OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

The President and the Senate—Ohio and the Fifteenth Amendment—New Currency—New Forms for Distillers—Commissioner Delano and the Whiskey Monopoly—John Chinaman—The 8th of January and the Administration—Mrs. M. A. Pollard, &c., &c.

WASHINGTON, CITY, D. C., Jan. 8, 1870.

Dear Journal:—The President will send to the Senate next week a large number of nominations—diplomatic, naval, consular, military, postal, revenue and judicial—including that of Judge Strong, in the place of Mr. Stanton, on the Supreme Bench.—General Grant told a Senator yesterday that when he had once made a nomination he felt that he had nothing more to do with it, and that he did not regard the confirmation or the rejection of it by the Senate as reflecting in any way upon him. I am glad to know that the President's peace is not affected by the action of the Senate. I suppose the same philosophic spirit possesses him when his wishes and recommendations are unheeded or opposed by his Radical friends in the Congress of the country.

The Radicals are claiming that Ohio will ratify the Fifteenth Amendment. I think their "wishes are father to the thought," and, as it is pretty well settled that "doubtful things are very uncertain," we will know more of Ohio and her ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment when the vote is taken.

The New York Bank Note Printing Companies, Secretary Boutwell's especial pets, are again behindhand in their work. The new legal-tender notes will not be ready for circulation for several weeks. It is thought an effort will be made this Winter to have all the printing done at Washington, as was the custom under previous Administrations. It will be a pretty big job to pass such a law against the combined influence of the Companies and their friend, the Secretary of the Treasury.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has prescribed for the use of distillers, wholesale liquor dealers and rectifiers a new form of books, which will take the same number as the old form, 52. They can be obtained from Collectors and Assessors. Its use will be enforced on and after the 1st of February, 1870. I will, in this connection, give you an extract from a letter received from Philadelphia, written by one thoroughly conversant with the subject on which he writes. He is a rampant Radical and his estimate of Delano is correct: "The whiskey business has gone up in this place. The West has all its own way now. The whole machinery of the Revenue Department is used to crush out the East to the advancement of the West. All the bunsby regulations issued by that ancient fossil Delano are not applied to the West, but are intended for Philadelphia almost entirely. There are only two distilleries in operation here now and they will stop. One distillery was ready to start, having complied with every unreasonable and illegal order, and when there was no other peg left to hang a hat on, permission to start was refused on the ground that fraud was suspected and this in the face of the facts of capacity being doubled, meters, storekeepers, guagers, Assistant Assessors and detectives on the alert, and everything that ingenuity could suggest for harassing and distressing producers. Step over the Eastern boundary of Pennsylvania and presto! everything is changed. They are so honest there that the Commissioner don't even attach meters to their distilleries, for would not that be a reflection on those worthy people and "am not I, the great Delano, from among them and may they not be a voice potential crying Delano for Senator! Delano for Governor?" The fact is the old ass thinks his a colossal intellect and that it has never been properly recognized by the people. As an instance of his wisdom he has decided salt meat to be a manufacture; druggists, because they use alchohol, to be liquor dealers; and the mixing of one barrel of whiskey with another, to be rectifying. Let him go up head. I see no salvation for Eastern whiskey manufacturers, except in Delano's retirement or in an absolute capacity tax, neither of which is very likely." The above is true to the letter with regard to the whiskey monopoly, and such is the system carried on with other branches of industry, both with regard to internal revenue and tariff, until it seems to be the sole aim and end of our government to foster and protect monopolies. Delano has decided to transfer guagers from one distillery to another, as provided in Sec. 49, act of July 20, 1868. They are to remain in charge of the distillery about three weeks when they will be relieved. The Commissioner expects great results to flow from this last idea of his.

Senator Stewart, of Nevada, will introduce a bill in the Senate providing for the giving to Chinamen the civil rights of citizens of the United States. John Chinaman only asks to be put on equality with white citizens in the courts and that they may be protected in their persons and property. They never come here to be citizens, but always look forward to an arrangement for a return to China during life, or failing in that, that their bones be taken to their homes. Senator Stewart is bound to see that the Chinaman gets what he don't want and has not asked for. The Senator's "buzzum is busting" with sympathy and love for every race and color, the darker the shade the greater his love. Poor Stewart, he is a restless, uneasy wight and in this case has most unblushingly stolen Sumner's thunder, as he knows Sumner is the special protector of the Asiatic as well as the African.

