FOR THE JOURNAL.

FROM GOLDSBORO—OUR TROOPS RE-OCCUPIED KINGSTON, &C.

Our troops re-occupied Kingston on Monday night, the Abolitionists evacuating and burning the bridge. Of Col. Mallett's regiment 15 have already come in. Five Company officers, Lieut. Hill among them, are reported killed.

LATER FROM GOLDSBORO—HEAVY FIGHTING.—NEUSE RIVER BRIDGE BURNED—ENEMY DRIVEN BACK, &C.

The battle raged furiously all day, on David Everett's farm and in that vicinity. The light wing of the Yankee extending nearly to Neuse river, about four miles hence. Between two and three o'clock six Yankees, under cover of a fence, reached the railroad bridge and set it on fire, entirely consuming it. Five of the rebels were killed on the spot. Later in the day our forces gallantly repulsed an attempt of the enemy to cross the country bridge, and drove them from their position on the other side.

Our troops fought like veterans, and when firing ceased at dark, they had gallantly maintained their ground. At the battle at White Hall, yesterday, the eleventh regiment, Col. Laverthorpe, had seven killed, twenty-three slightly and one mortally wounded. Lieut. Means, of Mecklenburg, was the only officer killed. The slaughter of the enemy is said to be heavy. Our boys drove them from their pieces like frightened turkeys. Our loss in the 31st N. C. Troops was slight.

LATER.—The enemy has been driven three miles from his position this evening.

FROM FREDERICKSBURG.

Accounts from Fredericksburg represent that the Abolitionists thoroughly sacked the town before recrossing the river, and left their dead in the streets. Two persons arrived from Martinsburg last night, say it was reported there when they left, that a serious row had occurred in New York upon the attempt to arrest John VanBuren. The report is not credited here.

NORTHERN NEWS—LOSS OF ABOLITION GENERALS.

The Enquirer has Northern dates to the 15th inst. They acknowledge a desperate battle and heavy loss, though giving no numbers, save the loss of two hundred and fifteen in one division while crossing. They were engaged all night in removing their dead and wounded. General Bayard was killed, and Gens. Vinton, Kimball, Gibbons, and Caldwell, wounded; and Meagher, severely wounded; and the Irish brigade suffered terribly.

The Philadelphia Inquirer, says that we hope, as we believe, that the great and final struggle of the war is now going on; that Burnside will throw everything on the hazard, and expand every round of ammunition and every man on an honest and resolute effort to take Richmond, whatever may be the result.

ARRIVAL OF YANKEE PRISONERS.

Between four and five hundred of the Fredericksburg prisoners arrived here this evening. It is reported that many stragglers were captured yesterday. It is believed in official quarters that the enemy's loss on Saturday was over fifteen thousand. Heaps of the slain were unburied on yesterday.

THE ABOLITION ARMY LEFT FREDERICKSBURG.

Passengers by the train from Fredericksburg to-night brought no additional news. The Abolition army has entirely disappeared from the vicinity of the town. A vague rumor that they were marching down the north bank, in the direction of Port Royal, is not credited.

NORTHERN NEWS—THE ALABAMA AT MARTINIQUE.

The New York Herald of the 12th inst. says that the Federal loss in the battle near Fayetteville, Ark., was one thousand. Gen. Curtis claims a complete victory. The news from Nashville indicates an immediate attack by the rebels, under Gen. Joe Johnson.

The Alabama ran into port at Martinique on the 17th November, after destroying two Yankee ships. The San Jacinto arrived the same day, and finding the Alabama in port, awaited her departure; but next day the Alabama got under weigh and escaped.

B. F. Flanders and Michael, unconditional Union men, have been elected to Congress in the First and Second Districts in Louisiana.

The accounts from Fredericksburg relate only to the crossing of the river and the bombardment of the town. Gold closed at 132 1/2; Exchange 146. Cotton 67 cents for middling.

The total vote in Louisiana was 3100 in the first district and 220 in the second. In eight hundred and fifty, the total vote was nearly 14,000.

The bill admitting Western Virginia into the Union has passed both Houses of Congress.

FROM NORFOLK—EFFECTS OF BURNSIDE'S DEFEAT, &C.

A lady who left Norfolk on last Monday, says that Burnside's failure at Fredericksburg, produced a most stunning effect on the Yankees in Norfolk, and that our people were greatly elated. The Yankee accounts say they were permitted to occupy Fredericksburg with but little opposition, but as soon as a large force got across, the rebel Gen. Lee opened upon them with two hundred and fifty pieces of artillery, while Stuart got partly in their rear and poured a murderous fire into the Union ranks. They say such havoc has not been seen since the war commenced. They report their loss in killed and wounded at more than 20,000.

There are rumors of heavy fighting all day near Kingston, N. C., but no particulars. During last week reinforcements were constantly being sent to Suffolk. The report was that Petersburg was to be attacked from Suffolk, while another force was to be landed at City Point, under the protection of the iron-clads. Since Burnside's defeat at Fredericksburg, it is believed the programme has been changed.

PRESIDENT DAVIS.

President Davis passed through Atlanta yesterday.

RAN THE BLOCKADE.—VALUABLE CARGO, &C.

