WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 11, 1867.

From the Raleigh Episcopal Methodist. LETTER FROM REV. DR. DEEMS.

221 WEST 34TH STREET, N. YORK,

27th July, 1867. DEAR BRO. HUDSON:-I have often had sense of isolation in the position in which our Bishops have left me, there being so few opportunities of seeing ministers of my own church and especially of my own Conference. The last week, however, has been when storms and tempest gathered on his brown a season of great enjoyment. Without announcement, my Presiding Elder, Rev. R. Mr. Johnson, sir, is the Cato of to-day. day morning, the 14th inst., and has spent nearly two weeks with me, preaching two sermons of extraordinary power and interest, and visiting among my people and his that Mr. Seward's prospects for the succes-own acquaintances, and exerting the wholesome influence which unaffected godliness, great abilities and extensive learning place Bro. Moran brought with him so many things are as they are."

What precious memories came crowding around me then !

man who has written so much has so great an antipathy to the pen. Every time I write anything it is for the sake of duty or pay; a confession which has the merit of great candor. And, have I left such friends behind me as can be kept friendly only by writing every few days "I love you?" I trust not. If the people in every neighborhood of the New-Bern and Wilmington Districts could see my heart as it travels.

Ship of Kentucky, Col. Woolford, a distinguished officer of the Federal army, said:

"If history shall show, in the end, that the war was for the overrunning and subjugation of the Southern States, for the purpose of elevating the negro to political power at the expense of white men, born freemen, descendants of our revolutionary sires, then I shall turn from my sword with sorrow, if not with shame." Districts could see my heart as it travels We submit to Col. Woolford and thouing into many a house with the joys and sorrows of whose inmates I have sympathized, they would know how constant and deep is my affection. Let them, and all my friends in Raleigh, Chapel Hill, and Greensboro', where I have lived, and all publican freedom, insist upon a perfect respectively.

Perhaps Bro. Hudson has thought that I might write letters for the Episcopal Methodist giving accounts of my operations in the "Church of the Strangers." Let him reflect that in addition to my dislike to unsays:

Says:

Says:

General Henry A. Wise is here, being engaged in the suit between the Methodist Church North and the Episcopal Methodist, while my hand is in, it may as well be sid that, as one of our Bishops wrote me, I came to this city for one thing and the Lord kept me here for another. I came to edit a paper, Providence surrounded we with a congregation, a most unexpected thing to me. Urged to have a regular proaching place I took the small Chapel of the University, and simply preached every Sunday morning, with no plans, no purpose, no organization. When the Watchman succumbed to the pressure of the times there was such a flock as demanded to the pressure of the index of yore. He is looking better than I man succumbed to the pressure of the times there was such a flock as demanded consideration. They said that it must be her pastor. They were Southern Methodists and Episcopalisms and Baptists and Fresbyterians and other denominations. So I left it all to our Blahops, being ready to stay in New York or return to North Carolina, or go to California, or South America or Japan. In their goddy indement these, my overseers in the Church of Christ, unanimously decided that I should stay until further ordern. And I have staid. And my work has grown. My circuit is twelve miles in diameter. Studying, preaching, holding prayer-meetings, baptising, visiting the sick, burying the dead, looking as for as possible after all who desire or need my nervices, my time and strength are thoroughly texted. Let no friend think it anims if I cannot find time to write often.

I think my Iriends will be glad to know that this hard work agrees with me, my health being wally tester than it was at the last Conference. Indeed then I took leave of you finally, believing that I could not endure much longer. I had never been in so low a state. Perhaps no man has been so long in the ministry and missed so few appointments as I, for which God be thanked! And in my feebleness last winter I preached in the University every Sunday. Now, I am in better condition than the last Conference. Indeed then I took representing four rengious denominations and perhaps ten States, from Massachusetts to Alabama. Last Sunday night I preached to people from England, Canada, Vermont, Massachusets, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina.

yond the strangers came I know not. To To what this thing will grow I know not, To compare small things with large I stand in this city as John Wesley did in London,

What Mr. Seward Says. Secretary Seward passed through the city this eveving on his way to Auburn.— He looked fagged out. A number of friends "Well, Mr. Secretary, how do things look at Washington?" Seward-"Well, my friend, when I left there last night, the sky looked calm and beautiful; the birds were singing in the trees at Bladensburg, and the waters of the Potomac ran along as smoothly as they do here in your own lovely Hudson." Friend-" Ah, yes, but the political situ-

Seward-"Politics, sir have not disturbed me much of late. I am either getting tired of them or they are growing weary of me. I am not half so well posted, as to what you call the situation, as you New York editors. Read the World, the Times, the Tribune and the Express, and you will know all about it." Another Friend-" How is President

Johnson, Mr. Secretary?" Seward-"Do you remember that wonderful passage in Addison's Cato-Thou hast seen Mount Atlas
When storms and tempest gathered on his brow;
He stands unmoved, and giories in his height."

