Revenue Acts of the N. C. Legislature.

53. An act entitled "Revenue."
Levies an ad valorem tax of two-fifths of one per cent upon the assessed cash value of the following to wit:
1st. Real Estate

2nd. All slaves in the State (except such as the County Courts may exempt or have exempted from taxation on account of bodily or mental infirmity) to be ascertained by the same persons who assess the value of land;

3rd. Money due from solvent debtors, or on deposit with individuals or corporations: Confederate and State Treasury notes to be considered "money." The person holding money on hand or at interest being allowed to deduct debts owing by him as principal and also as surety where the principal is insolvent.

4th. The money invested in Manufacture and Steamboat Company according to the shares as fixed by the charter, if the shares be in a corporation - if there be no incorporation, then in money invested. A like tax is laid on money invested in County or State Bonds issued since February 29th, 1861: also on money invested in every species of trade and traffic not otherwise taxed by the bill.

5th. Household and kitchen furniture above the value of $20, except such furniture as is specifically taxed.

6th. Horses, mules, cattle, hogs and other live stock raised or kept for sale, and not for owner's use, subject to exemptions hereinafter set forth.

7th. All cotton and tobacco not owned by the producer, or purchased by the owner for his own use or that of his family and dependents: cotton purchased for the purpose of manufacturing to be exempt from taxation, provided that no more cotton than held for manufacturing shall be exempt: but this is subject to the consumption of one year - The terms of purchase of real estate are provided for: - Real estate and furniture, books, wearing apparel, and other personal effects, on which a tax of one and two thirds of one per cent is also exacted. Property taxed at a higher rate than the fifth of one per cent is not liable to said tax but is to be listed separately.

An annual tax of eight per cent is laid on every dollar of net dividend or profit previously declared, declared, received or due, or to be received or due, on or after the 1st of April in each year, on money or capital invested in shares in the Bank of Washington, the Merchant's Bank of New Bern, Bank of Wadesboro, Bank of Fayetteville, Commercial Bank of Wilmington, Farmers' Bank of N. C., Bank of Charlotte and Bank of Yadonville, to be exempted however from County tax.

Stocks or interest held by individuals in all corporations, companies, or business to be listed as the individual property of holders in the counties of which they are residents. At the first county court of each county held on or before the 1st Monday in March, and at the same term every four years thereafter, the court shall appoint district courts of valuation, consisting of one Justice of the Peace and two freeholders for each school or Captain's District, to ascertain the cash value of land, other real estate, and slaves, required to be listed. Land is to be listed as heretofore - in listing slaves, their name, ages and number must be specified. Town lots to be listed and valued separately.

The District Boards are required to complete their lists by the 1st Monday of April after their appointment, and on the 1st Thursday thereafter the justices of these boards are to meet at the Court House and organize as a County Board of Valuation, to receive, compare and examine the lists returned, to hear appeals from district assessments, to order re-assessments, if necessary, and to return the corrected lists to the County Court Clerk.

Takers of the tax lists shall not take the lists of lands and slaves, but they shall be ascertained by the County Court Clerk, and entered by him on the tax lists to be furnished to the sheriff or collector, from the lists of the assessors.

SCHEDULE A.

1. A tax of one dollar and twenty cents is laid on every taxable poll; County Courts may exempt old and infirm persons. Soldiers in the actual service of the State or Confederate government are exempt.

2. Toll gates on turnpike roads, toll bridges and ferries are taxed 25 per cent on the amount of annual receipts. Keepers of houses of public entertainment in town or county, whose annual receipts amount to $300, are taxed 1 per cent on their receipts.

3. Every gate, permitted by the County Court to be erected across a highway, is taxed $5.

4. On note payers in addition to the tax imposed on the interest they may receive on notes, hands, a tax of ten per cent on their profits, which they are required to list without deducting losses.

5. Persons engaged in buying and selling slaves are taxed one half of one per cent on the total amount of their purchases, (whether made in the State or out of it) during the twelve months preceding the 1st day of April.

6. The same tax is laid on residents of this State, not regularly trading in slaves, who purchase slaves in or out of the State to sell again.

7. Pleasure carriages, buggies, etc., of the value of fifty dollars are taxed one per cent on value. Stud horses and jackasses let to manes for a price, belonging to residents of the State, are taxed six dollars unless the highest price demanded for the season for car mares exceeds that sum, in which case they are taxed the amount demanded. These are to be listed and the tax paid in the county where the owner resides.

8. Gold and silver plate, plated, and jewelry worn by males of greater value than twenty-five dollars, are taxed one per cent on value.

9. Watches, not kept for sale, one per cent on value: lamps in use, $1.50 each; pianos in use, $1.50 each; gold headed canes in use, $1 each; silver headed canes, 50 cts.