Very much to the general surprise, the 8th of January had no recognition from the "powers that be." Indeed the day was entirely ignored and had it not been for the patriotism of Mrs. G. A. Pollard, the proprietress of the Saint Cloud Hotel, there would have been no public celebration of this memorable day. The American Flag was thrown to the breeze from her new and beautiful Hotel, opposite the Masonic Temple, where quite a large company assembled to do honor to the occasion. Mrs. Pollard merits praise for her thoughtfulness in not permitting "the glorious 8th" to pass over without patriotic observance. The table was most magnificently decorated with artistic devices, and the success of the chef de cuisine, the celebrated Henry Jourdan, in preparation of the numberless delicacies provided, places him in the front rank of culinary monarchs, a joy to the connoisseur as well as the epicure, and as was unanimously agreed upon by the company present, that Mrs. Pollard certainly can "keep a Hotel." Among the "press gang" present, I noticed Hon. T. B. Florence, Hon. Alex. Delmar, O. K. Harris of the Republican, M. M. Noah, New York Democrat, Prof. Wilcox, Intelligencer, Col. Aiken, Sunday Gazette, and Ben Berly Poore, well known to the newspaper world. The occasion for its agreeable features will be long remembered. Although it was one divested entirely of partisan feelings or purposes, I feel that Mrs. Pollard deserves well of the patriotic citizens of the country, when she of all who live in the capital of our country did commemorate the memory of the Hero of New Orleans. I fear that love and respect for our past history is a crime today.

Meeting in Chatham.

Editor Sentinel:—Pursuant to previous notice, a very large assemblage of the citizens of Chatham county convened in the Court House in Pittsboro, on 1st January, 1870, for the purpose of expressing their views of an act now pending in the Legislature entitled "an act to secure the better protection of life and property."

On motion of Col. Henry A. London, Hon. Abram Rencher, was called to the Chair and R. James Powell, requested to act as Secretary.

The Chairman, in his usual forcible, clear and eloquent style, explained the object of the meeting; when, on motion of John Manning, Jr., Esq., the chair was requested to appoint a committee of seven to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting.

The Chairman announced the following committee, viz: John Manning, Jr., J. G. Rencher, George P. Moore, James Pace, Hasten P. Straughan, Caswell Bynum, and Col. H. A. London.

During the absence of the committee on their report, Col. John A. McDonald was called for and entertained the meeting in a speech of some length—he was decidedly opposed to the passage of the bill. After which the committee reported the following preamble and resolutions through their chairman, John Manning, Jr., which was adopted without a dissenting voice:

WHEREAS, Some evil-minded persons have circulated reports detrimental to the good name of Chatham county; and, Whereas, the Legislature of the State has under consideration several matters of great importance to all her citizens; and whereas, it is not only the privilege, but the duty of good citizens to assemble and make known to their representatives and the State at large, their feeling and opinions upon all matters touching their interest; and whereas, moreover, the unimpassioned voice of the people should and will be a safe guide and council to our legislators; therefore,

Resolved, That we, the people of Chatham county, have assembled, without regard to party, and unbiased by political prejudice, do, of our own knowledge, declare that the charges brought against our county, of being in a state of insurrection, or evincing any disposition to resist the execution of law, or cherishing any hostility to the State or Federal authority, when lawfully and honestly exercised, are wholly false and groundless; that whatever acts of lawlessness have been committed in our county, that have not been punished by due process of law, have been done by unknown parties; and there has not been a single instance of resistance made to the officers of the law in the discharge of their duties by the citizens of Chatham county.

Resolved, That the bill now pending in the Legislature entitled "an act to secure the better protection of life and property," and commonly known as the Shoffner bill, if made a law, will be dangerous to the lives, liberty and property of North Carolinians, subversive of the rights so dearly bought for us by our ancestors—hostile to a republican form of government, and in direct violation of the spirit and very letter of the constitution of the State, which provides that "the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended."

Resolved, That Mr. W. T. Gunter, one of our representatives, for his manly and patriotic vote against this Shoffner bill, has merited our thanks and commendation.

Resolved, That the constitution of the State requires that an election for members of the General Assembly shall be held "on the first Thursday in August in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy and every two years thereafter," and that any attempt on the part of this present General Assembly to hold over for a longer time than the first Thursday in August, 1870, would be in violation of both the language and the intent of the constitution—a fraud upon their constituents and deserving the reprobation of the good people of the State.

Resolved, That in a Republican government all private and public wrongs are to be righted in and by courts of justice alone; all political grievances discussed publicly before the people and redressed by a manly exercise of the elective franchise; and we therefore disapprove of all political organizations, and we call upon all good citizens to lend their aid and influence against the commission of any and all acts of violence.

