SEYMOUR AND BLAIR. cratic Mass Meeting in Pitts burg_Speech of General F. P. Blair.

PITTSBURG, PA., September 28. An enthusiastic meeting of the Demo-erats of this city was held in front of the St. Charles Hotel to-night. Not less than 20,000 persons were present, and through-out the proceedings the greatest excitement was manifested. The meeting was called to order by Mr. T. Keenan. Shortly before eight o'clock General Frank P. Blair was introduced, amid great cheering. General Blair addressed the audience at considerable length, and was frequently interrupted with shouts of approbation.-

Fellow-Citizens :--- It is impossible to exaggerate the importance of the issues pend-ing in this contest. The multitudes that ashad been so decided by the Supreme Court of the United States, a court organized under the Constitution to pass upon the constitutionality of all acts of Congress, and that the President, who was sworn to maintain and support the Constitution, and could not, without violating that oth, permit these acts in palpable viole-tion of the Constitution to he areauted to the people of that race who established tion of the Constitution to be executed. The speaker then minutely examined the reconstruction acts, which he firmly sub-mitted were directly antagonistic and made in open defiance to the Constitution. He contended that the reconstruction acts had this Government in themselves and their children, and who are educated and en-lightened and have created the civilization rinnee, and the claims of foreign powers to push them for alleged crime committed beyond their juriciditon. In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Badical party for its disregard of right and the unparalleled oppression and syranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to proceed the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preser-vation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most asked piedge under which carried our flag to victory. Instead of re-storing the Union it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy. It has abolished the habees cor-pus, that most asked the press; it has substituted arbitrary sofarres, and arrests, and military trials, and secret star-ohamber inqui-sitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has dis-regarded in time of peace the right of the press; it has the constitutional tribunals; it has dis-regarded in time of peace the right of the press; it has the free the states and arrests, and military trials, and each of the view is the people of the peace the right of the press; it has dis-regarded in time of peace the right of the people semble to listen to public speeches attest the thorough appreciation which the people have of the importance and vital conse-quences of this election. I shall not, therefore, feel myself at liberty to make any preliminary remarks before coming to the discussion of those questions on which the real interest is centered. I am sure no personal considerations with regard to the merits of any of the candidates can have any influence with the people in making up their decision as compared with the principles which are involved. The real question is how shall we best reators near the other leading officers which and the other leading officers the start and the other leading officers which fore, feel myself at liberty to make any question is, how shall we best restore peace, question is, how shall we best restore peace, confidence and prosperity to the country after this long and exhaustive struggle, and which policy is best calculated to promote this end? The people will decide, with their unerring judgment in favor of that policy which commends itself to their good policy which commends itself to their good and discriminating senses, without regard to the popularity of the candidates put forward to represent the different policies proposed. I believe that proscription, persecution, disfranchisement or arbitrary despotism has never in the history of the pluck a single leaf if it were in my power despotism has never in the history of the world produced peace. It has been tried in the countries of the Old World, it has been tried since the dawn of history, and if it has ever produced peace it has never produced prosperity. After alluding to the grievances of Ire-land the speaker proceeded in forcible lan-guage to depict the condition of the South-ern people, contending that a new Ireland was being made in this country by the tyrannical oppression of the Radical party. He characterized the measures of Congress as extravagant at the expense of the <text><text><text><text><text><text>
