The Election Order.—An Analysis.
On the first page will be found the order of General Carter, in regard to the election for a Convention in this State, with the number of delegates to be elected by the various counties. The allotments seem to be fairly adjusted, and we hardly think there can be any just cause for complaint.

In view of the near approach of the election and of the relative strength of the various counties being known, it becomes an interesting investigation to analyze the relative voting strength of the two races in this State, for notwithstanding all attempts to hide, by meaningless resolutions, the fact of the efforts of the few white Radicals to get up a black man's party, it nevertheless stands out as a palpable and accomplished fact. The official registry has not all been received, seventy-five out of the eighty-nine counties being all from which there are official returns.

From eight or nine sufficient has been heard to know about what the result is. From the other six, viz: Alleghany, Cherokee, Mason, Watauga, Yadkin and Mitchell, in which there are upwards of three thousand white voters, and hardly as many hundred negro voters, have not been heard from. All of these counties, however, will give large white majorities.

It will be found that there will be about 105,000 persons registered in the State, of which the whites will have 87,000 majority. Of the eighty-nine counties the whites will have majorities in seventy-two and the negroes in seventeen, viz: Bertie, Chowan, Caswell, Craven, Edgecombe, Granville, Greene, Hertford, Halifax, Jones, Lenoir, New Hanover, Northampton, Perquimans, Pitt, Pasquotank and Warren. It will require 1,800 votes to entitle a county to a delegate, and it is upon this basis that the allotment to the several counties has been made. Of the one hundred and twenty delegates fixed by law, of which the Convention will be composed, sixteen of the seventeen counties with negro majorities will send thirty-one delegates, Pasquotank voting with Camden, the district has a white majority.

It will thus be seen, that however much we may sympathize with the condition of most of our Southern sisters, who are handed over to the tender mercies of the negroes and Radicals, so far as our own Convention is concerned they exert but an insignificant influence. We are satisfied that the Radicals, giving them every negro vote in the State, cannot elect more than fifty delegates to the Convention, who will be insignificant in talent and influence as they will be in numbers. But the Conservatives must remember that even the strength which they possess can be lost by inaction and want of organization. However much they may differ upon the policy of holding a Convention, they are a unit upon the choice of delegates, and no man, because he may be opposed to a Convention, can fail to see the importance of voting for delegates. Even if it were certain, as we think it is, that an objectionable Constitution would be defeated by the popular vote of the State, much harm could be done by the legislation which a Radical majority in the Convention could and would inflict upon the State. The "rebel" revenue act would be repealed, and the plan proposed by the negro, Galloway, during the Raleigh Convention, or some other equally as "loyal" and harmful would be adopted.

Let the Conservatives, therefore, organize in every county. Let the ablest and best men eligible be selected as candidates and voted for, whether the voter opposes the Constitution either by a direct vote or by not voting upon the question. No good citizen, however indifferent he may be in regard to ordinary elections, can afford to remain from the polls at this one. No mere party contest is to take place, but the fundamental law of the State and the continued supremacy of the whites are at stake. This election will decide whether North Carolina is to be controlled by the virtue, intelligence and character of the State, or by ignorance and corruption—whether her people are to make her laws, or unknown strangers to do so—whether the owners of her soil and property are to fashion her tax bills, or those who have no personal interest here are to do so. It is a fearful decision, and its issue will decide the fate of North Carolina for years to come. It is easy to destroy the Constitution and laws we have, but a century may not restore them to their present condition of excellence—the peace and prosperity of the State may be so checked by the result that years of labor may be passed in vain endeavors to warm them into renewed life.