Resolved, That our representatives in the Legislature be instructed to act, and use their influence in accordance with the above resolutions, as the feelings and sentiments of their constituents.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded by the Secretary to Mr. W. T. Gunter, and to the Sentinel and Standard to be published with the request that State papers copy generally.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

George Peabody's Will—The Entry at Doctors' Commons, London.

By mail from Europe we have the following copy of the main provisons of George Peabody's will, as taken from the books of Doctors' Commons, London:

I, George Peabody, gentlemen, do make this my last will and testament:

Firstly. I direct that my remains shall be sent to my native town of Danvers, now incorporated by the name of Peabody, in the county of Essex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, in that part of the United States of America called New England, and be deposited in the ground appropriated to that purpose in the cemetery of Harmony Grove, in Salem, in said county, (near the Peabody town line,) under the direction of my executors, hereinafter named.

Secondly. I give and bequeath to Henry West, of 22 Old Broad street, London, £2,200; and in the event of his decease to his wife, Louisa West; and in the event of her decease to his surviving children.

Thirdly. I give and bequeath to Thomas Perman, of 22 Old Broad street, London, the sum of £1,000; and in the event of his decease to his wife, Annette Emma Perman; and in the event of her decease to his surviving children.

Fourthly. I give and bequeath to the Right Hon. Lord Stanley, the American Minister at the court of St. James for the time being; the Right Hon. Sir Stafford Northcote, Bart; and Junius Spencer Morgan, Esq., trustee of the Peabody donation fund, and their successors, trustees of the said fund, the sum of £150,000 upon trust for the building of lodging houses for the laboring poor of London, as defined in my late letters to the said trustees; and I direct that this legacy be considered a part of the second trust, and disposed of in accordance with said trust. And I direct that my London executors shall, of the said sum of £150,000, pay to said trustees of the Peabody donation fund £100,000 on the first Monday of October, A. D. 1873, and the sum of £50,000 at any time during the said year of 1873.

Fifthly. He names his executors in England and America.

Sixthly. I direct that all and each of my executors aforesaid be exempt and excused from giving bonds to any court, or magistrate, or otherwise for the performance of their duties or offices as my executors.

Seventhly. I give and bequeath to the said Sir Curtis Lampson and said Sir Charles Reed £5,000 each for their services.

Eighthly. I give and bequeath to the said George Peabody Russell, R. Singleton Peabody, and Charles W. Chandler, my American executors, £5,000 each.

Ninthly, I give and bequeath to the said George Peabody Russell, R. Singleton Peabody, and Charles W. Chandler, all the rest, residue, and remainder of the property, both real and personal, of which I shall be possessed at my decease, or which may afterwards come or fall into my estate upon trust to sell, exchange, or retain, and the interest accruing on the same, to divide semi-annually (reinvesting the same in the case of minor children) among the parties named as beneficiaries in the family trust, of which Messrs. J. J. M. Beebe, S. T. Dana, and J. Endicott Peabody, are trustees, according to the proportions of the sums allotted to each in said trust, or such other proportions as I may hereafter prescribe to them, my said American executors.

In witness whereof, I, the said George Peabody, declaring this to be my last will and testament, written on seven pages of paper, have hereto set my hand and seal, this 9th day of September, 1869.

GEORGE PEABODY.

Northern Definition of Carpet-Baggers.

The New York News truthfully says:

No Northern man who has located in the South with the purpose of making it his future home, and of becoming identified with its interest, is regarded by the Southern people as a carpet-bagger. But there are hundreds and thousands of Northern men there who are utterly without a character at home, and who have straggled down that way and squatted among the negroes, with the avowed design of living in their midst only as long as they can make it profitable. Many of these men, under the system of military rule enforced by the Government, are in high places. They do no hesitate to avow themselves temporary sojourners. When Gov. Scott, of South Carolina visits Ohio, he speaks of going 'home.' Senator Welsh, of Florida, claims to be a citizen of Michigan. Rev. B. F. Whittemore, of Boston, a member of the lower house from South Carolina, is now in his second term, and is notoriously investing all he can make out of his position in real estate in Massachusetts. He is even building a handsome residence near Boston to be occupied by himself, when the negroes of his district in South Carolina shall be ready to repudiate him. There are but very few Southern Congressmen of Northern birth who do not design ultimately to return to their old homes, to enjoy the fruits of their raid upon the section in which they now live. These men are carpet-baggers. Their mission to the South is entirely a mercenary and selfish one. They care nothing for the people, white or black, beyond what they can make out of them; and they should be in no wise confounded with bona fide settlers, whether the place of settlement be in Alabama or New York.

