THE SEVERAL BATTLES AND OTHER ENGAGEMENTS IN THE YEAR 1861.

The following table exhibits an approximation to the losses of both parties by the several engagements during the year. The Confederate losses are compiled from the official reports of the commanding officers, (when such reports were published.) Of course, we can only guess at the losses of the enemy. The Northern papers seldom publish the official reports of the Federal Generals, and the latter have generally proved themselves such monstrous faisifiers that but little confidence can be placed in their re-ports when they are published. For instance, Picayne Butler stated his loss at Bethel at about thirty, when it is a notorious fact that one small squad, of Magruder's men alose buried thirty-two Federal bodies after the battle.— In estimating the Federal losses, we have adopted the opinions of the Confederate officers commanding, who are gentle men, and upon whose statements reliance may be placed. The following table exhibits an approximation to th