(Reported Expressly for the Journal.)
Proceedings of the Thirty-seventh Annual Session of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.
Goldsboro, N. C., Oct. 19, 1867.
FOURTH DAY.
MORNING SESSION.
The Convention assembled at 9 o'clock. Prayer by Rev. R. H. Overby.
The proceedings of yesterday were read and received.
Rev. F. M. Jordan offered a resolution, which was passed, that the special order for the hour, the report of the Educational Board be suspended, and the consideration of the report of the Church Extension committee concluded instead.
Rev. Mr. Mitchell offered a resolution to the effect that during the remains of the session of this Convention, the speeches of the members be limited to ten minutes each, and that no member shall speak more than twice on the same subject. Adopted.
The consideration of the report of the committee on Church Extension was resumed. Speeches were made by Revs. Messrs. F. M. Jordan, Webb, Owen, Hardwick, Griffin, T. B. Kingsbury, Repton, W. H. Jordan, Skinner, and Dr. Crenshaw.
The question on the adoption of the report was called for, as amended by the addition of a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee of five, for devising means of raising funds for Church Extension. The report was adopted as amended.
Rev. T. B. Kingsbury offered the following preamble and resolutions, which were adopted unanimously:
WHEREAS, Elder T. E. Skinner, of Raleigh, has resigned his pastoral charge of the Church in that city with the view of removing to a neighboring State; and
WHEREAS, he has been for many years a careful and faithful supporter of all its objects, therefore
Resolved, That while we acknowledge the force of the considerations which have induced him to leave us, it is with sincere sorrow that we give him up.
Resolved, That we will implore the Divine blessing upon him, so that he may be abundantly happy and useful in his new field of labor.
Resolved, That we take pleasure in commending him to the brethren, wherever his lot may be cast, as an able Minister of the New Testament, a faithful pastor and an enlightened and zealous laborer in every department of the Master's cause.
AND WHEREAS, It is understood that Brother Chas. Skinner, Sr., will accompany his son, and whereas, he has been a faithful friend of the Baptist denomination, and a long and devoted follower of Christ;
Resolved, That we deeply regret the circumstances which cause his removal, and part with him with feelings of regret.
Resolved, That we pray God's benediction and grace may rest upon our aged friend and brother, and that he may be able to rest in peace in the evening of his days.
J. A. Graham, Esq., offered a resolution, which was adopted, to the effect that the pastors of the several churches are requested to take up a collection on the second Sunday in November, in aid of the Church in Hillsboro.
The following resolution, offered by Rev. W. A. Kingsbury was adopted:
Resolved, That we tender our most hearty thanks to brother T. B. Kingsbury for his valuable contribution to the cause of the South, and which we believe to be the best we have ever seen.
The report of the Board of Education was then submitted through their Secretary, Rev. W. B. Royall, and is as follows:
REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.
To the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina: DEAR BRETHREN:—At your last session we reported five young men under our direction as beneficiaries. Since that time four others have been added, and that number, and could greater inducements have been offered to that end, the increase would, in all probability, have been still larger. Our financial condition has been such, however, as necessarily to restrict our operations.
It being found impracticable to secure the services of a Superintendent, who would superintend exclusively the work, Elder W. T. Brooks, the presiding officer of the Board, under an urgent solicitation, consented to undertake the general supervision of its interests and to represent them as far as possible before the public. He has zealously endeavored, both by direct personal appeal and through the agency of others, to secure the contributions of individuals to an amount sufficient to sustain about three beneficiaries. These, together with other contributions in connection with the indebtedness of the Board, for the entire year to about two hundred and fifty ($250) Dollars. We feel confident that our brethren throughout the State do not adequately realize the importance of the interest committed to us, and with this conviction we earnestly call upon the friends of practical education to exert their influence vigorously in its behalf. W. B. ROYALL, Secretary.
On motion of Rev. A. Paul Repton, preaching this morning was suspended, and the session continued.
Rev. Messrs. Brooks, Dodson, F. M. Jordan, Walters, Chalfin, Hardwick, Carroll and W. H. Jordan, made lengthy and feeling addresses on the report of the Education Board.
After prayer by Rev. A. Paul Repton, the Convention adjourned to 2 o'clock.
AFTERNOON SESSION.
The Convention assembled at 2 o'clock. Prayer by Rev. T. B. Kingsbury.
The consideration of the report of the Board of Education was resumed. After a general discussion, the report was, on motion, adopted.
Rev. T. B. Kingsbury here read a letter from the colored Baptists in Warrenton, imploring aid of the Convention in behalf of the construction of a Church in Warrenton for their use.
On motion of Rev. Mr. Owen, the letter was submitted to the committee authorized in the report of the Church Extension Committee.
The Finance Committee made a partial report, which was, on motion, adopted.
Rev. Mr. Walters moved that the churches heretofore sending funds to the Convention be urged to send letters accompanying the same, in which they will set forth the objects for which the funds are sent. Carried.
Rev. W. A. Kingsbury submitted the following resolution, which was adopted:
Resolved, That we have appended to our Minutes heretofore the statistical table of every Association in the State, and a statistical table showing the membership of the same.
Resolved, That the Clerk be requested to obtain a copy of the Minutes of each Association before the next annual session of this body, and to copy the same to the Clerks of all the Associations for a list of the Ministers in their several bodies, the same to be embodied in an alphabetical table hereafter in the Minutes of the Convention.
The Committee on Periodicals made the following report:
REPORT ON PERIODICALS.
The Committee on Periodicals notice with pleasure the improvement of the religious press in our country, and we trust that the press which is now so rapidly increasing in number and quality, will be able to do more for the people than ever. Such newspapers are not only necessary to our civilization, but they are also necessary to our religion. They are the only means by which we can keep abreast of the progress of our country, and they are the only means by which we can keep abreast of the progress of our religion. OUR SUNDAY DISPATCHES.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20.

