CHARLESTON TO BE ATTACKED-THE BRITISH CONSUL ORDERED TO LEAVE.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 3d, 1863. The British frigate Cadmus brings intelligence that a most form idable naval and land expedition is about to attack Charleston. The preparations being now nearly complete, the Cadmus brings orders for Robert Bunch, the British Consul, to go aboard and get to Havana as soon as possible. He will leave next Saturday. The Yankee naval and land forces are gathering at Port Royal. It is supposed that the troops are drawn chiefly from the North Carolina coast. The iron-riad Ironsides is still off the bar this morning, with thirteen other Yankee steamers.

GENERAL ORDERS

No. 5. COMMANDERS OF BRIGADES WILL GIVE to the officers detailed for recruiting service, (one from each Company, special instructions to arrest and forward to their Companies all enlisted men absent without competent authority.

II. A full pardon, except as to forfeiture of pay for the period of unauthorized absence, is hereby proclaimed to all enlisted men, absent without leave, who may voluntarily return to their respective commands on or before the 10th day of February next. III. All enlisted men who do not voluntarily return with-in the time specified, and all who shall after this date absent themselves from their commands without proper anthority, will be charged with desertion and tried by the new Military Court now in session. If found guilty, they will be sentenced to death, whether present or absent, and commanders will be ordered to execute the sentence wherever the condemned can be arrested. IV. In Companies all the enlisted men of which are present for duty, except those absent under legal orders or upon regular cick-leave, Division, District and Department Commanders are authorized to grant furloughs, at the rate of one for every twenty-live men present for duty in each company, and for periods which, deducting the time necessary for travel, will permit the parties to remain at home fourteen days. Whenever they are authorized by the facts to append a certificate, which will be required in every instance, that no enlisted man of the Company is absent without competent authority. Company and Regimental Commanders will forward, through the regular channels, at the rate and upon the conditions above specified, recommendations of the men most meritorious and deserving of fur-

V. All culisted men who overstay their regular sick furloughs, or those granted as above, will be immediately arrested on their return, an examination made into the circomstances of each case, and the facts reported to the Brigade Commander, who will either punish the delinquent, cause charges to be preferred, or return him to duty un punished, as the circumstances of the case may in his judgment require.

VI. Mejor A. F. Cons, Chief Quaptermaster, will cause these orders to be advertised once a week, for three weeks, in every n waspaper published in North Carolica, and in the newspapers published in Columbia, Anderson, Greenville and Yorkville, South Carolina. By Command of Maj. Gen. G. W. SMITH

BAM. W. MELTON, Major and A. A. Gen. A PROCLAMATION,

GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA. Whereas, it has been made known to me that a large number of soldiers from our armies are absent from their colors without proper leave, in this the hour of our greatest need, and it being confidently believed that a large majority of such were impelled to this course by a natural and almost irresistible desire to see their homes and friends once more after so long an absence, and not because of a cowardly determination to leave their brave comrades to share all the dangers and hardships of the field alone; and whereas, Maj. Gen. G. W. Smith, in command of the Department of North Carolina, by consent of the Secretary of War, has published an order declaring that all who may voluntarity return to duty by the 10th day of February next, shall be received into their several commands with no other punishment than a forfeiture of their pay for the time they have been so absent without leave; and declaring further that all who do not so return by the said 10th day of February, shall when apprehended, be tried for desertion, and upon conviction, be made to suffer death:

Now therefore, I, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do issue this my proclamation to all soldiers from this State, serving in the armies of the Confederacy, who are now illegally absent from their colors, commanding them to return to duty with their comrades, and exhorting them to avail themselves of this opportuni-ty of saving their friends from the disgrace and infamy which will cling forever to the name of the deserter from his country's cause, and themselves from a felon's death. Many, after carrying their country's flag in triumph through various bloody conflicts and making themselves a name, of which their children's children might have been justly proud, have fortested it all by absenting themselves at a moment when their own State is invaded and about to be desolated by a brutal, half savage foe. Now is the time to reinstate themselves, by a prompt return to duty. I appeal to them to stand by their country yet a little longer, and not to sully by desertion the bright and glorious reputation of the State, which they have helped to win on a hundred of the State, which they have helped to win on a hundred hard fought fleids; and I appeal to all good and loyal citizens throughout the State to give their influence to induce these men to return. Let no one, unmoved by this appeal to his patriotism and honor, suppose that he can remain at home with impunity; the full power of the State authorities, aided if need be by the Confederacy, shall be put in force to arrest him and bring him to punishment after the force to arrest him and bring him to punishment after the loth day of February next, and there shall be no rest for the descriter in the borders of North Carolina. And let none excuse their described by declaring that they go home to take care of their families; they will add nothing to the comforts of their families by hiding like guilty men in the woods by day, and by plundering their neighbors by night; they only bring shame and suffering upon the heads of the innocent, and their little children, when gray headed old men, will have the finger of scorn pointed at them and the bitter taunt will ring in their ears, "Your father skulked in the woods to keep from fighting for his counsaled." skulked in the woods to keep from fighting for his coun-

The State is now trying to provide food for your families, and each county is making a similar provision; and as your Chief Magistrate, I promise you that the wife and child of the soldier who is in the army doing his duty shall share the last bushel of meal and the last pound of meat in the State. Let every patriot in the land assist with all his influence in the execution of this proclamation, and our victorious ranks will again be filled, and our country soon be rid of the enemy.

In witness whereof, Zention B. Vance, our Gov-ernor, Captain General and Commander-in-Chief, hath signed these presents and cadsed the great Seal of the State to be affixed. Done at our City of Raleigh, on the 26th day of Jahuary, in the year of our Lord, 1863.

Z. B. VANCE. By the Governor: H. H. BATTLE, JR., Private Secretary. 93-1w-18-3t