S. Moran, dropped in at my chapelon Sun- begin to think his country is not worthy of Something was said about the next Presidential election, with occasional regrets that Mr. Seward's prospects for the succes-Seward-" Reserve your regrets, gentle in the hands of any man. I had begun to think that even he, who is my ecclesiastical superior and one of my many true friends cy is not a bed of roses. In all human proas I supposed, had forgotten me, as I had bability my term of life will not run many had only two or three brief notes from him years into the future. Time with me was since Conference, and should have been never so precious as it is at present, and invery restless if I had not recollected stead of lamenting that higher honors are that it was a fashion among the ecclesiastical officials of my Conference not to be abundant in writing letters. But when men, I feel that I ought to thank Gcd that messages of love from my brethren in the These words were uttered in a tone sabry and laity, and gave me such great voring of sadness, but the shrill cry of all help and strength by his presence and his ashore that's going, intermingled with the labors, I forgave all. You who see the noise of the pilots bell, and the roar of preachers almost daily do not know what a steam, put an end to further reflections, treat it was to me last Sunday to hear Bro.

Moran preach and Bro. - Chaffin pray.—

to shake hands and bid each other adies.

Perhaps my friends in North Carolina At the Conservative Convention which think that the dislike of letter writing has nominated Gen. Helm for the Governorseized me. It may be true. Probably no ship of Kentucky, Col. Woolford, a distin-back and goes over the old routes, walk- sands of gallant men of the Northern army other places that I have visited, take this toration. If these never be restored, His as a general letter of christian love and re- tory will wreathe the swords of the North

I. Registration shall commence immediately upon the promulgotion of this order.

II. Post Commanders will be Superintendents of registration within their respective commands, exercising, in addition to the functions hereinafter specially conferred, a general supervisory authority, looking to the faithful execution of the several Reconstruction Acts, the maintenance of order, and the protection of political rights. They will suspend registrars for malfeasance in office, neglect of sduty, or incompetency, promotly reporting ginia, North Carolina, South Carolina.

yond the strangers came I know not. To To what this thing will grow I know not, To compare small things with large I stand in this city as John Wesley did in London, awaiting the bidding of my Lord.

But lo! I seem to be writing a book!—Sitting down to say a few words about Bro. Moran it has grown to this. Let it be a "general cpistle," and let it be considered as directed to each person in dear North Carolina who wishes to hear from Your affectionate brother,

CHARLES F. DEEMS.

From the N. Y. Cor. Louisville Domocrat.

What Mr. Seward Says.

III. The Boards of Registration are empowered and required to suppress all disorders interfering with the execution of their duties, to cause the arrest and confinement of all persons falsely taking the oath prescribed, all persons committing any breach of the peace or conducting themselves in a manner tending thereto, and all persons who shall threaten or otherwise attempt to intimidate, or corruptly or improperly influence any citizen offering to register; and for this purpose they may apply for aid to the Post Commander, and may require the attendance and services of sheriffs, their deputies, constables, policemen, and falso of any citizen; and all State, district, county and town officers charged with the preservation of the public peace, as well as all citizens, are required to obey the orders of said Boards, given in pursuance of the authority aforessid and to perform all such acts and duties as may be requisite therefor.

All arrests made as herein provided will be promptly reported to the Post Commander to whom also the prisoners will be turned over with He looked fagged out. A number of friends went down to the Albany steamer to see him off. One of them said:

"Well, Mr. Secretary, how do things ing to respond to the call of the Board for assistant of the secretary.

ing to respond to the call of the Board for assistance will be dealt with in like manner.

IV. Whenever any citizen shall suffer injury in person, family or property, while exercising or seeking to exercise the right of registration, in addition to any penalty prescribed by law for the fience, damages shall be awarded to the injure d party against the perpetrator, upon his conviction; and in case of default in payment of the same, or of the escape of the offender, if it shall appear that the wrong was countenanced, or the offender harbored or concealed by the neighborhood, or that the civil authorities failed to employ proper measures to preserve the peace, the damproper measures to preserve the peace, the damages shall be assessed against and paid by the own, county or district.

V. Offences perpetrated by white persons dis-guised as blacks, being of frequent occurrence, the attention of all authorities, civil and military, is directed to the device, as one adopted to escape detection, and to cast numerited obloquy upon the colored people. In all cases, when resort thereto shall be shown, the fact will be taken into vi. Depriving a citizen of any right, benefit or advantage of hire or employment, to discourage him from registering, or on account of his having him from registering, or on account of his having registered or having sought to register, shall be deemed an offence punishable by the Post Court, and shall entitle the injured party to damages against the offender, any clause in any contract or agreement to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. The Act of Congress entitled "An Act for the more efficient government of the rebel States," and the several Acts supplementary thereto, will be carefully observed by all Boards of Registration.

VIII. Each Board shall, after having taken the oath prescribed by the Act of Congress of July 2d, 1862, entitled "An Act to prescribe an oath of office," (see Appendix, form 1,) choose one of its members as chairman, who shall preside at all sessions of the Board, preserve order at its meetings for registration, and represent the Board, and announce its action in all matters coming before

IX. The places of session of the Boards shall be the voting places established by law or custom in each election precinct, unless for good cause otherwise directed by the Post Commander.

