A STATEMENT OF THE KILLED, WOUNDED AND CATTURED THE SEVERAL BATTLES AND OTHER ENGAGEMENTS IN T YEAR 1861.

YEAR 1861. The following table exhibits an approximation to the losses of both parties by the several engagements durin the year. The Confederate losses are compiled from the official reports of the commanding officers, (when suc-reports were published.) Of course? we can only guess i the losses of the enemy. The Northern papers solder publish the official reports of the Federal Genorais, and the latter have generally proved themselves such monstrood faisifiers that but little confidence can be placed in their re-ports when they are published. For instance, Pleayan Butler stated his loss at Bethel at about thirty, when it is notorious fact that one small squad of Magroder's mo-alone buried thirty-two Fideral losses, we have adopted the opinious of the Confederate officers commanding, who at gentie men, and upon whose sistements reliance may be gentle men, and upon whose statements reliance