10. Resident barbers, dentists, physicians, lawyers, portraiture painters, daguerrean artists etc., commission merchants, factors, produce brokers and auctioneers, State and county officers, presidents, cashiers, superintendents, or treasurers of Banks, railroads or other corporations whose annual receipts amount to $1,000 or upwards, are taxed one per cent on total receipts or incomes. Judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts, the Governor and military officers, in actual service, are exempted.

11. Every head of a family is required to list all his dogs above two on any one plantation, including those owned by his slaves, or any other person resident on his lands. Persons, not heads of families, are required to list all dogs but one - owned by him or his slaves, and a tax of one dollar is levied on each dog listed. Dogs under eight months old are untaxed. The county courts are empowered to levy these taxes, and the taxes collected levied under this act shall be for county purposes.

12. "Dead heads" traveling on Railroads, in which the State has stockholder, or with which it has exchanged bonds, are required to list the number of miles so traveled by them or any member of their families, during the year preceding the 1st of April, and are taxed two and a half cents a mile for each mile so traveled. Officials, employees and members of the Gospel, traveling in discharge of their respective functions, are exempted.

13. Persons who have distilled brandy for sale or had it distilled for sale the year preceding the 1st day of April, are taxed the number of gallons distilled and pay a tax of one cent per gallon.

14. Licenses for wines, cordials and spirituous liquors, bought of non-residents, are taxed twenty per cent on the amount of their profits; and persons buying to sell again, liquors distilled in the State, are taxed ten per cent on their profits.

On every dollar of net profit, or dividend, declared, received or due, during the year preceding the 1st of April in each year, (and not previously listed.) upon money or capital invested in manufacturing cotton or woolen goods, leather, or articles made of leather, iron and tobacco; and invested in steamboat companies (whether incorporated or not) and in Railroads, a tax of two cents.

15. Collateral descents are taxed as follows: viz: If the collateral relation be a brother or sister, one per cent; if the relation be a brother or sister of the father or mother of the deceased, or child of such brother or sister, two per cent; if such collateral relation be a more remote relation, or the devisee or legatee be a stranger, three per cent.

SCHEDULE B.

Subjects taxed without being listed.

1. On circuses, menageries, &c., seventy-five dollars for each county in which they exhibit. Separate exhibition (known as side shows), are taxed fifteen dollars for each county.

2. Companies of stage or theatrical players, performers of feats of strength or agility and exhibitors of natural or artificial objects, except (amateurs) are taxed twenty dollars for each county in which they exhibit for reward.

3. Companies of itinerant singers, musicians, dancers, et idiosyncratic exhibits for the public amusement, are taxed ten dollars for each county.

4. Insurance companies incorporated out of the State are taxed 5 per cent of their gross earnings.

5. Agencies of Banks incorporated out of the State are taxed $300.

6. Money exchange, bond or note brokers, private bankers, or foreign brokers or bankers, are taxed ten per cent of their profits.

7. Express companies are taxed $500.

8. Public billiard tables are taxed $125; each bagatelle and complete table $50 each; private billiard tables $25 each.

9. Public bowling alleys $50 each; private bowling alleys $10.

10. Every stable, or place where horses and vehicles are kept for hire, are taxed $50.

11. Licensed retailers of spirituous liquors, wines or cordials, or of medicinal liquors, are taxed $50. They are also required to list the amount of liquors, wines, etc., as per schedule A, and to pay the tax there imposed.

12. Non-residents, who in person or by agent, shall purchase any slave or slaves in this State, shall immediately become liable to pay a tax of one half of one per cent on the amount of his purchase; on failure to pay said tax shall forfeit and pay the sum of $100. Agents are made equally liable with their principals to the tax and for forfeiture.

13. Non-residents selling slaves in the State shall pay one-half of one per cent on the amount of each sale effected. This tax is to be collected of the purchaser on failure of the seller to pay it.

Table with columns for months (JANUARY to DECEMBER) and days of the week (SUNDAY to SATURDAY). The table contains numerical data for each day, likely representing the day of the week or a specific calendar reference. The text 'The circulation of the Daily Journal is not surpassed in extent by any Commercial Paper in the State.' is printed vertically on the left side of the table.

THE DAILY JOURNAL.

Published six times a week, at $5 per annum, payable in advance. Single copies 75 cts.

THE WILMINGTON JOURNAL, is issued every Thursday morning, at $2 50 per year, invariably in advance. This paper contains all the principal news of the week, and all the important editorial matter of the several daily issues, together with a weekly report of the markets of this town.

The circulation of the Weekly paper is now quite large, and is constantly on the increase. The Daily Journal has a larger circulation than the Weekly. These are the only papers published in Wilmington, and they afford unprecedented facilities for advertising.

We also do all kinds of Printing, such as Pamphlets, Bills of Exchange, Bills of Lading, Checks, Bill Heads, Headings, Circulars, Cards, Posters, Handbills, Labels, &c.
