road to travel."

Ten s'ctock, p. m.—The advance of General Rully's forces has been checked, owing in a slightenl difference of opinion between himself and his washerwoman, in regard to Bally's other shirt.

In consequence of this unfortunate effair, theneral Bully will have to hall his forces and "lay up" till he has the shirt he has on washed.

In military circles about St. Louis it is thought there will be tarrine fighting some where very shortly, it not earlier if the opposing carries get near each other, and get mad, and have gons; though there are those here who affact to think that there will be no powder burnt, unless the men fire off their pieces.

STILL LATER. Midnight-Another man has just got down on another at. I hasten to trausmit you his statements. They are reliable.

Gan. Bully is C. K. That shirt is washed.

The forces under his command are again on the march, but are moving cautionally. They are evidently scared.

I have reliable intelligence from Columbus

The city is a good way from St. Louis, and is reported to be in the hands of the Confederates.

They will keep it if possible, and if they can't they will sail out to some man who can.

There is, however, some grounds for the britist that hard feelings have a rung up between the Confederate troops, there and the Federals who are stationed on the heights of Cairo.

Efforts will be made to prevent their couldne toe close tother, as it is feared that, in such an event, somebody ould be injured.

LATERY.

A Little After Midnight—The plan of the Western campaign has been changed. Gen. Bully, knowing that that shirt can't last always, and hearing that Moody selia six shirts for nine dollars, is striking for New Orients. New Orients is bound to be the place.

There are reports also current—so my informant asserts—that the Confederates have invited the Feds to a game of iso-plus on Bowling Green. This you may rely up n.

A crisis is looked for every hour. It will probably come by McKeever's South-Western Express. It is is in the marked "collect on delivery," I shall certainly forward it to you.

You may look out for a big thing every other minute.

From the New York Herald, 30th u't. The Situation.

The London Herald, the organ of Lord Derby and the Aristocrats, says that the rebel agents in Landon have effered on behalf of the Confederates, the bears of a treaty of commerce to England. This journal boldforth the most liberal inducements for the recognition of the Jeff. Davis Government by Parliament and the Queen. Great Britain is to enjoy a perfect free trade with the revolted States, an equalization of her flag with that of the South, a freedom of traffic on the coast, and the chance of supplying all the manufactured goods required for the use of the working millions in the second territory. On these grounds the Derbyites advocate the immediate recognition of such excellent custom as,

The London papers assert that the Emperor Napo-leon approved of England's policy all through the Trent affair, without qualification, but it is easy to see, from the articles in the Paris journals that the French people at large do not entertain such a high opinion of her henor and international good faith. Indeed the Opinione Nationale-the organ of Prince Napoleon-says that she will make war on the United States whether Mason and Slidell were given up or not, and the writer warns France against abetting her des gus against the

The news of the surrender of Mason and Slidell was anounced from the stage in the Drury Lane and Olympie Theatres, London, to delighted crowds.

It appears that Lord Palmerston concealed from the people of England all knowledge of Mr. Saward's des-patch to Mr. Adams, in which the act of Captain Wilkes was described as one undertaken without the order or cognizance of the Government, although it was read to Cabinet by our Minister in the third week of De cember. It is now mid that if this fact had been made public, the war excitement against America would never have made so much progress.

The Mexican Minister of Foreign affairs has address sed a letter to the Mexican Consul in London on the subject of the foreign invasion of the Republic. He says that Spain precipitated a war on his country at a ment when the Government could within a year have paid off her debts to the European Powers, secured in ternal peace, and consolidated her power by the extine tion of faction.

The design of the writer is to interest England, even yet, in behalf of Mexico and against the policy of Spain Arrangements have been completed by enterprising parties with large resources at Liverpool for the establish ment of two lines of first class steamers, one to Charles ton and the other to New Orleans. A third line to Norfolk (the terminus of the Scaboard & Roanske Railway, by which cotton from North Carolina and Tennessee can be laid down there as cheaply as at New Orleans) is also in contemplation.

In the event of the Confederate commissioners being surrendered and war on that ground averted, it is clear that upon commercial grounds the governments of England and France have every inducement to recognise the well earned independence of the Conferute States The precedents of the Swiss Cantons, the Seven United Provinces of the Netherlands, of the revolted Spanish American colonies, of Greece, of Belgium, of Texas, and of the kingdom of Italy justify and command this step. which if not manfully taken by Ministers at once is certain to be taken by Parliament on its reassembling. The London Herald, of January 9th, has the follow

Already houses in London and Liverpool, convinced that the subjugation of the Southern States is imprac-ticable, are making their preparations for the establish ment of branch houses in New Orleans, Charleston and Norfolk the moment trade with these places shall be of all other papers in the Confederacy.

We submit the following extracts from what others have to say of os:

D. T. Bisbie, who has lately returned from Europe, with important dispatches to the Confederate State Government, says in a recent letter:

"While in London and Paris, I saw several quotations from the Norfolk Day Book, and since my return I have also noticed extracts from the same sprightly journal in the newspapers of New York, Charleston, and other cities."

The Suffolk (Va.) Christian Sun says:

"The Norfolk Day Book, which is so fast gaining popularity throughout the Southern Confederacy, coses to us greatly subarged and improved, and gives us Northern and Poreign News in advance of any of our other exchanges, and is, therefore, perused with avidity."

The Wilmington (N. C.) Daily Journal says:

"The Norfolk Day Book has become the most valuable exchange paper we receive, as it contains the very latest news from the Rump Government as well as Foreign News."

The Fredericksburg (Va.) Herald says:

"The Norfolk Day Book contains the latest news from the North, and its editorials are always of an interesting character."