The restoration of peace by the Postoffice Department has led to the ventilation of facts regarding the disposition of booty from the army during its march. Military orders preventing its transmission by express, it was placed in the dead letter office, whence it was transferred to the Freedmen's Bureau, when it was sold at auction. This one picture, on account of its rare beauty, was retained. The articles filled over a dozen large boxes, and the inventory covered over one hundred pages of foolscap. This inventory embraces the description of the article, whence sent, name of sender, and the person to whom addressed. (The articles themselves were disposed of nearly three years ago.)

The Chronicle says, in connection with the alleged change in Senator Wilson's views regarding impeachment, that he has written a letter stating that he has expressed no opinion outside of the committee room. He has not been in the committee room since the close of the session, when it was understood he was averse to impeachment. The report, recently telegraphed, that Col. Gilbert had been tried, fined and reduced in rank for participation in the destruction of an Arkansas newspaper, is unfounded. Major Pierce is the name of the officer tried. The sentence has been approved at headquarters.

Advises from Rome up to Friday state that a fierce fight had taken place at Novola, during which the Papal troops were victorious. The Garibaldians suffered a heavy loss.

OUR MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21—P. M.

There has been expended on reconstruction to date $1,378,000.

The receipts from internal revenue to-day amount to $452,000.

The indebtedness of Southern railroads to the United States Government is between six and seven millions of dollars.

Admiral Porter's steam launch exploded in Severn River, killing Chief Engineer Hoyt, Engineer Clark, Cookswain Shea and a negro steerman—others injured.

From Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21—P. M.

The Presbyterian Synod, after a long discussion in reference to the matter of a union with the Old and New school, referred the matter to the Union Committee, with the exception of the Presbyteries. The Synod hopes that the action will lead to a reunited Church, not only in doctrine, but in spirit, truth and love.

From New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 21—P. M.