Fatal Mistakes with Prescriptions.

Another case is reported in New York of a man now lying at death's door owing to a mistake with a prescription, said to have been made in the shop of one of the best and most trusted druggists in that city. The repeated occurrence of "fatal mistakes" from ignorance or carelessness should induce all druggists to entrust the compounding of prescriptions only to the most careful and duly qualified persons. An incompetent clerk, a misplaced bottle, an illegible manuscript may make all the difference between life and death, and none should occupy the delicate and responsible position of dispensing powerful and poisonous drugs without first having given proof of thorough capacity and fitness therefor.

"This is where we won the battle of Waterloo," said Wellington, as he stood looking at a crowd of Eton boys playing cricket.

HOLLOWAY'S VERMIFUGE CONFECTIONS

DR. HOLLOWAY, some 15 years ago, witnessing the distress occasioned sickly children in taking the nauseous vermifuges of that day, resolved to analyze them, and from the most effective of these remedies succeeded in separating their active medical properties, pure, tasteless and inodorous. Then by combining these with sugar, and moulding them into an agreeable confection, formed the present POPULAR and EFFECTIVE VERMIFUGE known as Holloway's Vermifuge Confections, which have almost entirely superseded the old nauseous Vermifuges, to the delight of the poor little sufferers. It contains no Calomel or other poisonous ingredients.
So highly esteemed is this popular Vermifuge, by the profession, that all intelligent physicians who know of them, prescribe them in preference to other remedies, as not only more pleasant to take, but more effective to cure.
Parents and guardians having the care of children, should keep them as a family medicine; for they not only eradicate Worms—those pests of childhood—but they correct any derangement of the digestive organs, so prevalent with children.

Holloway's Concentrated Essence of Jamaica Ginger.
This is a pure extract of the true Jamaica Ginger, free from Capsicum, or any deleterious admixture; containing all the Aromatic, Carminative, and Diffusively Stimulating properties of the Jamaica Ginger. So efficacious in all cases of chill from exposure to cold or dampness, Cholic, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Dyspepsia, nervous Debility, Headache, Sea Sickness, &c.
Being double the strength of any Essence of Ginger in the market, it is cheaper to consumers and more convenient to travelers.

HEISKELL'S TETTER OINTMENT.
This Ointment, after an experience of twenty years, has proved itself a sovereign remedy for all Diseases of the Skin; having effected a radical cure in every case in which it was used, curing many obstinate cases of fifteen or twenty years standing, that had previously resisted all remedies prescribed by the best medical talent of the country. Its effect is astonishing; in a few days the soreness and irritation is removed, the skin becomes smooth and healthy, and remains permanently healed, without the use of any other remedy.
Thus, TETTER, SALT RHEUM, ITCH, SOLDIER'S ITCH, ERYSIPELAS, BLOTCHES, PIMPLES, and every form of disease of the skin is cured, no matter of how long standing. It has cured bad cases of INFLAMED EYELIDS, and discharges from the Ear when nothing else would heal them. PILES that have resisted all other treatment for many years, have been effectually cured by the use of only one box of this Ointment. BURNS, SCALDS and OLD SORES it heals in a very short time. PRICE 50 CENTS PER BOX. If not sold by your Druggist send 60 cents to Johnston, Holloway & Cowden, Philadelphia, and a box will be sent free of postage to any address.
OBSERVE—None genuine without the signature of the proprietors on the wrapper of each box.

CONSUMPTION.
PROF. TROSSEAU has demonstrated, beyond all question, that UPHAM'S FRESH MEAT CURE will cure Consumption, as proved by him in two thousand cases in the hospitals of Paris, and Dr. Weisse, in Russia, has had similar success there, and in this country our physicians are commending it in all Pulmonary affections, Marasmus, and General Debility, with great satisfaction. It is pleasant to take, and a single bottle will convince any one of its virtues. Sold at $1 per bottle, or six for $5.

PRATT'S "ASTRAL" OIL,
UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, is perfectly pure, and free from all adulterations or mixtures of any kind. It emits no offensive smell while burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same assurance of safety as gas. Chemists pronounce it the best and safest Illuminating Oil ever offered to the public; and Insurance Companies indorse and urge upon consumers the use of the "Astral" Oil in preference to any other. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. To prevent adulteration, the "Astral" Oil is packed only in the Guaranty Patent Cans, of 1 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. Every package with uncut seal we warrant. Be sure and get none but the genuine article, Pratt's "Astral" Oil, for sale by dealers everywhere, and at wholesale and retail by the proprietors
