The Cartel.

We observe that some of our contemporaries are urging very grave objections to the exchange of prisoners at this moment, and we cannot but think that they willhave their influence upon the Government. The se oo drei Pope, for instance, is doing all he can to incite his cut-throats to pillage and murder. He says he will not cut-inroats to pillage and murder. He says he will not place any guard over any private property. At the same time, he threatens to execute any person who may kill one of his soldiers, whether in defence of his property or not. It the actual perpetrator of the deed cannot be taken, any private citizen whom he may have in his power will be put to death in his place. For this purpose he directs the seture of all the inhabitants of the district he invades. These orders, it will be observed, were not issued until the Yankees became certain a general exchange -was to take place, and that he the general exchange was to take place, and that, by the terms of the cartel, all prisoners of war on both sides were hereafter to be paroled as soon as captured. We thus leave curselves entirely without the means of retaliating for any murder that may take place. None but soldiers are considered prisoners of war, and we have no means of taking any of their private citizens; while they are in our country, and can at any time cap-ture as many of ours as they please. The Government seems to have entirely abandoned the protection of its

17 . That Pope and his inferiors will carry out his threats to the letter, unless deterred by the fear of retaliation; cannot be doubted. Most assuredly his orders are clearly against the spirit of the cartel whatever may be the letter. Our Government never could have meant to leave our citizens so entirely unprotected—so entirely at the mercy of the brigands who have been sent here to cut their throats. If the consequences are to be such, we trust that this cartel will not be observed, and it will be no violation of faith not to observe it. Pope's orders and Lincoln's directions are directly opposed to its spirit, and have already rendered it of no avail to us. The contrivance of the Yankees for preventing a free people from defending their soil is one of the most devil-ish of all their inventions. But it will not avail. hey may murder our defenceless citizens, but they will not prevent those who survive from pursuing the in-vaders to the last. No man is going to be deterred by any such means from fighting for his country as in the manner best suited to his situation and means. The whole proceeding is a preparation for gratuitons murder.

HUNTING UP ESTRAYS .- The following order bas been issued in Charlotte, North Carolina, for the benefit of all concerned :

HEADQUARTERS 85TH REG'T., N. C. M., Charlotte, N. C., July 28. M. W. Robinson, Chief Police: You are hereby authorized and empowered to exsuch as have no written evidence of leave of absence from their respective commands, and you are further instructed to arrest all sojourners and visitors to this town who are between the ages of 18 and 35, that they may render an account of themselves. L. S. WILLIAMS

Colonel Soth Rogt. N. C. M. THE CAPTURE OF DR. RUCKER —In speaking of the capture of this individual the Lyuchburg "Republican" cays: "The capture of the notorious renegade and soy, Dr. Wm. P. Rucker, at Nicholus Court House, will be found under our telegraphic head. To those in this section who know the man, his deeds of vilialny and accountrelism while residing in Amherst and Bedford, of the former of which counties he is a native, his capture will be a source of rejuding. And to the people of Bottourt and Alleghany, among whom he was at the breaking out of the war, and who have suffered by his treason to the land that bore him, no event could be productive of a greater degree of satisfaction. We would ask for him no surer doom than would be meted out to him by the people of Covington, in Alleno event could be productive of a greater degree of natis-faction. We would ask for him no surer doom than would be meted out to him by the people of Cavington, in Alie-ghany, who yet have a lively remembrance of the fruits of their misplaced confidence reposed in one of the most con-cummate rascals and traitors uniting. That he receive the reward of his treason and be allowed but short shift be-tween his trial and execution, is due to the hecatomb of patriotic souls, who, through his instrumentality, were sent to their long account, and now drowd the bar of Omnipo-tint Junice, demanding vengeance on their slayer.