A large steamer has reached a Confederate port, with ten thousand blankets, a quantity of iron sabs for gunboat plating and a valuable assorted cargo, principally on Government account. By this arrival Nassau dates to the 13th inst., have been received. The Nassau Guardian announces the capture, by the Yankee gunboat Tigea, of the schooner Nonesuch, loaded with salt and coffee. The Nonesuch was captured within a mile of the shore and sent to Key West. The Guardian denounces the capture as an outrage in British waters.

ARRIVAL OF STEAMER HERALD—GENERAL COBB'S REMAINS.

The steamer Herald arrived at a Confederate port to-day, with a valuable cargo. Gen. T. R. Cobb's remains reached here to-day, and were received by a large escort of citizens and soldiers.

FROM VICKSBURG.—FEDERAL GUNBOAT DESTROYED, &C.

A special despatch to the Advertiser and Register, dated Vicksburg, Dec. 16th, says that two of the enemy's gunboats went up the river on yesterday, and another left this morning. On Friday a Federal ram gunboat was destroyed on the Yazoo river by our torpedoes. On the 8th inst. the Federal transport Lake City, was captured at Carson's landing, on the Mississippi river, by Bowen's cavalry, with seventy-five thousand dollars in cash, and a fine lot of provisions and clothing.

GOVERNOR OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

A dispatch from Columbia, to-day, announces that on the third ballot, Gen'l M. L. Bonham was elected Governor of South Carolina.

FROM THE SOUTHWEST.

The Tribune learns from officers of the Mobile & Ohio R.

R., that the train between Tupelo and Okalona was fired into on Monday evening by the Yankees, but nobody hurt. The train proceeded on to Okalona, when the latter place was immediately evacuated, and everything removed to Egypt. Saltito was taken on Monday morning, and Pontotoc below there, at eleven o'clock, by 2,500 of the enemy, which is said to be the advance of 3,000 who are making raids through that country. Shannon was attacked at 2 o'clock same day.

THE STATE LINE.—When last heard from, General Floyd and the State Line were at Warfield, in Kentucky. From our correspondence we glean some particulars of the condition of his army. Our correspondent, writing from a distant country, who saw General Floyd's troops accidentally, on their road into the West, gives this account of the spectacle: " * * * * * Reaching the summit of a hill, in one of the wildest parts of this romantic region, one hundred and thirty miles beyond the Confederate outposts, I paused to admire a spectacle that caused my Virginian heart to throb with pride. A long line of heremen, their bayonets glittering in the sun, and the bright blue flag of the Old Dominion waving above them, wound their way up the tortuous ascent of a neighboring height. At their head towered the form of their lion-hearted chief, Maj. Gen. Floyd. That dauntless son of a heroic race was leading his bold mountaineers towards the enemy, when all save him and his devoted band had retired to positions of greater security and comfort in the interior. What heart so mean as to refuse to admire and love the glowing patriotism, the forgetfulness of self, and the stern resolution of this hero heart!

As I mused in my solitary ride, I was carried back to the day when Gen. Floyd's reputed ancestor, Cornstalk, the noblest of the Indian race, led his vengeful warriors on the same path, in defence of their homes, and I thought that bloody indeed would be the fate of the enemy should he rashly attempt to dislodge Gen. Floyd from these mountain fastnesses. I think the memory of Cornstalk is too vivid in Yankee recollection for them to make the attempt; but if they should do so, I predict that their overthrow will be so signal that the name of Floyd will hereafter be in Yankee households more a word of terror than that of the Black Douglas ever was in England.

The following is a verbatim et literatim extract from a letter taken from the body of a dead Yankee on the field of Perryville:

There has been several spears lately and me and Jo pitches in by hell dave I wish you was at home and de damb niggers all in africa for we cant whip the south as long as the world stands our men or officers rather is fighting for moner and power and office and half of them dont care a damb for the union but I hope you will come out safe if you want paper or stamps or envelopes let me know take good care of your self and if you have to fight to keep from getting killed fight like the devil writ soon and I will answer no more at present.

An Order from Gen. Bragg.

The following order has been issued by Gen. Bragg commanding the Army of Tennessee, dated Headquarters, Murfreesboro', Nov. 29, 1862:

Gratified beyond expression at the confident tone and fine discipline which pervades his troops, and full of admiration at their fortitude and patient submission to privations, united with their gallantry and heroism in the recent arduous and brilliant campaign by which so much valuable territory has been redeemed and so many true and loyal people liberated, the General commanding is induced to publish a full pardon to all soldiers absent without authority who shall within a reasonable time return to their commands and report for duty.

They are urged at once to avail themselves of this privilege before the inauguration of the new system of Military Courts established by law, as a vigorous and prompt administration of justice will be meted out to all delinquents. Thereafter no excuse will be allowed those who abandon their colors, and leave their comrades to perform their duties and defend their homes.

Commissioned officers guilty of such offences are excluded from the benefits of this amnesty, and will not be excused. They are held to be unworthy to command gallant men, and to merit exemplary punishment. Vigorous measures have been adopted to arrest all who fail to respond to this last and generous appeal, and they must expect full justice, tempered only with the mercy they have failed to show either to their comrades or their cause.

GEORGE WM. BRENT, A. A. G.

The Senate of Georgia has passed an act to put to death every citizen of the United States found within the State of Georgia after the first day of January next. They are to be presumed to be aiding and abetting insurrection, according to Lincoln's proclamation.