Special Order No. 108 declares the total vote of the State of Louisiana, at the election of September 27th and 28th, 1867, on the question of a Convention for the purpose of establishing a Constitution and civil government for the State loyal to the Union, to be 79,714; of which 75,703 were for Convention; 4,006 against Convention, and 85 blanks. A majority of the whole number of registered voters having voted, and the majority of the votes cast being in favor of the Convention as prescribed by the acts of Congress, the delegates elected at said election, as hereinafter named, are notified to assemble in Convention, at Mechanics Institute Hall, in the city of New Orleans, La., on Saturday, Nov. 23rd, 1867, for the purpose stated according to the acts of Congress of March 2d and 23d, 1867. The Order then recapitulates the names of delegates elected.

By command of Brov. Maj. Gen. Jos. A. MOWAN.

The mortality report gives thirty-five interments from yellow fever for the twenty-four hours ending at six o'clock this morning. The weather has again become oppressively warm, in consequence of which the epidemic does not decrease.

A ship load of emigrants from Europe arrived off the bar to-day, but were not permitted to come up to the city. The ship has been ordered to anchor below until her passengers are transferred on board of a steamer bound North.

From Richmond.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 21—P. M.

This afternoon, Mr. Hurnmitt, in a speech in Capitol square, denounced the Northern men here. One of them said he was a damned liar. He was then asked if he would defend himself about to kill him. The police rescued him. The negroes followed to the station house, throwing stones, and very disorderly. All quiet now. There was much excitement in regard to elections.

Mattos.

Hon. Daniel Webster kept on his farm, in Marshfield, from sixty to a hundred sheep, chiefly for their meat. His selections embraced the Southdowns and the Leicester.

On one occasion Mr. Webster remarked, "how little the great mass of Americans are cared for, generally as food, while in England the people generally esteem it the very best of butcher's meats. He said he believed one reason to be, that the English mutton in general was better than ours." "You may occasionally find a 'dam' of good mutton in Albany, New York and Louisiana—but in England you find no bad mutton."

A sheep, according to Mr. Webster, should never be killed for the table before it is three years old. A lamb, indeed, may get nearly its full growth at a year and a half, or twenty months, and become very fat, and this is the age at which they are usually sold for the shambles; but such early mutton is not delicately mixed, the lean with the fat. It shrinks in boiling, and when cut upon the table, it fills the dish with a greasy gravy. Mutton two years old, though a little better, will have a much higher flavor, the muscles and fat being mixed, and when thoroughly cooked will fill the dish with red gravy.

It is gratifying to find these views maintained by one whose authority will secure for them the influence to which they are entitled. They are, in some circles, to be regarded as one of the delicacies to be well and deservedly rebuked. No man who possesses a cultivated taste in these matters will fail to respond to these discriminating remarks of Mr. Webster.

We mean to repeat a thousand times, or at least till we say how some effect upon our countrymen, that a pound of lean, tender, juicy mutton can be produced for half the cost of the same quantity of fat pork; that it is infinitely healthier food, especially in the summer season, and those who eat it become more muscular, and can do more work with greater ease to themselves, than those who eat fat pork. We know nothing more delicious than smoked mutton. Hens of the Southdown breeds of sheep. Venison itself is not superior.

It will be utterly impossible for the Republican party to succeed in its great mission unless the ballot is sternly protected, says Forney; but we suppose he means such protection as was given the soldiers' ballot for Mr. Lincoln, in Indiana during the war.

The N. Y. Com. Adv. says "the result did not turn half so much on the question whether colored men should vote in Ohio, as whether we should, by military law, convert the Carolinas, Georgia, Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, etc., into St. Domingo."

Almost all the negroes in South Carolina have registered two or three names, and have also registered, and as a consequence the list is out of all proportion to the actual population.

Col. Gilbert, who authorized the destruction of a newspaper office in Camden, Ark., because of an article denouncing tipsy soldiers, will have to pay a fine of $1000 and change his shoulder straps for those of a captain.

"Two daughters of a prominent man" were hissed for loud talking at an operamatinée in New York. They made themselves prominent as well as their father.

The London Telegraph says it will "suspend judgment" upon Lopez. Most persons would prefer to see Lopez suspended.
