SATURDAY, JULY 17, 1869. The New York Times is often witty, but not always just. The following, from a ne of that paper is both witty and just, and that, too, at the expense of its onnion of the Army and Navy of the Gulf, there was no enlogice pronounced upon Gens. Banks and Builer, the two commanders of the Army of the Department of the Gulf. Gens. Banks and utler ought to have been present at the rennion it aftended to this matter.

The Galaxy.

The August number of this deservedly popular magazine is before us. Any one who has taken the trouble to examine its pages will readily confess that the Galaxy stands among the foremost of our American periodicals. It abounds with matter which is sound and instructive and has much that will amuse and interest. Charles Reade's new story, " Put yourself in his Place." is continued in the August number. The subscription price is $4 per year, payable in advance. Address Shaldon & Co., 498 and 500 Broadway, New York.

The Reconstructed Farmer,

As a practical, sound and instructive agricultural magazine, the Reconstructed Farmer, published by Messrs, Thigpen & Dancy, at Tarboro', in this State, is deserving of the highest regard. The July number, which has come to hand, contains much that will interest and benefit the farmer. The judgment of the editors is sound and based upon practical results and developments. The selections are made with care and great attention to propriety. Subscription $2 per year, payaable upon the receipt of the first number. The American Odd Fellow

Political Proscription.

The New York Times, in a recent issue, has the following as the first sentence of its

One of the most satisfactory signs of improving opinion throughout the south, is the disposition of Republicans to expunge from the law and from the policy of their party all traces of proccription and wall that disabilities.

The Times, although often-times well posted, is certainly in a gross error here, for there has never been a period of Republican rule, with us, that has been so outrageously proscriptive as now. A few men have obtained the control of the entire party, and the petty leaders throughout the different cities, towns and townships. are all dependents of theirs, held together by the feudalism of office. There is no employment of any kind, either in the gift of county, State or municipality, no matter how picayune that employment may can obtain. The question of capability is entirely set aside and ignorant negroes or itinerant white men, with neither ability to perform properly, nor honesty enough to work fairly, are installed in offices of emolument and trust. Even the very laborer-the day laborer-cannot obtain his manual employ unless he shall have first given in his adherence to the dominant party. On the contrary, where the colored population, as a class, are all Radical voter . they can yet be found in the employ of al most every Southern household, and in every place of business on the streets. While the negroes of the South receive the labor and confidence of the Southern whites, yet those very whites are prescribed by the party of which that class are the political slaves and tools. So much for the removal, in the South, of the " proscription and political disabilities" of which the Times discourses.

J. S. W. Eagles, colored policeman, and one of the candidates for the vacant Legislative sest from this county, at the negro in Thursday night, assured his other things, that, if elecof the Republican party."
