Bill for the relief of Willis S. Grandy, of Granville county, was considered in Committee of the Whole, amended and re-ported back to the Senate, with a recommendation that it do pass. Subsequently, the Senate adopted the report of the com-mittee, and the bill was ordered to be engrossed, in order to be put upon its third reading.

Bill providing for filling vacancies which may occur in the offices provided in Arti-cle 7 of the Constitution of the State, was considered in Committhe of the Whole, who reported it back to the Senate, recommending its passage. The Senate adopted the report of the committee, and the bill was ordered to be engrossed, in order to be put on its 3d reading.

day. | Mr. Robbins offered a substitute, (a copy of which we could not obtain), the gist of which allows the people of the different towns, cities, &c., the opportunity of specdy elections. Mr. Osborne moved the reference of both bills to the committee on the Judiciary, as he desired some time to consider their merits. The resolution to refer was voted down. The question then recurring on the adoption of the substitute, it was negatived as follows: Those who voted in the affirmative are:

Messrs. Barnes; Lindsay, Love, Melchor, Ma-son, Osborne, Purdie, Robbins and Wilson. Those who voted in the negative are:

brought forward. They did not love North Carolina; they seek their own interest and not the welfare of the State. He appealed to native Radicals to stand by him and oppose these measures which are grinding our people in the dust.

Mr. Linday stated that he was opposed to the bill, and should vote against it, be cause he believed it to be unconstitutional, and that it was placing power in the hands of the Executive which may operate injuriously for all time to come.

The previous question was called, on motion of Mr. Cook, and the bill passed its second reading by the following vote, to wit:

Those who voted in the affirmative are Messrs, Barrow, Bellamy, Brogden, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eaves, Etheridge, Epps (negro), Forkner, Hayes, Harrington, Hyman (negro), Legg, Lassiter, Long, Martindale, Rich, Respass, Sweet, White and Winstead-23.

offered a majority report contending that the provisions of the Revised Code, relating to contested elections, do not apply to elections held under the reconstruction laws of

Mr. Pou, from the same committee, offered a minority report as a substitute for it. The report, among other objections, states that the notice required by law had not been given, and that the new Constitution expressly declared that all laws and clauses of laws, not repugnant to that in-strument, should remain in full force and effect until lawfully altered.

Upon the question of the adoption of the minority report, as a substitute for that of the majority, the previous question was It was sustained, and the question being

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solomn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alsone was realied that moble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory. Instead of restoring the Union it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ton States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy. It has subclished the hadrens corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures, and arrests, and military trials, and accret star-chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the peop sitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American Capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spice and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare to resort;—it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction which is irrevocably vosted by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies, merely because he would not prestitute his high office to the support of the false and partiesn charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet as a subjected and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution.

And we do declare and resolve that ever since