X. Each Board shall determine the order in which the registration shall take place in the several election precincts, that may be assigned to it by the Post Commander, and the time which shall be allotted to each—bearing in mind that the whole work is to be finished before the first day XL Each Board shall, forthwith upon notice of publication of this order, and at least five days before commencing registration, give notice thereof to the Post Commander, and the sheriff, and the mayor of the city or the intendant of the town, and shall cause written or printed notices to be posted in five of the most public places in each election precinct, announcing the time when and the place where its sessions will be held, the number of days (in no case less than two), and the ber of days (in no case less than two), and the hours of the day the Board will remain in session at each place for the purpose of registration; and inviting all persons qualified to vote under the provisions of the Act of Congress passed March 2d, 1867, entitled "An Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," and the several Acts supplementary thereto, to appear before the Board will remain in session at each place for the purpose of registration; and inviting all persons of the Act of Congress approved oath prescribed by the Act of Congress approved in the provisions of the Act of Congress approved oath prescribed by the Act of Congress approved in the provisions of the Act of Congress approved oath prescribed by the Act of Congress approved in the provisions of the Act of Congress approved oath prescribed by the Act of Congress approved oath prescribed the chairman shall have previously provided for the purpose, shall be so arranged that the Board shall be separated by a bar from all other persons who may be assembled, and those to be registered shall be admitted within the bar, one by one, and their ingress and egress so arranged as to avoid

XIV. Two citizens shall be admitted within the bar as challengers, whose duty it shall be to challenge the right of any citizen offering to register, upon any of the grounds of disqualification enumerated in the Acts of Congress before cited; but the general right of challenge shall be conceded to all efficience agreements. to all citizens present.

XV. If any challenge be made, the Board shall

XV. If any challenge be made, the Board shall, before final decision, examine the person presenting himself for registration, in reference to the cause of disqualification alleged, and shall hear any evidence that may be offered, to substantiate or disprove the cause of challenge, and shall have power to summon and compet the attendance of witnesses and administer oaths in any case of

XVI. In registering, the names of white and colored citizens shall be entered alphabetically, in separate columns of the list.

XVII. The following shall be the process of reg-

Registration.

shall be construed to include all civil offices created by law for the administration of any general law of a State, or for the administration of jus-

Europe, and am readier to work for Jesus, and am at the command of my Church as totally as any of you.

In my present position there are none of the rewards of sectarian labor, but there are other things quite pleasant and profitable. It is delightful to see people of every able. It is delightful to see people of every name uniting to worship Jesus and promote Scripture holiness, without the stimulus of sect or section or party. It is a pleasure to look at my Sunday School and see superintendents, teachers and scholars, representing four religious denominations and perhaps ten States, from Massabe certified in the form prescribed and printed at the end of the blank registration lists.

XIX. Sessions for revising the lists shall be held in each election precinct, after said five days exposure of the lists, upon notice as provided in paragraph XII, and the Boards of Registration shall have power, and it shall be their duty, to revise the same for a period of two days; and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such from the list. And the Boards shall also, during the same period, add to such registry the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Act, who have not been already registered and who shall then apply to be registered.

AXX. One of the said lists shall then be imm XX. One of the said lists shall then be immediately delivered to the Post Commander, who will forward the some to these Headquarters.

XXI. Each Board shall, at or before the conclusion of registration forward through the Post Commander to these Headquarters, a recommendation of three suitable persons for Inspectors of Elections in each election precinct, stating the name, occupation and postoffice address of each person recommended.

XXII. It is enjoined upon all Boards of Registration to explain, carofully, to all citizens who have not hitherto enjoyed the right of suffrage, the nature of the privileges which have been extended to them, and the importance of exercising with intelligence the new and honorable franchise wills which they have been invested by the Congress of the United States.

XXIII. Boards will take notice that according to Section 10, of the Act of July 19, 1867, they are not to be bound in their action by any opinion of any civil officer of the United States.

XXIV. Boards are instructed that all the provisions of the accordance of the exercise Acts of Congress of the description of the exercise Acts of Congress of th

XXIV. Boards are instructed that all the provisions of the several Acts of Congress cited, are to be liberally construed, to the end that all the intens thereof be fully and perfectly carried out. XXV. The attention of all concerned is directed to the requirements of Section 4 of the said Act of July 19, 1867, by which it is made the duty of the Commanding General to remove from office all persons who are disloyal to the government of the United States, or who use their official inducence in any manner to hinder, delay, prevent or obstruct the due and perfect administration of the reconstruction Acts. The names of all such offen-XXIV. Boards are instructed that all the proreconstruction Acts. The names of all such offenders will be reported through the Post Comman-ders; and all persons in this Military District are called upon to aid and facilitate the execution in good faith of the said Acts and the orders issued in pursuance thereof.

XXVI. The Major-General Commanding, in the exercise of an ultimate revisory authority, will, in due season, before the holding of any election, endue season, before the holding of any election, entertain and determine questions assigning errors in the fegistry, and will, upon inspection of the completed lists, cause corrections of the same, that the true design and purpose of the laws be faithfully answered and that all the rights thereby guaranteed be fully and fairly enjoyed.
